Colonial Migrants at the Heart of Empire Ismael García-Colón,2020-02-18 Colonial Migrants at the Heart of Empire is the first in depth look at the experiences of Puerto Rican migrant workers in continental U S agriculture in the twentieth century The Farm Labor Program established by the government of Puerto Rico in 1947 placed hundreds of thousands of migrant workers on U S farms and fostered the emergence of many stateside Puerto Rican communities Ismael García-Colón investigates the origins and development of this program and uncovers the unique challenges faced by its participants A labor history and an ethnography Colonial Migrants evokes the violence fieldwork food lodging surveillance and coercion that these workers experienced on farms and conveys their hopes and struggles to overcome poverty Island farmworkers encountered a unique form of prejudice and racism arising from their dual status as both U S citizens and as foreign others and their experiences were further shaped by evolving immigration policies Despite these challenges many Puerto Rican farmworkers ultimately chose to settle in rural U S communities contributing to the production of food and the Latinization of the U S farm labor force The Life of Yellowstone Kelly Jerry Keenan,2006 Based on the memoirs and correspondence of Luther Sage Yellowstone Kelly 1849 1928 this first full length biography offers a comprehensive look at a remarkable man who knew the frontier of the American West and recorded his impressions of that time and place with a fluid literary pen

Self-Inference Processes James M. Olson,Mark P. Zanna,C. Peter Herman,2013-03-07 Although self inference processes the ways individuals make judgments about themselves have been studied in social psychology and sociology for many years a distinct literature on this topic has not emerged due to the diversity of relevant issues The editors of this current volume cull recent social psychological research and theory on self inference processes and identify some of the common themes in this area of study The specific topics covered in this volume include how people infer their emotions personality traits and body images from relevant information factors influencing the self concept identity and self standards the impact of self inferences on interpersonal relations conditions motivating escape from the self The book is written for researchers and graduate level students in clinical social developmental health and personality psychology The Spiritual Pilgrim Joseph O. Barrett,1872 The Spiritual Pilgrim Joseph Osgood Barrett,1878 Murals : the Great Walls of Joliet Jeff Huebner,2001 Since 1991 the city of Joliet Illinois has commissioned painters for a series of public murals Free to use their own styles and follow their particular visions the artists gave Joliet a diverse and dramatic body of public art that is also a statement of civic pride and a revival of a venerable midwestern tradition Arrayed with color plates of the murals and accompanied by biographical sketches of the artists this impressive volume documents the rich ethnic racial and cultural heritage that informs the art An old industrial city thirty five miles south of Chicago Joliet has a mixed ethnic population The murals of Joliet reflect this diversity featuring the experiences of African Americans Mexican Americans Italian Americans German and Irish immigrants and the city's Slovenian community Bold colorful pieces acknowledge industrial and natural resources including the Illinois and Michigan Canal the Des Plaines River the region's limestone quarries and the Sauk trail They pay tribute to the area's farmers as well as to individuals such as labor leader Samuel Gompers and the dancer choreographer and anthropologist Katherine Dunham Above all Murals The Great Walls of Joliet documents the profound transformation in the local mentality wrought by the development of public art in the city Underwritten by a community group Friends of Community Public Art the Joliet murals project stands as a model for modern municipal patronage evidence of a population's decision to invest in public art to enrich its environment and express the ideals of the whole community
