1996 Chinas Terror A Novel:

1996: China's Terror Will Campbell, 1994-01-01

Violence, Discourse, and Politics in China's Uyghur Region

Pablo A. Rodríguez-Merino, 2022-12-30 This book investigates how Uyghur related violent conflict and Uyghur ethnic minority identity religion and the Xinjiang region more broadly became constituted as a terrorism problem for the Chinese state Building on securitization theory Critical Terrorism Studies CTS and the scholarly definitional debate on terrorism it develops the concept of terroristization as a critical analytical framework for the study of historical processes of threat construction Investigating the violent events reported in Xinjiang since the early 1980s the evolving discursive patterns used by the Chinese state to make sense of violent incidents and the crackdown policies that the official terrorism discourse has legitimized the book demonstrates how the securitization and later terroristization of Xinjiang and the Uyghurs is the result of a discursive and political choice of the Chinese state The author reveals the contingent and unstable nature of such construction and how it problematizes the inevitability of the rationale behind China's war on terror that has prescribed a brutal crackdown as the most viable approach to governing the tensions that have historically characterized China's rule over the Turkic Muslim ethnic minorities in Xinjiang This book will be of interest to scholars and students of the politics of contemporary China security and ethnic minority issues International Relations and Security as well as those adopting discursive approaches to the study of security notably those within the critical security and terrorism studies fields

China's War on Terrorism Martin I. Wayne, 2007-11-06 This book examines the success of China's counterinsurgency policies in fighting Islamic terrorism in its internal war in the Xinjiang province and draws lessons for the West in its war against global Jihadism

American Goddess at the Rape of Nanking Hualing Hu, 2000-03-29 When the Japanese soldiers ordered Vautrin to leave the campus she replied This is my home I cannot leave Facing down the bloodstained bayonets constantly waved in her face Vautrin shielded the desperate Chinese who sought asylum behind the gates of the college Vautrin exhausted herself defying the Japanese army and caring for the refugees after the siege ended in March 1938

Airline Terrorism Marc E. Vargo, 2024-04-25 Venturing into the ever shifting panorama of airborne terrorism this book immerses the reader in a vivid retelling of pivotal incidents from recent history while delving into the terrorists favored methods of attack These include hijackings in flight bombings and precision missile strikes as well as the rising peril of cyberattacks aimed at airports and commercial airliners mid flight Readers will encounter the controversial TWA Flight 800 disaster and the baffling vanishing act of Malaysia Airlines Flight 370 These events ignited enduring discussions about terrorism and governmental transparency The book ventures into the unsettling world of the September 11th attacks where jetliners were transformed into guided missiles Also witnessed are the chilling tales of Black Widows Chechen female suicide bombers leaving their indelible mark on Russian soil Also explored are Libyan culpability in the bombings of Pan Am Flight 103 over Lockerbie Scotland and UTA Flight 772 over the Sahara Desert The evolution of security measures in air travel is chronicled and an examination is given of emerging biometric technologies along with security protocols relevant to the post Covid era

Collective Killings in Rural China during the Cultural Revolution Yang Su, 2011-02-21 The violence of Mao's China is well known but its extreme form is not. In 1967 and 1968 during the Cultural Revolution collective killings were widespread in rural China in the form of public execution. Victims included women, children and the elderly. This book is the first to systematically document and analyze these atrocities drawing data from local archives, government documents and interviews with survivors in two southern provinces. This book extracts from the Chinese case lessons that challenge the prevailing models of genocide and mass killings and contributes to the historiography of the Cultural Revolution in which scholarship has mainly focused on events in urban areas.

The No-Nonsense Guide to Global Terrorism Jonathan Barker, 2008-10-01 This is a highly accessible history of terrorism that looks at core examples from the Middle East, instances of state terrorism and terrorist fringes of political movements. It covers the theories justifying and guiding terrorist acts and the battle of images that accompanies them. Jonathan Barker has taught political science at the universities of Toronto, Arizona and Dar es Salaam. He has researched local politics in Senegal, Tanzania, Uganda and India. His other books include Street Level Democracy and Rural Communities under Stress.

Chinese Macrosecuritization Juha A. Vuori, 2023-11-10 This book provides a holistic picture of Chinese global security discourses with a focus on macrosecritizations. The work examines how the People's Republic of China (PRC) has aligned itself within global security discourses. This is approached through the theory of securitization specifically by using the notion of macrosecritization as the lens for its analysis. The book offers the first full account of Chinese macrosecritization discourses and alignments and it aims to discern what security speech with referent objects such as humanity, civilization or nature has done in the domestic and international politics of China. Specifically the work focuses on the discourses of the Cold War, anti nuclear weapons, climate change and the Global War on Terror which have all been postulated in the literature as macrosecritizations. In addition it examines discourses with global referent objects that have been put forth by the PRC so that we can see whether its proposals for global security governance take the form of or are legitimated through macrosecritization. The overall argument in the book is that the way contemporary China uses macrosecritization discourses provides for ontological security as its position in relation to other major powers is undergoing transformation by allowing it to maintain a consistent narrative of its international self that abides by its own set of moral values and sense of worth. This book will be of interest to students of critical security studies, Chinese politics and International Relations.
