Armas Secretas.4.ed Julio Cortázar,1966 How Is World Literature Made? Gesine Müller,2021-11-22 The debate over the concept of world literature which has been taking place with renewed intensity over the last twenty years is tightly bound up with the issues of global interconnectedness in a polycentric world Most recently critiques of globalization related conceptualizations in particular have made themselves heard to what extent is the concept of world literature too closely connected with the political and economic dynamics of globalization Such questions cannot be answered simply through theoretical debate The material side of the production of world literature must therefore be more strongly integrated into the conversation than it has been Using the example of Latin American literatures this volume demonstrates the concrete construction processes of world literature To that purpose archival materials have been analyzed here notes travel reports and correspondence between publishers and authors The Latin American examples provide particularly rich information about the processes of institutionalization in the Western world as well as new perspectives for a contemporary mapping of world literature beyond the established dynamics of canonization The Monstered Self Eduardo González,1992 Viewing stories and novels from an ethnographic perspective Eduardo Gonz lez here explores the relationship between myth ritual and death in writings by Borges Vargas Llosa Cort zar and Roa Bastos He then weaves this analysis into a larger cultural fabric composed of the works of Chaucer Shakespeare Joyce Benjamin H G Wells Kafka Poe and others What interests Gonz lez is the signature of authorial selfhood in narrative and performance which he finds willfully and temptingly disfigured in the works he examines horrific and erotic subservient and tyrannical charismatic and repellent Searching out the personal image and plot Gonz lez uncovers two fundamental types of narrative one that strips character of moral choice and another in which characters choices deprive them of personal autonomy and hold them in ritual bondage to a group Thus The Monstered Self becomes a study of the conflict between individual autonomy and the stereotypes of solidarity Written in a characteristically allusive elliptical style and drawing on psychoanalysis religion mythology and comparative literature The Monstered Self is in itself a remarkable performance one that will engage readers in anthropology psychology and cultural history as well as those specifically interested in Latin American narrative
