Gregory of Narek Abraham Terian, 2016-03-08 Saint Gregory of Narek a monk of the tenth century knew how to express the sentiments of your people more than anyone He gave voice to the cry which became a prayer of a sinful and sorrowful humanity oppressed by the anguish of its powerlessness but illuminated by the splendor of God's love and open to the hope of his salvific intervention which is capable of transforming all things Pope Francis April 12 2015 This is the first translation in any language of the surviving corpus of the festal works of St Gregory of Narek a tenth century Armenian mystic theologian and poet par excellence d 1003 Composed as liturgical works for the various Dominical and related feasts these poetic writings are literary masterpieces in both lyrical verse and narrative Unlike Gregory's better known penitential prayers these show a jubilant author in a celebratory mood In this volume Abraham Terian an eminent scholar of medieval Armenian literature provides the nonspecialist reader with an illuminating translation of St Gregory of Narek's festal works Introducing each composition with an explanatory note Terian places the works under consideration in their author's thought world and in their tenth century landscape The Embroidered Bible: Studies in Biblical Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha in Honour of Michael E. Stone Lorenzo DiTommaso, Matthias Henze, William Adler, 2017-11-27 This Festschrift contains forty one original essays and six tribute papers in honour of Michael E Stone Gail Levin de Nur Professor Emeritus of Religious Studies and Professor Emeritus of Armenian Studies at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem The volume's main theme is Old Testament Pseudepigrapha envisioned in its broadest sense apocryphal texts traditions and themes from the Second Temple period to the High Middle Ages in Judaism Christianity and to a lesser extent Islam Most essays present new or understudied texts based on fresh manuscript evidence the others are thematic in approach The volume's scope and focus reflect those of Professor Stone's scholarship without a special emphasis on Armenian studies The Sasanian World through Georgian Eyes Stephen H. Rapp Jr, 2017-05-15 Georgian literary sources for Late Antiquity are commonly held to be later productions devoid of historical value As a result scholarship outside the Republic of Georgia has privileged Graeco Roman and even Armenian narratives However when investigated within the dual contexts of a regional literary canon and the active participation of Caucasias diverse peoples in the Iranian Commonwealth early Georgian texts emerge as a rich repository of late antique attitudes and outlooks Georgian hagiographical and historiographical compositions open a unique window onto a northern part of the Sasanian world that while sharing striking affinities with the Iranian heartland was home to vibrant cosmopolitan cultures that developed along their own trajectories In these sources precise and accurate information about the core of the Sasanian Empire and before it Parthia and Achaemenid Persia is sparse yet the thorough structuring of wider Caucasian society along Iranian and especially hybrid Iranic lines is altogether evident Scrutiny of these texts reveals inter alia that the Old Georgian language is saturated with words drawn from Parthian and Middle Persian a trait shared with Classical Armenian that Caucasian society like its Iranian counterpart was dominated by powerful aristocratic houses many of whose origins can be traced to Iran itself and that the conception of kingship in the eastern Georgian realm of Kartli

Iberia even centuries after the royal family's Christianisation in the 320s and 330s was closely aligned with Arsacid and especially Sasanian models. There is also a literary dimension to the Irano-Caucasian nexus aspects of which this volume exposes for the first time. The oldest surviving specimens of Georgian historiography exhibit intriguing parallels to the lost Sasanian Xwaddayn-nama (The Book of Kings), one of the precursors to Ferdowsi's Shah-nama.
