The Romantic Discourse of Spontaneous Creativity explores the connections among the Romantic discourse of spontaneous literary creativity the nineteenth century cultural practice of mesmerism and the mythical Medusa as an icon of the gendered gaze An analysis of Medusan mesmerism in the poetry of Mary Robinson Samuel Taylor Coleridge Percy Bysshe Shelley and Letitia Elizabeth Landon L E L and the prose of Mary Shelley reveals that these Romantic era writers equate the enraptured state that produces spontaneous literary creation with the mesmeric trance These writers employ Medusan imagery to portray both the mesmerist and the mesmerized subject a conflation of subject object positions that complicates issues of agency subjectivity and gender Images of Medusan mesmerism ultimately work to deconstruct Romantic ideological dichotomies of self other female male muse artist and sublime beautiful In contrast to a traditional masculinized Romantic discourse that emphasizes self possession this study uncovers a feminized improvisational Romantic discourse characterized Other possession an assumption of the mesmerized subject position that enhances subjective fluidity This study interrogates the Romantic discourse of spontaneous literary creativity through an examination of Romantic poetry prose and theory that utilizes mesmeric and Medusan metaphors to suggest creative inspiration Building on recent scholarship about improvisational poetics the subversive potential of mesmerism and Medusa as a feminist icon this work suggests that the mesmeric Medusan muse not only enables creativity for women writers but also provides a mirror in which they view and through which they give voice to their own societal oppression The mesmeric Medusan muse in Romantic era literature from the Ancient Mariner and the Frankenstein monster to the tragic abandoned Sapphic poetess often represents the face of oppression an unwelcome and monstrous truth in nineteenth century British society For women writers in particular braving the stare of the Medusan muse enhances empathy and therefore inspiration and literary productivity The art journal London , 1859 The Guildsman , 1934 The Borgias Clemente Fusero, 1972 The Art Journal , 1859 Vol for 1867 includes Illustrated catalogue of the Paris Universal Exhibition The Elmer Belt Library of Vinciana Elmer Belt, Kate Traumann Steinitz, Margot Archer, 1946 British Film Catalogue Denis Gifford, 2016-04-01 First published in 2001 The standard work on its subject this resource includes every traceable British entertainment film from the inception of the silent cinema to the present day Now this new edition includes a wholly original second volume devoted to non fiction and documentary film an area in which the British film industry has particularly excelled All entries throughout this third edition have been revised and coverage has been extended through 1994 Together these two volumes provide a unique authoritative source of information for historians archivists librarians and film scholars L'art gothique et la renaissance en Chypre Camille Enlart, 1899 Dictionary Catalog of the Rare Book Division New York Public Library.
