Risman, Carissa M. Froyum, William J. Scarborough, 2018-06-05 This handbook provides a comprehensive view of the field of the sociology of gender It presents the most important theories about gender and methods used to study gender as well as extensive coverage of the latest research on gender in the most important areas of social life including gendered bodies sexuality carework paid labor social movements incarceration migration gendered violence and others Building from previous publications this handbook includes a vast array of chapters from leading researchers in the sociological study of gender It

synthesizes the diverse field of gender scholarship into a cohesive theoretical framework gender structure theory in order to position the specific contributions of each author chapter as part of a complex and multidimensional gender structure Through this organization of the handbook readers do not only gain tremendous insight from each chapter but they also attain a broader understanding of the way multiple gendered processes are interrelated and mutually constitutive While the specific focus of the handbook is on gender the chapters included in the volume also give significant attention to the interrelation of race class and other systems of stratification as they intersect and implicate gendered processes

Routledge Handbook of Sport and Social Media Andrew C. Billings, Marie Hardin, 2025-04-23 This handbook takes an in depth look at the transformative impact of social media on sport With broader and deeper coverage than any previous book on this topic the handbook explores how sports media is co created and curated collectively at the individual group and organisational level and considers the implications for the ways in which sports media through social media infiltrates our lives and influences local and global culture Exploring key concepts and presenting original case studies the book features work by world leading international sports media scholars It discusses the theoretical lenses through which we can understand social media and sport from political economy and cultural dynamics to business and management and explains the significance of global social media platforms The book then presents a multi level exploration of sport and social media including social media use by fans athletes teams leagues and media organisations Offering important new insight into a technology that now sits at the centre of our social and economic lives this book is important reading for any researcher student practitioner or policymaker with an interest in sport media sport business sport cultures digital media technologies digital business or the broader relationships between sport media and wider society Creative Macrame Projects Charles Barnes, David P. Blake, 1976 Making Change Happen Kevin Cook, Heather Goodall, 2013-09-11 This book is a unique window into a dynamic time in the politics and history of Australia The two decades from 1970 to the Bicentennial in 1988 saw the emergence of a new landscape in Australian Indigenous politics There were struggles triumphs and defeats around land rights community control of organisations national coalitions and the international movement for Indigenous rights The changes of these years generated new roles for Aboriginal people Leaders had to grapple with demands to be administrators and managers as well as spokespeople and lobbyists The challenges were personal as well as organisational with a central one being how to retain personal integrity in the highly politicised atmosphere of the Aboriginal Industry Kevin Cook was in the middle of many of these changes as a unionist educator land rights campaigner cultural activist and advocate for liberation movements in Southern Africa the Pacific and around the world But Cookie has not wanted to tell the story of his own life in these pages Instead with Heather Goodall a long time friend he has gathered together many of the activists with whom he worked to tell their stories of this important time Readers are invited into the frank and vivid conversations Cookie had with forty five black and white activists about what they wanted to achieve the plans they made and the risks they took to make change happen You never doubted Kevin Cook His very presence made you confident because the guiding hand is always there Equal attention is given to all I am one of many who worked with Cookie and Judy through the Tranby days and in particular the 1988 Bicentennial March for Freedom Justice and Hope What days they were I m glad this story is being told Linda Burney MLA New South Wales Kevin Cook was a giant in the post war struggle for Aboriginal rights His ability to connect the dots and make things happen was important in both the political and cultural resurgence of the 1970s onwards Meredith Burgmann former MLC New South Wales Kevin has had a transformative effect on the direction of my life and the lives of so many other people This book is an important contribution to understanding not only Kevin s life but also the broader struggles for social and economic justice for community empowerment and of the cooperative progressive movement It will greatly assist the ongoing campaign for full and sustainable reconciliation Paddy Crumlin National Secretary Maritime Union of Australia Cookie has made great contributions in enhancing the struggles of our people He is a motivator an astute strategist and an excellent communicator with wonderful people skills It s a pleasure to be able to call him a mate and a brother John Ah Kit former MLA Northern Territory
