Wilkie Collins and Other Sensation Novelists Nicholas Rance, 1991 This work adopts a fresh approach by relating the vogue in the 1860s for sensation fiction to a specific phase of a crisis of faith in the bourgeois ideology of self help The demise of sensation fiction after a mere decade is then associated with a returned sense in the 1870s of the durability of the status quo and the temporary revival of a moralism which had seemed in a terminal condition in the 1860s

Wilkie Collins, Vera Caspary and the Evolution of the Casebook Novel A.B. Emrys, 2014-01-10 Wilkie Collins was one of the most popular novelists during England's Victorian era While Collins scholarship has often focused on social issues this critical study explores his formal ingenuity particularly the novel of testimony constructed from epistolary fiction trial reports and prose monologue His innovations in form were later mirrored by Vera Caspary who adapted The Woman in White three times into contemporary fiction This text explores how the formal dialogue between Collins and Caspary has linked sensation fiction with noir thrillers and film noir
