Miller, 2010-05-11 Drawing on previously unpublished eyewitness accounts prizewinning historian Donald L. Miller has written what critics are calling one of the most powerful accounts of warfare ever published Here are the horror and heroism of World War II in the words of the men who fought it the journalists who covered it and the civilians who were caught in its fury Miller gives us an up close deeply personal view of a war that was more savagely fought and whose outcome was in greater doubt than readers might imagine This is the war that Americans at the home front would have read about had they had access to the previously censored testimony of the soldiers on which Miller builds his gripping narrative Miller covers the entire war on land at sea and in the air and provides new coverage of the brutal island fighting in the Pacific the bomber war over Europe the liberation of the death camps and the contributions of African Americans and other minorities He concludes with a suspenseful never before told story of the atomic bombing of Nagasaki based on interviews with the men who flew the mission that ended the war Archivum orientale Pragense, 1991 With Utmost Spirit Barbara Tomblin, 2004-10-08 Nineteen months before the D day invasion of Normandy Allied assault forces landed in North Africa in Operation TORCH the first major amphibious operation of the war in Europe Under the direction of Gen Dwight D

Eisenhower AUS Adm Andrew B Cunningham RN Admiral H Kent Hewitt USN and others the Allies kept pressure on the Axis by attacking what Winston Churchill dubbed the soft underbelly of Europe The Allies seized the island of Sicily landed at Salerno and Anzio and established a presence along the coast of southern France With Utmost Spirit takes a fresh look at this crucial naval theater of the Second World War Barbara Brooks Tomblin tells of the U S Navy s and the Royal Navy s struggles to wrest control of the Mediterranean Sea from Axis submarines and aircraft to lift the siege of Malta and to open a through convoy route to Suez while providing ships carrier air support and landing craft for five successful amphibious operations Examining official action reports diaries interviews and oral histories Tomblin describes each of these operations in terms of ship to shore movements air and naval gunfire support logistics countermeasure measures antisubmarine warfare and the establishment of ports and training bases in the Mediterranean Firsthand accounts from the young officers and men who manned the ships provide essential details about Mediterranean operations and draw a vivid picture of the war at sea and off the beaches Barbara Brooks Tomblin taught military history at Rutgers University and is the author of several articles and G I Nightingales The Army Nurse Corps in World War II She lives in California

Working the System in Sub-Saharan Africa Corrado Tornimbeni, 2014-07-08 What is the extent to which democracy good governance liberal citizenship and development are negotiated and shaped in sub Saharan African countries in the context of the globalised world Is this a characteristic of the current historical era alone Do global ideas about politics and development in sub Saharan Africa take on new meanings in light of local circumstances and visions The works presented in this volume offer context based analyses that contribute to showing how local practices of citizenship democracy and development in sub Saharan Africa have been working the system of global ideas on good governance policies and development and how this system also builds on the way in which historically local narratives are presented to actors in the international context Democracy and good governance are considered the universally shared paradigms shaping policy prescriptions and development practices in the context of the current globalised world Space for negotiating these recipes at the local level is considered to be particularly narrow especially in sub Saharan Africa but it is also believed that international paradigms are reshaped into peculiar forms when implemented under local circumstances From the early 1990s onwards these processes have drawn the attention of academics as well as the wider public but rarely is their historical dimension taken into account the Africa world nexus in politics and development is not a characteristic of the current global world alone as is too often assumed Adding an historical perspective to the analysis of the multilevel interconnections between local power relations the politics of colonial and independent rule and the global discourses of democracy citizenship and development will contribute to a sound theoretical stance in addressing what is considered the main feature of current times globalisation and its flows That is what this volume tries to accomplish It does so by developing three themes in particular the trajectory of the colonial and independent nation state and its impact on the local and national politics of citizenship identity and development the way global ideas on development are converted into practice or how they are interpreted and negotiated at local level and issues of belonging and identity in relation to concepts and practices of political control Case studies will include Portuguese colonialism Mozambique Tanzania Zimbabwe Senegal Casamance and Uganda Patton's First Victory Leo Barron,2017-10-20 American troops invaded North Africa in November 1942 but did not face serious resistance until the following February when they finally tangled with Rommel's Afrika Korps and the Germans gave the inexperienced Americans a nasty drubbing at Kasserine Pass After this disaster Gen George Patton took command and reinvigorated U S troops with tough training and new tactics In late March at El Guettar in Tunisia Patton's men defeated the Germans It was a morale boosting victory the first American success versus the Germans and the first of Patton's storied World War II career and proved to the enemy the British and the Americans themselves that the U S Army could fight and win The Postal Service Guide to U.S. Stamps ,2004 Courage in the Late Night Hours Elizabeth Moody,2025-01-08 Shortly after college student Jane Hughes father a war correspondent is killed in Ukraine she receives a startling call from Paul Holychuk a solicitor ten years her senior He informs Jane that not only is she the heir to her father's family's assets she has family connections in Edmonton that she knew nothing about including a grandfather who's now in a long term care home Pausing her studies at McGill University Jane travels to Edmonton to sort things out As Jane navigates her new reality Paul delves into his own family's past discovering a deep connection between their families dating back to World War Two Paul's grandfather Joseph and Jane's great grandfather Bill flew on the same bomber with the Royal Canadian Air Force They remained close after the war with Bill becoming a journalist and Joseph a police detective For Paul and Jane who worked together exploring past diaries journals and letters from their famous aviation families the journey into the courage and sacrifice of aircrew flying in dark skies and suffering vast losses became an inspirational story of the power of the Canadian spirit in the face of a horrific regime A story about who we are as a nation the true north strong and free faced with the same sinister threats to democracy and the values of western civilization in today's world But things become complicated when a series of unsolved murders is linked to Jane's family and suspicions arise that Joseph may have concealed the killer's identity out of loyalty to Bill As Jane and Paul investigate the mysteries that entwine their families they are drawn closer together uncovering secrets that span decades as well as unexpected feelings for each other Adding to the intrigue is a supernatural presence with at least one ghost working hard behind the scenes to influence events as they unfold at times helping and other times hindering Jane and Paul's efforts to unravel the truth Germany and the Second World War Volume IX/II Jörg Echternkamp,2014-03 Volume IX II of this series draws on a range of historical sources to explore the effect that the Second World War had on the people of Germany whether they were practically involved in the war effort or struggling to maintain a normal existence The True Face of the War Pasquale De Marco,2025-05-13 The True Face of the War is the definitive account of the Pacific War one of the most important and destructive conflicts in human history Drawing on a wealth of primary and secondary
