Arms Transparency And Security In South East Asia:

Arms, Transparency, and Security in South-East Asia Bates Gill, J. N. Mak, 1997 This report jointly sponsored by SIPRI and the Maritime Institute of Malaysia MIMA draws together the work of eight experts on armaments and Asia Pacific security affairs to present analysis and extensive data on arms and defence related transparency mechanisms in South East Asia It also includes a de facto arms trade register for South East Asia covering the period 1975-96 The book will prove useful to security analysts and policy makers seeking analysis of and practical approaches to transparency and confidence building in South East Asia

Constructing a Security Community in Southeast Asia Amitav Acharya, 2003-08-29 First published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Dangerous Flashpoints in East Asia: The Military Build-up Saghir Iqbal, 2018-01-16 Major changes in East Asia have placed the region near the top of the World's strategic agenda East Asia has until recently experienced the fastest regional economic growth rate in the world for many years Economic co operation has been flourishing and economic interests have become the major reason in reshaping East Asian international relations However there have also been changes in the security environment due to many factors such as the reduction of US forces in East Asia the disintegration of the Soviet Union the decline of the Soviet Union's presence in the region had led to renewed attention to traditional and potential rivalries among the major East Asian powers and the concern of China's hegemonistic ambitions

The Sulu Arms Market Lino Miani, 2011 Situated in a remote area along a historical buffer zone between competing political entities the Sulu Arms Market is an illicit market of a typical form in that it is both a source and a destination for less than legal guns What makes the Sulu market unique is its longevity which is measured in centuries In modern times guns from the area supply conflicts and crime from Japan to Sri Lanka to Papua New Guinea and beyond and in turn the world pours guns and ammunition into Mindanao the Maluku Molucca Islands and to a lesser extent Malaysia and the rest of the Philippines Like most black arms pipelines the Sulu Arms Market is intertwined with piracy terrorism and the traffic of other illicit commodities Criminal gangs communists Moro independence groups and Islamic militants are all major players in the market making it a security problem for at least five member states of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN

Disarmament and Defence Industrial Adjustment in South Africa Peter G. Batchelor, Susan Willett, 1998 Peter Batchelor and Susan Willett analyse the response of the South African defence industry to drastic cuts in military expenditure and the demilitarization of society since the end of the cold war and apartheid and the stabilization of the regional security situation The new ANC led government is seeking to use the resources released the peace dividend to restructure and revitalize the country's industrial base and to support reconstruction development and redistribution A lively debate on the country's security needs and strategic doctrine is under way As in other countries strategies of industrial diversification and conversion have met with limited success In the absence hitherto of any coherent government policy on defence industrial adjustment significant skills and technologies have been lost or wasted This book provides a historical analysis of South Africa s unique opportunity to develop new and innovative policies on defence and security matters the arms industry and arms exports and makes a valuable contribution to the international debate on the relationship between disarmament and development Explaining ASEAN Shaun Narine,2002 Is ASEAN the foundation of a strong regional community in Southeast Asia Or is it no more than an instrument used by its members to advance their individual interests Addressing these questions Shaun Narine offers a comprehensive political analysis of ASEAN from its creation in 1967 through the events of 2001 Reflecting both the accomplishments and the limitations of the organization Explaining ASEAN explores issues of regional security economic stability and the growing expectations of the international community Narine s trenchant analysis makes it clear that unless ASEAN can resolve the problems of inadequate resources and disagreements among the member states its future as an effective active international regime is doubtful The Weapons State David Mutimer,2000 The proliferation of all kinds of weapons is a focal point for international security This work shows how both the language used to talk about weapons proliferation and the practices adopted to respond to it serve to define the problem in ways that promote policy responses doomed to failure Order and Security in Southeast Asia Ralf Emmers,Joseph Liow,2006-04-07 Michael Leifer who died in 2001 was one of the leading scholars of Southeast Asian international relations He was hugely influential through his extensive writings and his contacts with people in government and business in the region In this book many of Leifer s students colleagues and friends come together to explore the key themes of his work on Southeast Asia including the notion of order security maritime law and foreign policy The book concludes with an overall assessment of Leifer s background worldview and impact on his field A scholarly and personal volume devoted to Leifer s vast contributions to the discipline of international relations this text is a must read for students and scholars specializing in the region The Security Dilemmas of Southeast Asia A. Collins,2000-08-17 The Security Dilemmas of Southeast Asia utilises a key security concept to examine one of the most dramatic regions of the world Focusing on ethnic tensions intra ASEAN rivalries and the emergence of Chinese hegemony the security dilemma is used to provide insights into a wide range of the region s contemporary security issues In addition the book expounds upon some of the new uses of the security dilemma exploring both its applicability to ethnic tensions and a new variant a state induced security dilemma An Arms Race in Post-cold War Southeast Asia Amitav Acharya,1994 In the prevailing climate of uncertainty and apprehension about Southeast Asia s security outlook in the post Cold War era this study looks at the question of whether there is an impending arms race in the region It examines the factors behind the recent trends towards increased defence spending and force modernisation in countries in the region and what efforts should and can be undertaken to ensure that this build up does not become a threat to regional security and stability Chinese Arms Exports: Policy, Players, and Process , Asia-Pacific in the New World Order Christopher Brook,Anthony

