Arnhem Lift:

Arnhem Lift Louis Hagen, Winrich Behr, 1993 As an account of the battle as seen by one man and his close comrades this is excellent stuff Rusi Journal April 1994 Suddenly an Englishman Louis Hagen, 2024-09-05 England is my home and if someone asks me what I am German Norwegian Jewish or British I answer I am an Englishman In 1934 aged just 16 Louis Hagen was sent to Lichtenberg concentration camp after being betrayed for an off hand joke by a Nazi sympathising family maid Mercifully his time there was cut short thanks to the intervention of a school friend's father and he escaped to the UK soon after The Life of Louis Hagen follows his adventures across the globe and the characters he met along the way from the founder of the NHS to a Nobel Prize winner to one of the earliest animated film directors all told in lively and unflinching detail Of the 10 000 men who landed at Arnhem 1 400 were killed and more than 6 000 were captured a bloody disaster in more ways than one Arnhem Lift is Hagen's breathtaking and frank account of what it was like in the air and on the ground including his daring escape from the German Army by swimming the Rhine Indeed it was so honest that Hagen found himself banished to India by his shocked commanding officer soon after its initial publication in 1945 Suddenly an Englishman is the complete story of the remarkable Louis Hagen a German Jew who survived a concentration camp to become a decorated glider pilot in the British Army Air Corps His first book Arnhem Lift was the earliest published account of the Battle of Arnhem while his accompanying autobiography remained unpublished until now Arnhem Lift Louis Hagen, 2011-11-30 Of the 10 000 men who landed at Arnhem over nine days 1 400 were killed and more than 6 000 about a third of them wounded were captured It was a bloody disaster The remarkable Louis Hagen an enemy alien who had escaped to England having been imprisoned and tortured in a Nazi concentration camp as a boy just a few years earlier was one of the minority who made it back What makes this book so unforgettable is not only the breathtaking drama of the story itself it is the unmistakable talent of the writer The narrative was first published anonymously in 1945 45 years later at a dinner party in Germany Louis Hagen met Major Winrich Behr Adjutant to Field Marshal Model at Arnhem Louis added his side of the story to add even more insight to the original work Arnhem Lift Louis Hagen, 1977 Arnhem Lift Louis Hagen, 1953

Bridge Too Far Cornelius Ryan, 2010-02-16 The classic account of one of the most dramatic battles of World War II A Bridge Too Far is Cornelius Ryan's masterly chronicle of the Battle of Arnhem which marshalled the greatest armada of troop carrying aircraft ever assembled and cost the Allies nearly twice as many casualties as D Day In this compelling work of history Ryan narrates the Allied effort to end the war in Europe in 1944 by dropping the combined airborne forces of the American and British armies behind German lines to capture the crucial bridge across the Rhine at Arnhem Focusing on a vast cast of characters from Dutch civilians to British and American strategists to common soldiers and commanders Ryan brings to life one of the most daring and ill fated operations of the war A Bridge Too Far superbly recreates the terror and suspense the heroism and tragedy of this epic operation which ended in bitter defeat for the Allies Royal Air Force, 1939-1945: The fight is won, by H. St. G. Saunders Denis Richards,1953 Air Power at the Battlefront Dr Ian Gooderson,2013-05-13 Ian Gooderson presents a study of close air support in World War II with the analysis focusing on the use of tactical air power by British and American forces during the campaigns in Italy and northwestern Europe between 1943 and 1945 So Near and Yet So Far Martin W. Bowman,2013-06-19 A military history of the British Army's 1st Airborne Division at Arnhem in the Netherlands during World War II This is the second volume in a meticulously researched four part series that provides a comprehensive insight into the aerial exploits at Operation Market Garden in September 1944 In an interesting method of presenting the information the author's arrangement of British American Dutch and German personal narrative interspersed with factual material offers a more personalised view of the war through the eyes of the hard pressed Allied airborne troops who were actually there in the thick of the action They take you steadily through the bitter house to house fighting in Eindhoven Nijmegen and Arnhem and the fanatical attempts to keep open the narrow road to permit XXX Corps to reach and relieve Colonel John Frost's men outnumbered and outgunned at Arnhem Bridge They reveal the frustration and bitter disappointment in the battles of the drop zones the bloody fight for the bridges across the Rhine and the almost suicidal second and third lifts to resupply the troops holding on precariously fighting desperately tenaciously and bravely to prevent their positions being overrun in the face of overwhelming enemy superiority Stories of individual heroism act to humanize this period of wartime history which is often reduced to mere facts Timelines detail the day to day events happening in all areas of the battle both on the ground and in the air and also add weight to the story in hand whilst carefully selected archive images work to supplement the text perfectly The Long Road Oliver Clutton-Brock,Raymond Crompton,2014-03-19 A history of the airmen imprisoned in Nazi Germany's largest World War II prisoner of war camp the notorious Stalag Luft 7 This book is firstly a testament to those of many nationalities who found themselves imprisoned at Stalag Luft VII Bankau Luft 7 for short in Upper Silesia the Luftwaffe's last prisoner of war camp Having survived the trauma of action against and capture by the enemy some as far back as 1940 they came from France the Low Countries Germany Norway Denmark Poland the Balkans Italy Hungary the Mediterranean and other seas and from North Africa Many of their experiences and adventures have never been documented before It is also the complete history of their prisoner of war POW camp Luft 7 told in full detail for the first time a camp that existed for barely thirty two weeks from its opening in early June 1944 to its closure in mid January 1945 Shrinking Perimeter Martin W. Bowman,2013-08-30 The third volume of this four part series on Operation Market Garden in September 1944 draws on many individual soldiers and airmen's narratives to tell the story of the ongoing fight to keep the Hell's Highway open to relieve 1st Airborne at Arnhem and the brave attempts to resupply them from the air As in previous volumes this account offers a unique perspective on all aspects of aerial activity during this pivotal operation This volume tells of the Allied effort to retain supremacy in the skies Individual tales of gallantry work to humanize the account rooting the action very much in the human experience of conflict Such tales include the never to be forgotten story of the Angel of Arnhem and the acts of chivalry that existed on both sides even among battle hardened units such as the SS Panzer Grenadiers All are unique in the annals of war These and the other personal recollections of Allied soldiers and airmen and their German adversaries tell of extreme courage camaraderie and shared terror under fire And they are complemented by the author s background information that puts each narrative into wartime perspective

