Art And The Creative Consciousness:

Art and the Creative Consciousness Graham Collier, 1972 Here is an excerpt If you like where Collier goes with this you'll like the rest of the book I believe we make a mistake if we think that modern man is a rational creature While it is a mark of primitive man to respond directly to the non logical and less rationally defensible images projected by the psyche similar primitive or elemental responses lurk behind the civilized faced of which we are so proud For example we might be somewhat amused by the cave dweller's belief that because he possessed the image of an animal he had gained some power capable of controlling the creature's life But do we not believe something of the sort when we cherish the photograph of someone important to us and think carefully as to where it should be placed where is the place we can contemplate it the most effectively Can we honestly say that in possessing this image of a person we do not feel that some intangible link exists between us and them And could we willfully and with passion deface the photograph without the irrational thought overtaking us that we had done some harm to the relationship and to the person concerned customer review Amazon.com

Art and the Creative Unconscious Erich Neumann, 1999 First Published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Art and the Creative Unconscious Erich Neumann, Erich, Neumann Erich, 2013-09-25 First Published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Art and the Creative Unconscious Erich Neumann, 2026-01-20 A landmark account of how artistic expression arises from the collective unconscious This book brings together four essays by analytical psychologist Erich Neumann who explores the connections between creativity and the unconscious mind The archetypes of the collective unconscious he argues are intrinsically formless psychic components that take form in art The psychology of the individual in whom they appear the mediums of expression through which they pass and the time and place in which they occur mold their varying forms Neumann illustrates his theme in the first essay Leonardo da Vinci and the Mother Archetype in which he shows how the work of art and art itself were for Leonardo not ends in themselves but rather instruments and expressions of his inner life He follows with Art and Time A Note on Marc Chagall and Creative Man and Transformation Neumann sees the artist as a hero in isolation a tragically lonely figure whose mission is often to oppose the cultural canon of the age He demonstrates how the problem of form in modern art is linked to the chaos of the modern world and a fundamental change in how the individual seeks a life of dignity Art and the Creative Consciousness Graham Collier, 1972 Art and Answerability M. M. Bakhtin, 2011-01-01 Mikhail Bakhtin 1895 1975 is one of the preeminent figures in twentieth century philosophical thought Art and Answerability contains three of his early essays from the years following the Russian Revolution when Bakhtin and other intellectuals eagerly participated in the debates lectures demonstrations and manifesto writing of the period Because they predate works that have already been translated these essays Art and Answerability Author and Hero in Aesthetic Activity and The Problem of Content Material and Form in Verbal Art are essential to a comprehensive understanding of Bakhtin's later works A superb introduction by Michael Holquist sets out the major themes and concerns of the three essays and identifies their place in the canon of Bakhtin's work and in intellectual history. The introduction together with Vadim Liapunov's scholarly gloss makes these essays accessible to students as well as scholars.
