Justice and Fairness in International Negotiation Cecilia Albin, 2001-03-15 International negotiations have become an increasingly widespread feature of international affairs as the number of parties involved have grown and regional and global fora have multiplied Cecilia Albin examines the role of considerations of justice and fairness in these negotiations She argues that negotiators do not simply pursue their narrow interests or those of their countries but regularly take principles of justice and fairness into account These principles come into play at an early stage as talks are structured and agendas set in the bargaining process itself and in the implementation of and compliance with agreements The analysis is based on cases in four important areas the environment international trade ethnic conflict the Israeli Palestinian conflict and arms control Drawing on a mass of empirical data including a large number of interviews this book relates the abstract debate over international norms and ethics to the realities of international relations Arms Control Jozef Goldblat, 2002-09-24 A unique and indispensable work that serves both as a basic introduction to the disarmament scene and a reference book for experts Disarmament Times This compendium of the history and achievements of arms control and disarmament efforts is unique in its kind and is likely to remain so This for three reasons first because of its unparalleled comprehensiveness second because of the outstanding quality of its presentation and third because of its author Jozef Goldblat one of the world's leading experts in the field This triad makes the updated Second Edition of Arms Control The New Guide to Negotiations and Agreements a must for all concerned with international security in general and arms control in particular Curt Gasteyger Graduate Institute of International Studies Geneva The thesaurus of arms regulation and disarmament a precious tool for negotiators and treaty makers Ambassador V Petrovsky Former Secretary General of the Conference on Disarmament Being the most comprehensive and authoritative compilation and analysis of arms control agreements available this is an indispensable reference volume for students and practitioners of arms control and international security The author has spent a lifetime in the study and practice of international security affairs where international law and arms control agreements are concerned there is no one better qualified than him Sverre Lodgaard Norwegian Institute of International Affairs Oslo The revised and updated edition of Arms Control The New Guide to Negotiations and Agreements contains the most authoritative and comprehensive survey ever published of the documents related to arms control All major agreements reached since the second half of the nineteenth century through to mid 2002 are critically analysed and assessed The assessment is made in the light of the international security environment the developments in the field of weapon technology the threat of nuclear chemical and biological weapons proliferation and the efforts to strengthen the humanitarian law of armed conflict The accompanying CD ROM reproduces full text and carefully selected excerpts of treaties conventions common understandings statutes charters binding decisions of international bodies final acts of international conferences exchanges of letters and diplomatic notes Multilateral agreements are followed by a list of parties Enriched with new maps tables and figures as well as an expanded glossary and bibliography the book will remain the definitive resource for students of international relations journalists diplomats and military strategists Jozef Goldblat the author is Vice President of the Geneva International Peace
