Romanesque and the Year 1000 examines the art and architecture of the Latin West between c 970 and c 1030 a period which witnessed crucial developments in iconography and stylistic expression across a wide range of media Despite the complex political situation in late 10th century Europe a period marked by chaos in some areas and the effective exercise of authority in others the last quarter of the century saw an apparent upsurge in artistic production in the Empire southern Britain Lombardy the Alps and the Mediterranean albeit one whose survival rate is low The decades after the millennium have left a larger residue of work notably in France Catalonia and northern Italy but were the 1020s artistically more dynamic than the 980s How might we describe the cultural climate of the Latin West between c 970 and c 1030 Individual chapters examine the influence of Carolingian art on artistic production around 1000 the emergence of new approaches to architecture in France Germany England and northern Italy and the response of artists to perceived order and disorder at the turn of the millennium There are studies of architectural sculpture in Catalonia and Castile new town foundation in Saxony and monastic architecture in southern Britain together with examinations of Ottonian sarcophagi book covers in gold and ivory the wall paintings at Reichenau the patronage of Willigis at Mainz and Robert the Pious in northern France the early Romanesque of Poland and Hungary and the reflection of a new type of affective piety in the manuscript illumination of late Anglo Saxon England Romanesque and the Year 1000 presents a wealth of new research in artistic production at a critical period and is of interest to art historians archaeologists and historians alike The Cloisters Cloisters (Museum), Peter Barnet, Nancy Y. Wu, 2005 By surveying these elaborate tapestries delicate carvings and other objects in roughly the historical sequence in which they were created we glimpse the evolving styles and artistic traditions of the Middle Ages and gain a more meaningful understanding of the contexts in which many of them appeared Among the masterpieces on display at The Cloisters are the famed Unicorn Tapestries the richly carved twelfth century ivory cross associated with the abbey of Bury St Edmunds known as the Cloisters Cross the exquisite Annunciation triptych by the Netherlandish painter Robert

Campin and many fine examples of manuscript illumination enameling metalwork and stained glass Complete with digital color photography map floor plan and glossary this book is a contemporary guide that will reward students and enthusiasts of the Middle Ages as well as visitors seeing the Museum for the first time BOOK JACKET The Glory of Byzantium Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),1997 Serves as both visual and textual record of the exhibition of the same name surveying the art of the Middle Byzantine period from the restoration of the use of icons by the Orthodox Church in 843 to the occupation of Constantinople by the Crusader forces from the West from 1204 to 1261 Conceived as a sequel to the 1976 exhibition Age of Spirituality which focused on the first centuries of Byzantium Preceding the catalogue 17 essays treat the historical context religious sphere and secular courtly realm of the empire and the interactions between Byzantium and other medieval cultures Abundantly illustrated Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Art of Medieval Spain, A.D. 500-1200 Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),1993 Irish and Scottish Art, c. 900-1900 Heather Pulliam,Rachel Moss,2024-11-30 As evidenced by the famed Book of Kells and monumental high crosses Scotland and Ireland have long shared a distinctive artistic tradition The story of how this tradition developed and flourished for another millennium through survival adaptation and revival is less well known Some works were preserved and repaired as relics objects of devotion believed to hold magical powers Respect for the past saw the creation of new artefacts through the assemblage of older parts or the creation of fakes and facsimiles Meanings and values attached to these objects and to places with strong early Christian associations changed over time but their Celtic and or Gaelic character has remained to the forefront of Scottish and Irish national expression Exploring themes of authenticity imitation heritage conservation and nationalism these interdisciplinary essays draw attention to a variety of understudied artworks and illustrate the enduring link that exists between Scottish and Irish cultures Studies in Byzantine, Islamic and Near Eastern Silk Weaving Anna Muthesius,2006-12-31 This volume complements Anna Muthesius two earlier ground breaking volumes in the field of silk as material culture Studies in Byzantine and Islamic Silk Weaving and Studies in Silk in Byzantium The publication highlights the fact that similar patterns of selection were at work in the acquisition of silks by secular and ecclesiastical bodies These patterns of selection were governed not only by fashions of the time but by access to international trade routes leading to the Great Silk Road linking the Near East to the Mediterranean The surviving silks prove that Mediterranean Near Eastern silk trade flourished continuously and for centuries prior to the thirteenth century contrary to what has previously widely been assumed It also highlights the crucial role of the Caucasian silk routes in accessing the Great Silk Road in the early period and the contribution of Georgian and Armenian silk weaving after the thirteenth century Above all the book demonstrates how important it is to assess the impact of Near Eastern silk manufacture and distribution in relation to Byzantine and Islamic Mediterranean silk production and trade The Carolingian Sacramentaries of Saint-Amand Arthur Westwell,2024-08-06 The series of beautiful sacramentaries made at Saint Amand in the later ninth century offer us unique insight into an early medieval scriptorium at work These manuscripts contain principally the prayer texts for the celebration of the Mass a ceremony which stood at the centre of monastic life in this period They display how this largely neglected genre discloses creativity and initiative on the part of the monks of Saint Amand who re organised and re composed this especially versatile literature They made their books uniquely comprehensive and full of insight into how the mass liturgy was re made at a critical period in its development This innovative study makes these sources accessible for the first time In depth study of script decoration and content enables a new appreciation of the context in which the deluxe Saint Amand manuscripts were produced It foregrounds ecclesiastical patronage the political and intellectual dynamics at the waning of Carolingian power and the intensive collaboration of scribes artists and liturgical composers as well as the unique ways liturgical manuscripts can inform our understanding of medieval life and thought Fountains and Water Culture in Byzantium Brooke