McGrew,2013-11-05 Asia Pacific in the New World Order critically explores the notion that a distinctive regional power bloc is developing linking countries bordering the Pacific with East Asia at its core This student friendly volume sheds light on the complex interplay between global regional and national forces which have transformed the Asia Pacific area into one of the most vibrant and economically successful regions in the world Historical narratives alongside geopolitical and geoeconomic perspectives are deployed to examine the shifting pattern of power relations and security structures across the region set within a wider world context Key issues addressed include what are the primary security problems of the region and how are they being resolved does the dynamic growth of the region and particularly the rise of China pose a challenge to existing structures of world order The text has a strong interdisciplinary flavour drawing on analytical approaches from the international relations political economy and political geography literature Authors have been drawn from the Asia Pacific region and the UK and all are established scholars in their specialist fields The Making of the Asia Pacific See Seng Tan,2025-10-01 This illuminating volume critically surveys the power of narratives in shaping the discourse on the post Cold War Asia Pacific The author examines the purposes practices power relations and protagonists behind policy networks such as the Council for Security Cooperation in the Asia Pacific and the Pacific Economic Cooperation Council Confidence and Security Building Between the Association of South East Asian Nations and the People's Republic of China After the Cold War Kwei-Bo Huang,2001 Southeast Asia and the Rise of Chinese and Indian Naval Power Sam Bateman,Joshua Ho,2014-06-03 This book examines the emerging maritime security scene in Southeast Asia It considers highly topical implications for the region of possible strategic competition between China and India the rising naval powers of Asia with a possible naval arms race emerging between these countries both with naval force development and operations As part of its Look East policy India has deployed naval units to the Pacific Ocean for port visits and exercises both with East Asian navies and the US Navy but India is also concerned about the possibility of the Chinese Navy operating in the Indian Ocean Even as the US India defence relationship continues to deepen the US and China are struggling to build a closer links China s and India s strategic interests overlap in this region both in maritime strategic competition or conflict which might be played out in the Bay of Bengal the Malacca and Singapore Straits and the South China Sea The sea lines of communication SLOCs through Southeast Asian waters constitute vital choke points between the Indian and Pacific Oceans carrying essential energy supplies for China and other Northeast Asian countries Any strategic competition between China and India has implications for other major maritime players in the Pacific and Indian Oceans especially Australia the Republic of Korea and Japan as well as the US This book identifies possible cooperative and confidence building measures that may contribute to enhanced relations between these two major powers and dampen down the risks associated with their strategic competition East Asian Security Michael Edward Brown,Sean M. Lynn-Jones,Steven E. Miller,1996 East Asian Security examines some of the most important strategic questions about the future of East Asia It includes provocative essays that explore the overall prospects for war peace and stability in the region Other essays focus on the likely strategies that China and Japan will pursue at the dawn of the next millennium Students scholars and analysts of contemporary issues will find East Asian Security to be a stimulating and valuable overview of these questions China-Malaysia Relations and Foreign Policy Razak Abdullah,2015-08-11 When Malaysian Prime Minister Tun Abdul Razak Hussein paid an official visit to China in May 1974 it secured Malaysia a place in the annals of regional diplomatic history as the first ASEAN country to establish full diplomatic relations with the People s Republic of China This book analyses the process of the establishment of diplomatic relations between Malaysia and China and provides a detailed explanation and understanding of the decision making process in Malaysia Shedding light on the roles played by the various principal actors in the process of foreign policy formulation and the influences both internal and external that shaped Malaysia s behaviour the book highlights why Malaysia decided to pursue a policy of normalisation with China culminating in the visit in 1974 and in particular why it became the first ASEAN country to establish diplomatic relations with the Chinese After Malaysia s recognition of Beijing two other ASEAN states followed suit namely Thailand and the Philippines and the book discusses whether there was some degree of policy coordination amongst ASEAN countries in dealing with China or if both these countries gave way for Malaysia to be the first The book also looks at the policy debates within some ASEAN countries regarding relations with China either conducted officially or unofficially bilaterally or otherwise This book will be of interest to scholars of Asian Politics Asian History International Relations and Foreign Policy The Making of Southeast Asia Amitav Acharya,2013-02-15 Developing a framework to study what makes a region Amitav Acharya investigates the origins and evolution of Southeast Asian regionalism and international relations He views the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN from the bottom up as not only a U S inspired ally in the Cold War struggle against communism but also an organization that reflects indigenous traditions Although Acharya deploys the notion of imagined community to examine the changes especially since the Cold War in the significance of ASEAN dealings for a regional identity he insists that imagination is itself not a neutral but rather a culturally variable concept The regional imagination in Southeast Asia imagines a community of nations different from NAFTA or NATO the OAU or the European Union In this new edition of a book first published as The Quest for Identity in 2000 Acharya updates developments in the region through the first decade of the new century the aftermath of the financial crisis of 1997 security affairs after September 2001 the long term impact of the 2004 tsunami and the substantial changes wrought by the rise of China as a regional and global actor Acharya argues in this important book for the crucial importance of regionalism in a different part of the world Arming East Russia Tim Huxley,Susan Willett,2020-10-07 During the 1990s military spending arms procurement and defence industrialisation have all increased rapidly in East Asia Although these developments do not constitute an arms race they nevertheless have important implications for suppliers of defence equipment for arms control and for regional stability This paper assesses trends in the defence spending of East Asian states particularly in the light of the economic crisis which began in mid 1997 It also focuses on three closely related issues the nature of the regional market for defence equipment defence industrialisation and the effect of trends in defence procurement and industrialisation on East Asian states military capabilities and on the regional military balance
