Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1978 Raising Arizona's Dams ,1995-02 This is the engrossing story of the unsung heroes who did the day to day work of building Arizona s dams focusing on the lives of laborers and their families who created temporary construction communities during the building of seven major dams in central Arizona The book focuses primarily on the 1903 1911 Roosevelt Dam camps and the 1926 1927 Camp Pleasant at Waddell Dam although other camps dating from the 1890s through the 1940s are discussed as well The book is liberally illustrated with historic photographs of the camps and the people who occupied them while building the dams To Save the Children of Korea Arissa H Oh,2015-06-17 The important largely unknown story of American adoption of Korean children since the Korean War with remarkably extensive research and great verve Charles K Armstrong Columbia University Arissa Oh argues that international adoption began in the aftermath of the Korean War First established as an emergency measure through which to evacuate mixed race GI babies it became a mechanism through which the Korean government exported its unwanted children the poor the disabled or those lacking Korean fathers Focusing on the legal social and political systems at work To Save the Children of Korea shows how the growth of Korean adoption from the 1950s to the 1980s occurred within the context of the neocolonial US Korea relationship and was facilitated by crucial congruencies in American and Korean racial thought government policies and nationalisms Korean adoption served as a kind of template as international adoption began in the late 1960s to expand to new sending and receiving countries Ultimately Oh demonstrates that although Korea was not the first place that Americans adopted from internationally it was the place where organized systematic international adoption was born Absolutely fascinating Giulia Miller Times Higher Education Gracefully written Oh shows us how domestic politics and desires are intertwined with geopolitical relationships and aims Naoko Shibusawa Brown University Poignant wide ranging analysis and research Kevin Y Kim Canadian Journal of History Illuminates how the spheres of public and private domestic and political are deeply imbricated and complicate American ideologies about family nation and race Kira A Donnell Adoption Culture