Shilling, Paul Stephenson, 2016-10-13 This collection explores the ancient fountains of Byzantium Constantinople and Istanbul reviving the senses of past water cultures The "Things of Greater Importance" Conrad Rudolph, 2016-11-11 The Things of Greater Importance provides a close look into the social and cultural context of medieval art primarily as expressed in Bernard of Clairvaux's Apologia the central document in the greatest artistic controversy to occur in the West prior to the Reformation and the most important source we have for understanding medieval attitudes toward art Bernard wrote the Apologia during the medieval efflorescence of monumental sculpture and stained glass of advanced architecture of pilgrimage art of high Romanesque and of the origins of Gothic art Rudolph places the Apologia traditionally seen as a condemnation either of all religious art or of all monastic art in a broader context using it to explore the role of art in medieval society He shows that Bernard was interested in the impact of art on contemporary monasticism in a more complex way than previously believed The book offers the most thorough study available of the theoretical basis of medieval art as it functioned in society and its implications for the art of both the Romanesque and Gothic periods which were spanned by Bernard's life are significant Negotiating the Landscape Ellen F. Arnold, 2012-12-18 Negotiating the Landscape explores the question of how medieval religious identities were shaped and modified by interaction with the natural environment Focusing on the Benedictine monastic community of Stavelot Malmedy in the Ardennes Ellen F Arnold draws upon a rich archive of charters property and tax records correspondence miracle collections and saints lives from the seventh to the mid twelfth century to explore the contexts in which the monks intense engagement with the natural world was generated and refined Arnold argues for a broad cultural approach to medieval environmental history and a consideration of a medieval environmental imagination through which people perceived the nonhuman world and their own relation to it Concerned to reassert medieval Christianity's vitality and variety Arnold also seeks to oppose the historically influential view that the natural world was regarded in the premodern period as provided by God solely for human use and exploitation The book argues that rather than possessing a single unifying vision of nature the monks drew on their ideas and experience to create and then manipulate a complex understanding of their environment Viewing nature as both wild and domestic they simultaneously acted out several roles as stewards of the land and as economic agents exploiting natural resources They saw the natural world of the Ardennes as a type of wilderness a pastoral haven and a source of human salvation and actively incorporated these differing views of nature into their own attempts to build their community understand and establish their religious identity and relate to others who shared their landscape Pen and Parchment Melanie Holcomb, Lisa Bessette, 2009 Discusses the techniques uses and aesthetics of medieval drawings and reproduces work from more than fifty manuscripts produced between the ninth and early fourteenth century Sacred Scripture / Sacred Space Tobias Frese, Wilfried E. Keil, Kristina Krüger, 2019-01-14 Thirteen papers on different subjects focussing on writings and inscriptions in medieval art explore the faculty of writing to create and determine spaces and to generate the sacred by the display of holy scripture The subjects range from book illumination over wall painting mosaics sculpture and church interiors to inscriptions on portals and fa ades The Invention of Sodomy in Christian Theology Mark D. Jordan, 1998-10-15 In this reexamination of what it means to have a tradition Catholic and otherwise Mark D Jordan offers a powerful and provocative study of the sin of erotic love between men The Invention of Sodomy reveals the theological fabrication of arguments for categorizing genital acts between members of the same sex The Song of Songs in the Early Middle Ages Hannah W. Matis, 2019-01-28 In The Song of Songs in the Early Middle Ages Hannah W Matis examines how the Song of Songs the collection of Hebrew love poetry was understood in the Latin West as an allegory of Christ and the church This reading of the biblical text was passed down via the patristic tradition established by the Venerable Bede and promoted by the chief architects of the Carolingian reform Throughout the ninth century the Song of Songs became a text that Carolingian churchmen used to think about the nature of Christ and to conceptualize their own roles and duties within the church This study examines the many different ways that the Song of Songs was read within its early medieval historical context The Jew, the Cathedral and the Medieval City Nina Rowe, 2011-04-04 This book examines the Synagoga Ecclesia motif in the thirteenth century and argues that the figures conveyed a political message of Christian ascendancy and Jewish submission Decorating the Lord's Table Søren Kaspersen, Erik Thunø, 2006 Oxbow says The six essays featured in this study originated as papers given at the 36th International Congress of Medieval Studies at Kalamazoo The contributors survey the ornate altars produced from the early 8th to 13th century in Europe with specific examples taken from Italy Germany and Scandinavia Relics, Prayer, and Politics in Medieval Venetia Thomas E. A. Dale, 1997 Against a historical backdrop of relic theft and propaganda campaigns waged by two cities vying for patriarchal authority in medieval Venetia Thomas Dale shows how Romanesque mural painting shaped sacred space and institutional identity His focus is on the late twelfth century murals in the crypt of Aquileia Cathedral The crypt which contains the relics of Aquileia s founding bishop Saint Hermagoras has a historical significance rooted in a legend identifying the saint as a direct disciple of Saint Mark the Evangelist On this basis the Carolingians promoted the city's status as patriarchal see of Venetia a claim that prompted Venice to steal Mark's relics from Alexandria Egypt and appropriate Aquileia's history This book the first English language study of the crypt explores how the paintings complement the relics of Hermagoras in their distinct devotional and political roles Hermagoras's intercessory power is activated by his orant image displayed over the central aisle within a larger hierarchy of apostles martyrs and bishops The surrounding hagiographic cycle justifies in legalistic fashion Aquileia's patriarchal title and the consecration of the city as locus sanctus of Venetia by the blood of its martyrs The iconic images in the eastern lunettes present the Virgin's compassio as a pictorial model for the vicarious experience of Christ's Passion Finally a fictive curtain over the socle presents allegories of spiritual warfare in the form of exempla from crusades pilgrimage and the epic poem Psychomachia which Dale analyzes as a gloss on the main program
