Armenian Dictionary in Transliteration Thomas J. Samuelian,1993 Armenian Dictionary in Transliteration Thomas J Samuelian,1993-05-01 Western Armenian Dictionary & Phrasebook Nicholas Awde,Vazken-Khatchig Davidian,2006

Western Armenian is the language spoken by most of the seven million Diaspora Armenians who live outside their historic homeland Its speakers form the majority of Armenians in the United States and the Middle East Armenian is written in its own unique script but it is presented here in a Romanized easy to use form for instant communication In addition to a pronunciation guide included are a resourceful two way dictionary containing more than 4 000 entries an informative grammar section and a collection of travel oriented phrases Observations related to Armenian culture are interspersed throughout the phrasebook There is also a brief history of the Armenian people and Diaspora Aramaic (Assyrian/Syriac) Dictionary & Phrasebook Nicholas Awde,Nineb Lamassu,Nicholas Al-Jeloo,2007 Aramaic is now recognised throughout the world as the language spoken by Christ and the Apostles Contrary to popular belief however it is very much a living language spoken today by the Assyrian peoples in Iran Iraq Syria and Turkey It is also heard in Assyrian emigre communities of the US Europe and Australia Modern Aramaic or Assyrian is made up of a number of dialects The two major ones are Swadaya Eastern and Turoyo Western This unique dictionary and phrasebook incorporates both dialects in a way that illustrates the differences and gives the reader a complete understanding of both The dialects are presented in an easy to read romanised form that will help the reader to be understood Journal of the Society for Armenian Studies ,2005 The American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies Patt Leonard,Rebecca Routh,2020-02-27 This bibliography first published in 1957 provides citations to North American academic literature on Europe Central Europe the Balkans the Baltic States and the former Soviet Union Organised by discipline it covers the arts humanities social sciences life sciences and technology Byron and Translation Maria Schoina,Alexander Grammatikos,2024-11-15 This collection of essays offers an image of Byron not only as a poet for which he is best known but as a translator of foreign literature and culture To recover this underexplored element of Byron s work the contributors examine his translated pieces in both textual and extra textual contexts including analysis of manuscripts composition history publishing history and other literary and historical factors They explore the motives behind Byron s choice to translate in the first place as well as reconstructing the translational methods he applied and his ideas on translation and the role of the translator in general The book focuses too on Byron s geographical mobility which also involved the act of translation though in a metaphorical sense The cosmopolitan poet mediated and interpreted all the time foreign cultures behaviours modes of living customs and habits In this sense translation becomes for the poet a dynamic movement between languages across texts and around various contexts offering Byron a vital space for the articulation of his ideas Byron s translation work reminds us how Romantic writers and readers sought to learn about and engage with the wider world and its various languages Dictionnaires , The Armenians

Hamo B. Vassilian,1993 Early Modernity and Mobility Sebouh David Aslanian,2023-01-01 A history of the continent spanning Armenian print tradition in the early modern period Early Modernity and Mobility explores the disparate yet connected histories of Armenian printing establishments in early modern Europe and Asia From 1512 when the first Armenian printed codex appeared in Venice to the end of the early modern period in 1800 Armenian presses operated in nineteen locations across the Armenian diaspora Linking far flung locations in Amsterdam Livorno Marseille Saint Petersburg and Astrakhan to New Julfa Madras and Calcutta Armenian presses published a thousand editions with more than half a million printed volumes in Armenian script Drawing on extensive archival research Sebouh David Aslanian explores why certain books were published at certain times how books were sold across the diaspora who read them and how the printed word helped fashion a new collective identity for early modern Armenians In examining the Armenian print tradition Aslanian tells a larger story about the making of the diaspora itself Arguing that confessionalism and the hardening of boundaries between the Armenian and Roman churches was the driving engine of Armenian book history Aslanian makes a revisionist contribution to the early modern origins of Armenian nationalism The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France,2000 This guide highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the process of translating and the choices involved making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Hungarian Korean to Turkish For some works e g Virgil s Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available A Compendium of Musical Instruments and Instrumental Terminology in the Bible Yelena Kolyada,2014-12-18 A Compendium of Musical Instruments and Instrumental Terminology in the Bible draws on extensive historical research comparative linguistic analysis and musical study to offer the first compilation of its kind The volume examines the entire range of musical instruments in the Bible stringed wind and percussion drawing on ancient and modern translations of the Bible and the works of rabbinic teachers Church Fathers and medieval renaissance and contemporary scholars The book offers a historical survey of Hebrew instrumental music its origins and links with neighbouring cultures the role of instruments in the religious social public and private life of ancient Israel and the system of musical education and explores the understanding of Hebrew musical instruments in post biblical times This comprehensive volume will be invaluable to musicologists archaeologists theologians historians philologists and Bible translators as well as general readers in the subject Letter to Yerevan Andranik Tzarukian,2018-12-24 This story begins with a short slanderous political attack by one writer and continues with a lengthy rebuttal by another a self appointed target who took it upon himself to respond in kind in verse Written in 1944 in response to Soviet Armenian writer Gevorg Abov s Menk chenK moratsel We Have Not Forgotten and published the following year Tught ar Yerevan Letter to Yerevan made

Tzarukian a prominent voice in the Armenian Diaspora almost overnight from the Middle East to Europe and the Americas The poem was republished more than a dozen times in various Armenian communities including in Syria the United States Lebanon and Cyprus up until the early 1990s and as a result became a source of inspiration for tens of thousands Published by the 120 year old Hairenik Press this is the first English translation of Tzarukian s Letter to Yerevan The translation was a collaborative effort between the former director of the ARF and First Republic of Armenia Archives and former editor of the Armenian Review Tatul Sonentz Papazian and former editor of the Armenian Weekly Rupen Janbazian It features an in depth introduction by another former editor of the Armenian Weekly and the volume s English editor Vahe Habeshian as well as six original illustrations by Yerevan based artist Meruzhan Khachatryan The Armenian language republication was edited by Yeprem Tokjian of Toronto The publication of Letter to Yerevan is the first of several initiatives planned celebrating the 120th anniversary of the Hairenik Association All the proceeds from book sales will be donated to the Hairenik Association s Newspaper Digitization Project Praise for Letter to Yerevan Letter to Yerevan 1945 is urgent and timeless It may seem easy to turn the page on an oeuvre penned in a political context that no longer exists Yet Andranik Tzarukian s powerful poetic rebuttal continues to resonate When as in the aftermath of the Velvet Revolution in Armenia Dashnak dogs and other Abov esque tropes are unleashed Tzarukian s Letter is the best antidote Hence its urgency When history is distorted and alternative facts are tossed around Tzarukian s Letter is highly relevant Hence its timelessness Translators Sonentz Papazian and Janbazian two generations apart are themselves testament to the enduring power of this work that reaches English language readers on the 100th anniversary of the First Armenian Republic Khatchig Mouradian PhD Columbia University About the Author Born in G r n Tzarukian attracted fame as both a writer and a journalist publicist whose periodical Nayiri 1941 1983 remains an indispensable record for students of the Armenian Dispersion Among his most prominent works People Without a Childhood 1955 and Ethereal Aleppo 1980 are autobiographical accounts dedicated to his childhood life in the orphanage of Aleppo He published only one collection of verse Aragastner Sails and bade farewell to poetry in Tught ar Yerevan Letter to Yerevan About the Publisher Established in 1899 and based in Watertown Mass the Hairenik Press is the publishing division of the Hairenik Association Armenian Philology in the Modern Era ,2014-06-05 Philology is one of the most investigated fields of Armenian studies At the end of the twentieth century it was important to provide an overview of the main achievements and on the methodological approaches implemented in this field till now This is the aim of the present publication Part I focuses on the manuscripts the inscriptions and the printings Its second section is devoted to the textual criticisms and the third section explores the interface between linguistics and philology Case studies form the core of Part II One chapter offers an overview on the 17th 19th centuries and two articles are devoted to the conditions of the circulation of the literary production in the 20th century both in Western and Eastern Armenian The Bible in the Armenian Tradition Vrej Nersessian,2001 The Bible in the Armenian Tradition provides a concise historical account of the development of the

Bible in Armenia and the illustrative traditions that are represented in surviving codices The author focuses on the origins of the first translations of the Bible into Armenian in the fourth century which inspired the Armenian alphabet itself A range of beautiful Armenian Bible manuscripts from collections throughout the world are illustrated in full color and compared with western Bible illuminations Later printed Armenian Bibles are also examined in detail revealing fascinating examples of religious differences between the Armenian and the Catholic Christian traditions This survey of Armenian Bible history is an important reference for biblical scholars and anyone with an interest in the history of Christianity The Routledge Companion to Global Comparative Literature Zhang Longxi, Omid Azadibougar, 2025-04-29 The Routledge Companion to Global Comparative Literature is a collection of papers by influential scholars who are engaged in comparative literary studies and addresses a central and highly important question about the discipline if Eurocentrism has been integral to comparative literature and if the world we live in is undergoing radical changes then how can or should the discipline change to overcome this problem of the discipline as well as of literary history to accommodate non Western traditions Addressing this significant matter and taking different approaches in response to the state of the discipline the papers in this volume offer diverse ways of overcoming Eurocentrism the role of institutions and the changes they need to undergo possible ways of practicing a truly global comparative literature the history of the discipline outside Europe premodern histories of ideas and the non European origins of modernity translation orientalism and area studies publishing and literary circulation and modern technologies and their impact on literary dissemination and the discipline This collection assesses comparative literature at a timely historical moment and will broaden the field by addressing the students and scholars of comparative literary studies all over the world with significant hints for more inclusive histories of world literature The Life of Mashtots by his Disciple Koriwn Abraham Terian, 2022-10-31 The Life of Mashtots is mostly praise for the inventor of the Armenian alphabet the only inventor of an ancient alphabet known by name and progenitor of Armenian literacy that began with the translation of the Bible Written three years after his death by an early disciple named Koriwn it narrates the master's endeavors in search for letters the establishment of schools and the ensuing literary activity that yielded countless translations of religious texts known in the Early Church of the East As an encomium from Late Antiquity The Life of Mashtots exhibits all the literary features of the genre to which it belongs delineated through rhetorical analysis by Abraham Terian who comments on the entire document almost phrase by phrase Translated from the latest Armenian edition of the text 2003 this edition of The Life of Mashtots includes a facing English translation and commentary The extraordinary narrative parades historical characters including the Patriarch of the Armenian Church Catholicos Sahak d 439 the Arsacid King of Armenia Vramshapuh r 401 417 and the Roman Emperor of the East Theodosius II r 408 450 Koriwn is an eminently inspiring rhetorical writer and one of the first four authors known to write in the newly invented script The marked influence of The Life of Mashtots is discernible in subsequent Armenian writings of the fifth century dubbed The Golden Era
