depth which makes Forest and Crag unique. Rather it is the Watermans gift for storytelling which makes the reader feel that he or she has been invited to pull up a chair and listen spellbound to two masters of their craft. In sharing the stories of those who came to the mountains before the Watermans invite all to join in preserving the future of these iconic landscapes. Julia Goren, Education Director and Summit Steward Coordinator, Adirondack Mountain Club. PRAISE FOR FOREST AND CRAG

This is a superb monumental history. The Watermans are adept at the capsule profile, whether of peaks or persons. A gallery of characters unrolls as diverse as those in a novel by Dickens. Paul Jamieson, former editor, The Adirondack Reader. Written with grace, style and good humor, seasoned with a refreshing sense of wonder, Forest and Crag reads more like a gripping novel than the serious research work it really is. Magnetic North. In its quality, comprehensiveness and regional orientation, Forest and Crag is unprecedented in American letters. It will become a classic in social, intellectual and environmental history. Roderick Frazier Nash, author of Wilderness and the American Mind, Fifth Edition. Forest and Crag presents an incredible gift for today's hikers: the opportunity to take a thoughtful and vigorous ramble into the past and to explore the Northeastern mountains of yesteryear. What an adventure and what better way to contemplate how we shape the region's future. Peter Crane, Mount Washington Observatory. Forest and Crag traces the Northeast's human and natural history by following the hiking experience from the early adventurers to the more recent development of an environmental ethic. The Watermans tell this story with clear respect and deep joy for the mountains that shaped the stories of the region's hikers and hiking clubs. Mary Margaret Sloan, Chief Operating Officer, Positive Tracks. The Watermans' true genius is their ability to string all the facts together in a narrative so lively that even the footnotes and endnotes are read as eagerly as one would devour dessert at the end of a good meal. Tony Goodwin, coeditor of High Peaks Trails, 14th Edition. The Best Front Range Trail Runs. Tony Parker, 2014-05-08. An easy to use guide to 50 of the best Front Range hikes for children.
