The Aroma & Memories of Grandma's & Mama's Kitchen Louise Kinsland Nelson, 1998-01-01 From Ulster to America Michael Montgomery, 2006 From Ulster to America documents nearly four hundred terms and meanings each with quotations from both sides of the Atlantic contributed to American English by these eighteenth century settlers from Ulster Drawing on letters they sent back to their homeland and on other archival documents associated with their settlement it shows that Ulster emigrants and their children contributed as much to regional American English as any other group The numerous quotations bring alive the speech of earlier days on both sides of the Atlantic and extend understanding of the culture mannerisms and life of those pioneering times

More Than a Memory Joan Hanson Landreth, 2024-05-16 More Than a Memory is a coming of age story set against the backdrop of wartime with elements of mystery and spirituality woven into the narrative The author creates intrigue and raises questions that could potentially be explored further as the story unfolds The last part of the book hints at a mysterious and potentially divine encounter at the beach It involves a man in a black suit and a hat and his actions appear to defy the laws of nature This encounter raises questions about the nature of the man and his role in the protagonist's life The themes of faith and trust in a higher power God and guardian angels are introduced in the epilogue suggesting that the story delves into spiritual and philosophical realms Recipes and Memories from Mama's Table Linda K.
