Antebellum American Pendant Paintings Wendy N. E. Ikemoto, 2017-07-06. Antebellum American Pendant Paintings New Ways of Looking marks the first sustained study of pendant paintings discrete images designed as a pair. It opens with a broad overview that anchors the form in the medieval diptych religious history and aesthetic theory and explores its cultural and historical resonance in the 19th century United States. Three case studies examine how antebellum American artists used the pendant format in ways revelatory of their historical moment and the aesthetic and cultural developments in which they partook. The case studies on John Quidor's Rip Van Winkle and His Companions at the Inn Door of Nicholas Vedder 1839 and The Return of Rip Van Winkle 1849 and Thomas Cole's Departure and Return 1837 shed new light on canonical antebellum American artists and their practices. The chapter on Titian Ramsay Peale's Kilauea by Day and Kilauea by Night 1842 presents new material that pushes the geographical boundaries of American art studies toward the Pacific Rim. The book contributes to American art history the study of a characteristic but as yet overlooked format and models for the discipline a new and productive framework of analysis focused on the fundamental yet complex way images work back and forth with one another.

The Worldwide Art Catalogue Bulletin, 1975 19th century American topographic painters, 1974

American Paintings in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Doreen B. Burke, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Doreen Bolger Burke, 1980 Marie Adrien Persac H. Parrott Bacot, Barbara SoRelle Bacot, Sally Kittredge Reeves, John Lawrence, John Magill, 2000-09-01. Marie Adrien Persac 1823-1873 was a French born Louisiana artist who worked in a range of mediums to produce a unique view of the lower Mississippi Valley at midcentury. In the first catalogued exhibition devoted solely to this multifaceted but overlooked talent paintings drawings maps and photographs from numerous holdings have been brought together to present fresh insights and reevaluate this artist's place in the annals of American history and material culture. Due in part to his broad talents artist cartographer architect civil engineer photographer and art teacher Persac's work is of major importance to Southern history researchers and art historians. His paintings of south Louisiana plantation houses have captured that now varnished lifestyle in minute detail approximating the exactitude of architectural drafting. Today this series is invaluable to scholars of the period as is Persac's painting of a steamboat interior the only one known to exist and another French Opera House which burned to the ground in 1919. New York Magazine, 1993-06-28. New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Domain of Images James Elkins, 2018-08-06 In the domain of visual images those of fine art form a tiny minority This original and brilliant book calls upon art historians to look beyond their traditional subjects painting drawing photography and printmaking to the vast array of nonart images including those from science technology commerce medicine music and archaeology Such images James Elkins asserts can be as rich and expressive as any canonical painting Using scores of illustrations as examples he proposes a radically new way of thinking about visual analysis one that relies on an object's own internal sense of organization Elkins begins by demonstrating the arbitrariness of current criteria used by art historians for selecting images for study He urges scholars to adopt instead the far broader criteria of the young field of image studies After analyzing the philosophic underpinnings of this interdisciplinary field he surveys the entire range of images from calligraphy to mathematical graphs and abstract painting Throughout Elkins blends philosophic analysis with historical detail to produce a startling new sense of such basic terms as pictures writing and notation
