The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries ACompanion to Modernist Poetry David E. Chinitz, Gail McDonald, 2014-06-23 A COMPANION TO MODERNIST POETRY A

Companion to Modernist Poetry A Companion to Modernist Poetry presents contemporary approaches to modernist poetry in a uniquely in depth and accessible text The first section of the volume reflects the attention to historical and cultural context that has been especially fruitful in recent scholarship The second section focuses on various movements and groupings of poets placing writers in literary history and indicating the currents and countercurrents whose interaction generated the category of modernism as it is now broadly conceived The third section traces the arcs of twenty one poets careers illustrated by analyses of key works The Companion thus offers breadth in its presentation of historical and literary contexts and depth in its attention to individual poets it brings recent scholarship to bear on the subject of modernist poetry while also providing guidance on poets who are historically important and who are likely to appear on syllabi and to attract critical interest for many years to come Edited by two highly respected and notable critics in the field A Companion to Modernist Poetry boasts a varied list of contributors who have produced an intense focused study of modernist poetry
