Jeal, 2024-03-22 In scholarly study of the New Testament and early Christian rhetoric one key element is often overlooked the sublime To address this omission contributors to this volume explore how the awe inspiring dislocating and sometimes horrifying language that characterizes sublime rhetoric exerts cognitive emotional and physiological force on its audiences transporting them to new realities as they go along The essays lay a foundation for scholars and students to identify and interpret sublime rhetoric in biblical literature Contributors include Murray J Evans Alan P R Gregory Christopher T Holmes Roy R Jeal Harry O Maier Erika Mae Olbricht Thomas H Olbricht Vernon K Robbins and Jonathan Thiessen Deception and Democracy in Classical Athens Jon Hesk, 2000-11-23 This book first published in 2000 is a full length study of the representation of deceit and lies in classical Athens Dr Hesk traces the ways in which Athenian drama democratic oratory and elite prose writing construct and theorize a relationship between dishonesty and civic identity He focuses on the ideology of military trickery notions of the noble lie and the developing associations of rhetorical language with deceptive communication Deception and Democracy in Classical Athens combines close analysis of Athenian texts with lively critiques of modern theorists and classical scholars Athenian democratic culture was crucially informed by a nuanced anxious and dynamic discourse on the problems and opportunities which deception presented for its citizenry Mobilizing comparisons with twentieth century democracies the author argues that Athenian literature made deception a fundamental concern for democratic citizenship This ancient discourse on lying highlights the dangers of modern resignation and postmodern complacency concerning the politics and morality of deception Classical Traditions in Renaissance Philosophy Jill Krave, 2024-10-28 The impact of classical thought on Renaissance philosophy is the subject of this volume In the first part Dr Krave deals with the interpretations of ancient philosophy put forward by various thinkers of the Italian Renaissance including the humanist Angelo Poliziano and the Platonist Marsilio Ficino in the second she examines the central role of Aristotle's Nicomachean Ethics within Renaissance moral philosophy and considers the influence of other classical treatises on ethics especially the Meditations of

Marcus Aurelius The final section explores controversies concerning the authenticity of works in the Aristotelian canon together with the early printing history of Aristotle All the articles aim to locate philosophical questions within the historical and cultural context of the Renaissance and particular attention is paid to the importance of philological scholarship within philosophical debates The collection includes an essay on Philipp Melanchthon's ethical commentaries and textbooks which has previously appeared only in German translation

Greek Rhetoric of the 4th Century BC Evangelos Alexiou, 2020-06-08 The interaction between orator and audience the passions and distrust held by many concerning the predominance of one individual but also the individual's struggle as an advisor and political leader these are the quintessential elements of 4th century rhetoric As an individual personality the orator draws strength from his audience while the rhetorical texts mirror his own thoughts and those of his audience as part of a two way relationship in which individuality meets opposes and identifies with the masses For the first time this volume systematically compares minor orators with the major figures of rhetoric Demosthenes and Isocrates taking into account other findings as well such as extracts of Hyperides from the Archimedes Palimpsest Moreover this book provides insight into the controversy surrounding the art of discourse in the rhetorical texts of Anaximenes Aristotle and especially of Isocrates who took up a clear stance against the philosophy of the 4th century
