transnational far right and comparative fascism studies Cinematograph of Words Flora Süssekind, Paulo Henriques Britto, 1997 This is an extraordinarily imaginative attempt to analyze the relations between literature and technique in Brazil from the 1880 s to the 1920 s The author suggests that in these relations we can see more clearly the shape of a period that is otherwise usually defined from a literary perspective as pre or post something or other rather than in terms of its own characteristics One such characteristic is the intense interaction with the new technologies then arising in Brazil the beginning of the professionalization of writers and a revision of the concept of literature redefined as technique The author's chief concern is to determine what is distinctive about the literary production of the period Rather than focusing on literature's relations with visual art with a rising social class or with the sociopolitical divisions within the educated classes of Brazilian society the author examines the crônica a kind of journalistic essay poetry and fiction of these decades in terms of their encounter with a burgeoning technological and industrial landscape This encounter is examined from two perspectives The first is explicit representation the portrayal in Brazilian literature of modern artifacts new means of transformation and communication and the newborn industries of advertising and commercial publication The second perspective examines how these close contacts with the technological world came to shape cultural production that is not how literature represents technique but how literary technique changed as it incorporated procedures characteristic of photography film and poster art This transformation was consistent and concurrent with significant changes taking place in the perceptions and sensibilities of the population of major Brazilian cities a population increasingly attuned to images the instant and technology as all powerful mediators of the urban landscape time and a subjectivity constantly under the threat of extinction Las Derechas Sandra McGee Deutsch, 1999 This is the first book explicitly to compare extreme right wing organizations ideas and actions in different national settings in Latin America It shows how extreme rightist class and gender composition motives programs and activities varied over time and between countries It concludes by demonstrating the importance of the analysis for understanding present conditions 1922, itinerario de uma falsa os dissiden-vanguarda tes, a semana e o integralismo Antonio Arnoni Prado, 1983 Porous City Bruno Carvalho, 2017-09-25 A timely and original cultural history of Rio de Janeiro Itinerário de uma falsa vanguarda Antonio Arnoni Prado, 2010 Obra imprescindível para a compreensão do Modernismo brasileiro este ensaio foca sua atenção sobre uma linhagem de obras e autores pouco analisados pela crítica com destaque para a produção de Elísio de Carvalho 1880 1925 ampliando nossa compreensão dos nexos entre literatura e política no período crucial que se estende da proclamação da República até a década de 1930 A dimensão da noite João Luiz Lafetá, 2004 Ao articular marxismo psicanálise e teoria estética Lafetá construiu uma perspectiva crítica extremamente reveladora Neste volume Antonio Arnoni Prado reuniu mais de 40 textos muitos deles inéditos em livro que desenharam a trajetória completa do crítico desde as primeiras análises de peso nos anos 70 até sua morte prematura em 1996 Intellectuals in the Latin Space during the Era of Fascism Valeria Galimi, Annarita Gori, 2020-02-26 This volume investigates a galaxy of diverse networks and intellectual actors who engaged in a broad political environment from conservatism to the most radical right between the World Wars Looking beyond fascism it considers the less investigated domain of the Latin space which is both geographical and cultural encompassing countries of both Southern Europe and Latin America Focus is given to mid level civil servants writers journalists and artists and important transnational agents as well as the larger intellectual networks to which they belonged The book poses such questions as In what way did the intellectuals align national and nationalistic values with the project of creating a Republic of Letters that extended beyond each country s borders a space in which one could produce and disseminate thought whose objective was to encourage political action What kinds of networks did they succeed in establishing in the interwar period Who were these intellectuals in action What role did they play in their institutions and cultural associations activities A wider and intricate analytical framework emerges exploring right wing intellectual agents and their networks their travels and the circulation of ideas during the interwar period and on a transatlantic scale offering an original contribution to the debate on interwar authoritarian regimes and opening new possibilities for research Chapter 2 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license
