English and Development Elizabeth J. Erling, Philip Seargeant, 2013-05-16 This book investigates the relationship between English and personal and national development as this is both discursively promoted particularly through language policy and practically realized in developing societies It addresses the effects that the increased use of English and the promotion of English language education are having in developmental contexts and their impact on broader educational issues on local language ecologies and on questions of cultural identity It investigates these issues by drawing together a series of original examinations and case studies by a range of leading scholars working in this burgeoning field The chapters focus on a variety of contexts from around the world and the volume as a whole surveys and critiques the positioning and influence of English as a catalyst for development in the 21st century

Cinema of Small Nations Mette Hjort, 2007-11-21 Within cinema studies there has emerged a significant body of scholarship on the idea of National Cinema but there has been a tendency to focus on the major national cinemas Less developed within this field is the analysis of what we might term minor or small national cinemas despite the increasing significance of these small entities with the international domain of moving image production distribution and consumption The Cinema of Small Nations is the first major analysis of small national cinemas comprising twelve case studies of small national and sub national cinemas from around the world including Ireland Denmark Iceland Scotland Bulgaria Tunisia

Burkina Faso Cuba Singapore Taiwan Hong Kong and New Zealand Written by an array of distinguished and emerging scholars each of the case studies provides a detailed analysis of the particular cinema in question with an emphasis on the last decade considering both institutional and textual issues relevant to the national dimension of each cinema While each chapter contains an in depth analysis of the particular cinema in question the book as a whole provides the basis for a broader and more properly comparative understanding of small or minor national cinemas particularly with regard to structural constraints and possibilities the impact of globalization and internationalisation and the role played by economic and cultural factors in small nation contexts
