Directory of Research Grants 2008 Schoolhouse Partners LLC, 2008-05 It was the 50s and life was simple until September 25 1954 That was the night that would be etched in the memory of the citizens of Stanfield Massachusetts The Chief of Police described the brutal savagery of the double homicide as the most atrocious crime in the history of the city A fourteen year old girl and the four year old boy in her care were murdered at the hands of a deranged depraved killer A Thread of Evidence places the reader at the scene of the crime an eye witness to the senseless stabbing of two innocent children With a piece of crochet thread as their only clue the entire police department lead by detectives Steven Logan and Raymond Gage scour the city in search of a maniacal savage When all tips and leads have been exhausted they review all evidence They come back to the thread The only real evidence With tenacity and perseverance of

Logan and Gage the killer is apprehended The reader experiences the twists and turns of the investigation and ultimately occupies a reserved seat in the Superior Court as the trial proceedings commence A Thread of Evidence has been written as fiction but inspired by an actual event Fifty years later it remains etched in the minds of all who had lived in the area The author has researched court records newspapers interviewed neighbors police and has drawn on personal recollections of the crime The story has been recounted over and over and to this day it continues to be discussed A Thread of Evidence is a compelling account of superb detective work and unprecedented dedication of an entire police department 25 Years of

Transformations of Higher Education Systems in Post-Soviet Countries Jeroen Huisman,Anna Smolentseva,Isak Froumin,2018-04-24 This book is open access under a CC BY 4 0 license This open access book is a result of the first ever study of the transformations of the higher education institutional landscape in fifteen former USSR countries after the dissolution of the Soviet Union in 1991 It explores how the single Soviet model that developed across the vast and diverse territory of the Soviet Union over several decades has evolved into fifteen unique national systems systems that have responded to national and global developments while still bearing some traces of the past The book is distinctive as it presents a comprehensive analysis of the reforms and transformations in the region in the last 25 years and it focuses on institutional landscape through the evolution of the institutional types established and developed in Pre Soviet Soviet and Post Soviet time It also embraces all fifteen countries of the former USSR and provides a comparative analysis of transformations of institutional landscape across Post Soviet systems It will be highly relevant for students and researchers in the fields of higher education and and sociology particularly those with an interest in historical and comparative studies
