1998 The Canadian Global Almanac

Joy Hendry, Massimo Raveri

1998 The Canadian Global Almanac:

The Canadian Global Almanac, 1994 Rethinking the Reasonable Person Mayo Moran, 2003 The reasonable person standard plays a central role in the law figuring prominently in tort law criminal law and administrative law However the reasonable person has also attracted substantial criticism from egalitarian critics and feminists insofar as it presupposes contested notions of normal behaviour and may discriminate against certain classes of defendant Judges and mainstream theorists also increasingly puzzle over what the standard amounts to and how to apply it Using these controversies as a point of departure Rethinking the Reasonable Person examines the promise and the perils of the reasonable person standard Ultimately it argues that an objective standard is not only defensible but essential Yet only with a radical reconstruction will it be possible to realize the promise of the standard and to ensure a truly egalitarian conception of responsibility Weaving Connections David Selby, Tara Goldstein, 2000 Education plays a vitally important role in building foundations for social progress This remarkable collection describes educational models based on the principles of tolerance equity and justice developed over the past three decades by teachers parents activists and students In a time of crippling cutbacks and educational reforms designed to promote business over education this book is critical reading Contributors from across Canada discuss the initiatives behind their approaches how they developed curricula and the future of their educational work Weaving Connections is a call to action by progressive educators inviting us to cherish educational models that teach us how to live in harmony respect and balance with one another Research and Global Perspectives in Learning Disabilities Daniel P. Hallahan, Barbara K. Keogh, 2001-03 The executive committee of the International Academy for Research in Learning Disabilities planned this volume on the occasion of its 25th anniversary to honor the founder of the Academy William M Cruickshank The Ultimate Canadian Sports Trivia Book Edward Zawadzki, 2001-09 Edward Zawadzki Canadas Ultimate Sports Trivia Guy brings together this dynamic collection of facts and oddities from the world of sports

Canadian Books in Print 2002 Marian Butler, 2002-02 Globalization Unplugged Peter Urmetzer, 2005-01-01 The debate over economic globalization has reached a fever pitch in the past decade and a half with Western governments and multinational corporations trumpeting its virtues and a multitude of activists and developing world citizens vociferously denouncing it Both sides would agree that globalization is a recent development that is changing the way people and nations do business but in Globalization Unplugged Peter Urmetzer questions whether national economies are losing their sovereignty and whether the topic of globalization merits as much discussion as it receives Urmetzer s focus is specifically on Canada and he demonstrates that current levels of trade are not unprecedented and further that as the economy becomes more service oriented it will also become less trade dependent He points out that only a relatively small percentage of Canadas wealth is owned by foreign investors and likewise only a small portion of the country s wealth is located outside of its borders Disputing claims that the nation state is weakening or disappearing altogether Urmetzer shows how the welfare state side of government spending conveniently ignored in the anti globalization literature yet arguably the most significant development in the political economy of the nation state in the twentieth century remains remarkable stable Written with precision and skill Globalization Unplugged will spark controversy on both sides of the globalization debate and help deflate the rhetoric of both advocates and detractors Western Hemisphere Heidi Hayes Jacobs, Brenda Randolph, Michal L. LeVasseur, 2002 Changing Parks John S. Marsh, Bruce W. Hodgins, 1998-05-15 This important book is a must for everyone concerned with the heritage and future of Canada's parks Contributors include an impressive assembly of noted park experts ranging from academic authorities and government parks personnel to concerned nonpolitical park supporters Since the establishment of Banff National Park in 1885 and Algonquin Provincial Park in 1893 parklands have been part of Canada's heritage Where other protected areas such as forest reserves heritage rivers and greenways have also been created a more comprehensive view of the creation and management of conservation areas and marshland is discussed Cooperative approaches to park management recognize the regional context of parks with respect to local communities as well as the inclusion of more diverse groups of people particularly Aboriginals This work encourages the general public to take an interest in our priceless park heritage Canadian Books in Print Marian Butler, 2000 Modern Legal Systems Cyclopedia, 1984 Painting the Maple Veronica Jane Strong-Boag, 1998 Painting the Maple explores the critical interplay of race and gender in shaping Canadian culture history politics and healthcare These interdisciplinary essays draw on feminist postcolonial and critical theory in a wide ranging discussion that encompasses both high and popular forms of culture the deliberation of policy and its execution and social movements as well as individual authors and texts The contributors who come from many fields establish connections among discourses of race gender and nation building that have conditioned the formation of Canada for more than one hundred years They analyze ways in which these elements have participated in and contributed to exclusionary practices and policies such as marginalization of women and racialized groups Together their essays paint a picture of a nation that privileges whiteness masculinity and Christianity This book gathers many insights on the construction of Canada hitherto scattered in the literature It will be of interest to feminist scholars and others concerned with issues of race and gender At times provocative Painting the Maple illuminates the challenges that lie ahead for all Canadians who aspire to create a better future in a reimagined nation Index de Périodiques Canadiens, 1999 The Research Essay Hugh Robertson, 2001 International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage In addition to the well known poets talented up and coming writers are also profiled Contents Each entry provides full career history and publication details An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners organizations magazines and publishers A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes The
