1997 Federal Budget Retrospect And Prospect:

The 1997 Federal Budget Thomas A. Wilson, John Deutsch Institute for the Study of Economic Policy, University of Toronto. Institute for Policy Analysis, 1997 In this collection of essays leading Canadian policy analysts focus on a range of issues and implications arising from the 1997 federal budget Essays include a comparative assessment of the Paul Martin and Michael Wilson budgets an assessment of the emerging fiscal dividend and an evaluation of alternative ways in which it can be spent a comprehensive overview of the proposed child benefits package an in depth examination of new proposals for both the Canada Pension Plan Quebec Pension Plan and employment insurance and an empirical review of the fiscal stance as it relates to employment and the output gap Essays also examine provincial budget issues including a retrospective on the series of budgets tabled by retiring Alberta treasurer Jim Dinning and an overview of the deficit and deficit performance of the provinces over the last decade

The Review of Economic Performance and Social Progress Keith G. Banting, Andrew Sharpe, France St-Hilaire, 2001 The chapters in this volume provide experts views of specific dimensions of the economic social developments in Canada during the 1990s The chapters are organized into four sections dealing with basic concepts the public view of economic social trends changes in key public policies and outcomes in terms of the economic social environmental record of the 1990s Specific topics covered include the concept of social progress defining measuring social progress monetary policy the relationship between social capital the economy unemployment deficit elimination fiscal policy trade liberalization income security policy income distribution labour market outcomes child well being and economic growth environmental degradation

In the Long Run We're All Dead Timothy Lewis, 2007-10-01 In The Long Run We're All Dead The Canadian Turn to Fiscal Restraint offers the first comprehensive scholarly account of this vital public policy issue Lewis deftly analyzes the history of deficit finance from before Confederation through Canada's postwar Keynesianism to the retrenchment of the Mulroney and Chrétien years In doing so he illuminates how the political conditions for Ottawa's deficit elimination in the 1990s materialized after over 20 consecutive years in the red and how the decline of Canadian Keynesianism has made way for the emergence of politics organized around balanced budgets

Canada Harvey Lazar, Tom McIntosh, 1999-02 Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975 The Spending Power in Federal Systems Ronald Lampman Watts, Queen's University (Kingston, Ont.). Institute of Intergovernmental Relations, Queen's University (Kingston, Ont.). School of Policy Studies, 1999 Fiscal Targets and Economic Growth Thomas J. Courchene, Thomas A. Wilson, John Deutsch Institute for the Study of Economic Policy, 1998 When will the fiscal dividend appear and what is its likely magnitude Should deficit targets be replaced by debt targets or debt GDP targets Should the fiscal dividend focus on tax cuts and increases in program expenditures Should the Canadian government shift away from an annual deficit target to budget balance over the cycle to allow automatic stabilizers to play their important buffering role And if so what level of contingency reserve is necessary to ensure that cyclical budget balance can be met Addressing these and other important questions Fiscal Targets and Economic Growth provides valuable insights into labour force trends productivity long term projections automatic stabilizers fiscal prudence Optimal debt ratios and investing the fiscal dividend The Communications Revolution at Work Queen's University (Kingston, Ont.). School of Policy Studies,1999 No area of technology has developed faster or affected contemporary society more pervasively than electronic communications Networked computers linked through the internet have enabled finance commerce and manufacturing to function in a virtual environment unconstrained by time and space Boundaries have also been removed in voice image and data transmission once normally provided through discrete media Although the effects of these developments are large their significance is far from clear This collection of eleven original papers by British and Canadian experts examines a wide range of practical consequences of the current revolution in communications technology and reconsiders the actual depth of changes so far produced in the economy and society Equalization Robin W.

Boadway,Paul Alexander Robert Hobson,John Deutsch Institute for the Study of Economic Policy,1998 The fiscal equalization program is one of the cornerstones of Canadian fiscal federalism The proceedings of a conference held in May 1997 this collection of papers and commentaries focuses on a range of issues and implications surrounding the evolution structure and reform of the equalization program Papers include a survey of the principles against which the equalization program ought to be evaluated an assessment of the functioning of the program as presently structured a consideration of the political climate within which the commitment to fiscal equalization will find its definition a response to the proposition that there is too much equalization in Canada through an examination of the degree of interprovincial revenue redistribution resulting from the program and a comparison with the German Australian and United States federations in search of lessons for Canada Contributors include Robin Boadway Queen s Doug Clark formerly of the Department of Finance David Milne UPEI Paul Hobson Acadia and Sam Wilson Alberta Commentaries are provided by Tom Courchene Queen s Fran ois Vaillancourt Montr al and Wade Locke Memorial Stretching the Federation Queen's University (Kingston, Ont.). Institute of Intergovernmental Relations,1999 There are strong movements in Canada to decentralize the design and delivery of many programs and to clarify federal and provincial responsibilities This book presents contributions from practitioners and observers of this trend Security, Strategy and the Global Economics of Defence Production Queen's University (Kingston, Ont.). School of Policy Studies,1999 As the recent fighting in Serbia illustrates the technology of modern warfare is in constant evolution with implications spanning a wide range of public policy areas from the broad dimensions of alliance strategy to the specific confines of defence investment production and trade For the past several years technological innovation in the arms industry of the world s leading states has been proceeding in relation to the phenomenon of globalisation in the civilian sector Although the combined impact of the postulated revolution in military affairs and the globalisation of industry has been felt in all Western states it has been of particular concern in two NATO countries Canada and the United Kingdom as each is located on the margins of a continental market in defence goods Both have established a set of privileged linkages and interests with this market although they have retained a certain strategic political and economic distance Security Strategy and the Global Economics of Defence Production features contributions from a broad range of policy analysts and practitioners in Canada and the United Kingdom whose primary concern is to identify and analyse the major challenges that Ottawa and London will be facing in the coming decade Among the issues and challenges considered are understanding the changing nature of threat and risk to security interests devising appropriate means of harnessing and responding to technological change in warfare and assessing the relative merits of regional defence industrial groupings as opposed to trans Atlantic arrangements The contributors also discuss developments in policy respecting the procurement and export of arms as well as the enhancement of the quality of bilateral defence co operation and trade David G Haglund is director of the Centre for International Relations Queen's University S Neil MacFarlane is director for the Centre of International Studies and Lester B Pearson Professor of International Relations at Oxford University

The Nonprofit Sector in Canada Queen's University (Kingston, Ont.). School of Policy Studies,2000 Governments see not for profit agencies as an alternative mechanism for delivering public services Activists see voluntary organizations as instruments of change Analysts see community organizations as sources of trust and social cohesion Despite these heady expectations we know remarkably little about the not for profit sector in Canada In this book a group of scholars respond to the need for basic research in this field exploring the scope of the not for profit sector the diverse roles that such organizations play and their relationships with other sectors Canadian Books in Print ,2003 Canada's National Defence: Defence organization Queen's University (Kingston, Ont.). School of Policy Studies,1997 Volumes in the Canada's National Defence series present an annotated collection of government statements on defence policy and internal studies and reports prepared by senior military officers defence officials and consultants to governments and ministers from about 1945 to 1997 They trace the history of the ideas that give Canada's defence policy and defence organizations their unique character If there is an enduring Canadian strategy for national defence it is expressed in these papers Volume 2 Defence Organization is a collection of eight documents on the organization of the national defence establishment Covering the period from 1936 to 1990 the papers include Colonel Pope's Memorandum The McGill Reports The Glassco Report Hellyer's Reorganization The Management Review Group The Fyffe Review The Vance Review and The Little Hunter Study

Canadian Books in Print 2002 Marian Butler,2002-02 The Economics of Public Spending Hassan Bougrine,2000-01-01 This text argues that in many jurisdictions free market advocates have resorted to public sector downsizing and privatization as a means of alleviating problems of unemployment and slow economic growth and that as a consequence the strategy of reducing public deficits balancing budgets and achieving surpluses has become widely accepted as the only road to prosperity Objectif plein emploi Diane-Gabrielle Tremblay,1998-10-19T20:00:00-04:00 Le ch mage et
