Klein, 2015-11-25 Controversy rages on about God's choosing people for salvation Are only the few elect Rather than typically beginning with the preconceptions of systematic theologies Dr William Klein takes up this question by searching for a biblical theology of election He surveys the OT contexts of God's choosing individuals prophets priests kings to serve divine purposes and considers God's election of the nation of Israel as his special people This OT study proposes that God's election is both individual and corporate but not always determinative Individuals entered the people of God by birth but not all the people found salvation Faith in Yahweh was required This book traces these elective understandings through the intertestamental literature identifying continuities and shifts The bulk of the study and the heart of the argument focus on the New Testament Klein identifies concepts of election and relationships between writers in the gospels the Lucan material Paul s writings and the rest The new covenant God choosing the church in Christ emphasizes election as corporate while the individual election of Jesus disciples and of Paul raises the question whether such chosenness is necessarily salvific In closing Klein discusses the most engaging and divisive guestions around God's election and offers a real challenge to today's church Children's Understanding of Desire and Knowledge Thomas Daniel Lyon,1993 Dao Companion to the Philosophy of Xunzi Eric L. Hutton, 2016-11-09 This volume presents a comprehensive analysis of the Confucian thinker Xunzi and his work which shares the same name It features a variety of disciplinary perspectives and offers divergent interpretations The disagreements reveal that as with any other classic the Xunzi provides fertile ground for readers It is a source from which they have drawn and will continue to draw different lessons In more than 15 essays the contributors examine Xunzi s views on topics such as human nature ritual music ethics and politics They also look at his relations with other thinkers in early China and consider his influence in East Asian intellectual history A number of important Chinese scholars in the Song dynasty 960 1279 CE sought to censor the Xunzi They thought that it offered a heretical and impure version of Confuciansim As a result they directed study away from the Xunzi This has diminished the popularity of the work However the essays presented here help to change this situation They open the text s riches to Western students and scholars The book also highlights the substantial impact the Xunzi has had on thinkers throughout history even on those who were critical of it Overall readers will gain new insights and a deeper understanding of this important but often neglected thinker Passion Rebecca Kingston, 2011 Whether in the reception of rousing political oratory like that of de Gaulle or Martin Luther King or in the motivations of demonstrators in popular uprisings like those in Tunisia and Egypt there is no denying that emotion and politics are connected Nonetheless criticism of political debate and discourse as emotionally rather than rationally based is ubiquitous and emotion is often presented as a negative factor in politics Public Passionshows that reason and emotion are not mutually exclusive and restores the legitimacy of shared emotion in political life Public Passiontraces the role of emotion in political thought from its prominence in classical sources through its resuscitation by Montesquieu to the present moment Combining intellectual history philosophy and political theory Rebecca Kingston develops a sophisticated account of collective emotion that demonstrates how popular sentiment is compatible with debate pluralism and individual agency and shows how emotion shapes the tone of interactions among citizens She also analyzes the ways in which emotions are shared and transmitted among citizens of a particular regime paying particular attention to the connection between political institutions and the psychological dispositions that they foster Public Passionpresents illuminating new ways to appreciate the forms of popular will and reveals that emotional understanding by citizens may in fact be the very basis through which a commitment to principles of justice can be sustained Women's Perspectives on Ancient and Medieval Philosophy Isabelle Chouinard, Zoe McConaughey, Aline Medeiros Ramos, Roxane Noël, 2021-08-31 This book promotes the research of present day women working in ancient and medieval philosophy with more than 60 women having contributed in some way to the volume in a fruitful collaboration It contains 22 papers organized into ten distinct parts spanning the sixth century BCE to the fifteenth century CE Each part has the same structure it features first a paper which sets up the discussion and then one or two responses that open new perspectives and engage in further reflections Our authors contributions address pivotal moments and players in the history of philosophy women philosophers in antiquity Cleobulina of Rhodes Plato Lucretius Bardaisan of Edessa Alexander of Aphrodisias Plotinus Porphyry Peter Abelard Robert Kilwardby William Ockham John Buridan and Isotta Nogarola The result is a thought provoking collection of papers that will be of interest to historians of philosophy from all horizons Far from being an isolated effort this book is a contribution to the ever growing number of initiatives which endeavour to showcase the work of women in philosophy Taxes Commission on Private Philanthropy and Public Needs, 1977 Research Papers: Taxes Commission on Private Philanthropy and Public Needs.1977 Sacra Pagina: 1, 2, and 3 John John Painter, 2023-05-30 The Johannine Epistles are today read as an important part of the Johannine literature Yet the meaning of the text is often unclear Part of the problem arises because although 1 John is called an Epistle it lacks the formal marks of an Epistle In 1 2 and 3 John John Painter illuminates the relationship 1 2 and 3 John have to each other and to the Gospel Painter explains the historical context of the Johannine Epistles using a socio rhetorical approach The writings are shown to reflect a situation of conflict and schism within the Johannine community they seek to persuade the readers of the truth of the writer's message In this truth the readers are encouraged to abide if they would have the assurance of eternal life Painter also examines the inseparable connection between belief and ethical life in active love for one another Through the socio rhetorical approach Painter brings to light the continuing relevance of these writings 1 2 and 3 John is divided into two parts Chapters under 1 John are Introduction to the Exegesis of 1 John Outline of 1 John First Presentation of the Two Tests 1 6 2 27 Excursus Sin and Sinlessness Excursus Love of the Brother Sister of One Another Excursus The Antichrist Second Presentation of the Two Tests 2 28 4 6 Third Presentation of the Two Tests 4 7 5 12 Conclusion 5 13 21 and Excursus A Sin Unto Death Chapters under 2 and 3 John are 2 John Introduction to the Exegesis of 2 John Outline of 2 John Prescripti 2 John 1 3 Body of the Letter 4 11 Notice of Intention to Visit 12 and Final Greetings 13 3 John Introduction to the Exegesis of 3 John Outline of 3 John Prescript 3 John 1 2 Body of Human Sexuality and its Problems John Bancroft, 2008-12-29 Prepared by one Letter 3 12 and Final Greetings 13 15
