Arshille Gordy Genesis Abstr Drawings From The Early 1930s:

Arshile Gorky Arshile Gorky, Matthew Spender, 1998 The show will be comprised of 17 paintings and 23 works on paper from this very influential period in Gorky's brief but potent career. It covers a decade where Gorky's inspirations synthesize to forge a radically new development in American art. Influences ranging from the Renaissance painter Paolo Uccello to Picasso, Miro and the surrealists can be seen in the work. As Michael Auping has asserted, it is during this time that Gorky establishes a complex formal vocabulary that acts as an important link between European surrealism and the development of Abstract Expressionism. The exhibition contains pieces from some of Gorky's key serial works. Included are drawings and a painting from the group entitled Nighttime Enigma and Nostalgia. This somber dreamlike series combines biomorphic abstraction with surrealism. Also included are two paintings and related drawings entitled Khorkom, named after Gorky's birthplace, a town in the Armenian province of Van. In three paintings from the well-known Garden in Sochi series of the early 1940s, Gorky invokes his father's garden in Armenia. His need to reconnect himself with his ancient homeland and with his idealized childhood provides the beguiling imagery that gives Gorky's work its unique quality. Arshile Gorky and the Genesis of Abstraction Matthew Spender, Barbara Rose, 1994 This exhibition catalogue of thirty-nine drawings, many neither shown nor published before, displays the richness of Arshile Gorky's production as a draftsman over several years crucial to his development. Documenting the emergence of Gorky's unmistakably unique, intensely personal pictorial language, the exhibition examines the complex relationship among these six themes developed in these drawings: their eventual connection to Gorky's 1934 proposed mural project for the Public Works of Art Project (PWAP). These drawings reveal the evolution of Gorky's highly inventive imagery, offering deep insight into a synthetic creative process that draws from both Renaissance and contemporary sources. The drawings not only mark the origins of Gorky's genius; they also reveal his working methods, demonstrating his systematic rearrangement of self-referential motifs which became major iconographic thematic sources throughout his working life. Introducing the catalogue are essays by Matthew Spender, Barbara Rose; individual entries for the drawings are by Melvin P. Lader, Joseph P. Ruzicka, Sarah E. Lawrence, Martin Kline. The venues for the exhibition include The Art Museum, Princeton University; Milwaukee Art Museum; The Baltimore Museum of Art. Modernism for the Masses Jody Patterson, 2020-11-17 A mural renaissance swept the United States in the 1930s, propelled by the New Deal Federal Art Project and the popularity of Mexican muralism. Perhaps nowhere more than in New York City, murals became a crucial site for the development of abstract painting. Artists such as Stuart Davis, Arshile Gorky, Willem de Kooning, and Lee Krasner created ambitious works for the Williamsburg Housing Project, Floyd Bennett Field Airport, and the 1939 World's Fair. Modernism for the Masses examines the public murals realized and unrealized of these and other abstract painters and the aesthetic controversy, political influence, and ideological warfare that surrounded them. Jody Patterson transforms standard narratives of modernism by reasserting the significance of the 1930s and explores the reasons for the omission of the mural's history from chronicles of American art Beautifully illustrated with the artists murals and little known archival photographs this book recovers the radical idea that modernist art was a vital part of everyday life Arshile Gorky Robert Saltonstall Mattison, Arshile Gorky, 2009 Arshile Gorky emigrated from Armenia to the United States in 1920 where he established himself as one of the greatest painters of that period Although his life was cut short by his suicide in 1948 the body of work he left behind secured his reputation as one of the greatest surrealist painters This book tells his story Twentieth Century American Drawings from the Arkansas Arts Center Foundation Collection Arkansas Arts Center Foundation, Gerald Nordland, Ruth Pasquine, Brian Young, Michael Preble, 1998 Lines of Discovery Philip L.