Out of the Blue James A. Huston,1998 Beginning with a case study of the greatest airborne operation of the war the 1944 invasion of Holland Huston examines the inception organization training equipment strategies Allied cooperation and overall effectiveness of the airborne in the total war effort Operations in North Africa Sicily Italy Southern France the Pacific and the Far East are discussed No other book brings together as much information and documentation on the airborne Of special interest to the veterans who took part in the great paratroop and glider movements this book will become invaluable to students of aerial warfare and of World War II

A Bridge Too Far? Martin W. Bowman,2013-09-24 This final entry in a series on the Allied Operation Market Garden examines the final days of the Battle of Arnhem with eyewitness accounts This the fourth and final volume of the series on Market Garden in September 1944 reveals the final fate of the troops at Oosterbeek and the decision to evacuate all able bodied men in Operation Berlin as well as the subsequent Operation Pegasus when the Allies tried to return as many beleaguered troops back to Allied lines as possible Was Arnhem indeed a bridge Too Far While Market Garden certainly was a heroic failure conducted at great cost it is debatable whether it contributed materially to the ultimate victory or was a foolish sacrifice of thousands of troops aircrew and Dutch civilians in an ill conceived assault on the German held bridges across the Lower Rhine There is no doubting the gritty gallant and valorous contribution on the part of the British Dominion American and Polish paratroopers the RAF and USAAF aircrews and their German opponents and Dutch civilians Their incredible illuminating and often understated accounts of extraordinary courage camaraderie shared terror and encounters with the enemy offer a more personalized view of Market Garden through the words of those who were there at the heart of the action These tales are complemented by the author s background information supplemented by the inclusion of daily timelines that give an overall picture of each battle and air operation

Hearings United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Appropriations,1957 Airmen of Arnhem Martin W. Bowman,2020-01-19 A history of the airborne portion of Operation Market Garden during World War II from the perspective of the airmen fighting the battle Martin Bowman presents an unparalleled account of events as they unfolded in the skies above Holland during Operation Market Garden in September 1944 Market Garden was a heroic failure conducted at great cost combined losses both airborne and ground forces in killed wounded and missing amounted to more than 17 000 Market the airborne part of the operation spanned ten

Allied lifts in a calamitous nine days of operations often in foul weather Over the course of Operation Market 4 050 aircraft saw employment most of them towed the 1 205 Hamilcar and Horsa gliders and were confronted by an unknown number of Luftwaffe aircraft This is narrative is punctuated with stories of individual heroism such as that of David Lord a RAF Dakota pilot who was posthumously awarded the Victoria Cross There is no doubting the gallant and valorous contribution of the airmen of Arnhem the RAF Dakota Stirling Halifax Albemarle Horsa Hamilcar and Glider Pilot Regiment crews together with those of the USAAF C 47 Troop Carrier Groups of the IX U S Troop Carrier Command the Waco and Horsa gliders and the B 24 Liberator resupply crews All their incredible illuminating and often understated accounts of extraordinary courage camaraderie shared terror and encounters with the enemy offer a more personalized view of Market and are complemented by the author s background information that give an overall picture of each air operation
