Haglund,1995-05-01 Alistair Edgar and David Haglund examine changes in the international demand for defence products in the post Cold War era review the reorganization and rationalization of the supply side of the international defence market through various government policy initiatives and corporate strategies and discuss the ways in which the Canadian government and defence producers have attempted to cope with this new and uncertain international environment They also explore the international and domestic contexts military economic and political within which defence industries operate Edgar and Haglund s analysis draws on extensive interviews with political and industry leaders military personnel and government officials from Canada the United States the United Kingdom France Belgium the Netherlands Norway Denmark Spain and Germany This timely study of the domestic American and other NATO defence markets will interest scholars and students of Canadian defence policy Canadian foreign policy and Canadian external relations and public servants politicians and personnel in the industry The Armed Forces Report United States. Assistant Secretary of Defense (Public Affairs),1966 Special Bibliography Series ,1957 Building Global Security Through Cooperation Joseph Rotblat,John P. Holdren,2012-12-06 1989 was by any standards an extraordinary year the year in which the Cold War ended However although much has changed much remains unresolved or not changed at all Even though the rationale for the huge military forces has been removed from the East West relationship these forces still retain a tremendous potential to do harm Moreover threats to peace may grow along North South and South South axes An example of such a threat is the rapid growth in size and sophistication of military arsenals in the South. The contributions to this volume make it clear that the problems of East and West, North and South are intertwined. Security can be gained only through cooperation. The contributors who come from widely differing geographical, cultural and political backgrounds all share the Pugwash tradition of scientific objectivity.

The Economics of International Security Manas Chatterji, Henk Jager, Annemarie Rima, 2016-07-27. The objective of this book is to present an integrated set of original papers from leading authorities in the field related to optimal balance between arms reduction and regional and international security. The emphasis is on economics and management rather than politics and diplomacy.

From Defence to Development Jacklyn Cock, Penny McKenzie, 1998. Remember the global peace dividend, the budget surpluses that were supposed to result from the raising of the Iron Curtain and the end of the arms race. As war torn societies in the Middle East, Latin America and parts of Africa found peace and began building democratic societies, governments were supposed to use the money they once spent on the military to better meet basic human needs. But has it happened?

Future Survey Annual 1988-1989 Michael Marien, Lane Jennings, 1990-01-01. BMW Z cars have carved a huge reputation for themselves in a very short time. From the revolutionary and innovative Z1 of the late 1980s to the beautiful and exclusive Z8 of more recent times via the popular Z3 and its controversial replacement the Z4, the family has made BMW's name in the increasingly competitive sports car market.
