when private spaceflight was science fiction How Richard Feynman made breakthroughs in quantum mechanics by pretending he was an electron Why Jeff Hawkins walked around with a block of wood and a chopstick to design the first Palm Pilot Erik Caloniuss who has interviewed many of the greatest living visionaries across disciplines and industries weaves together their stories highlights their shared attributes and draws on science to help us understand what sets them apart and how we too can see and make the future One Step Forward Two Steps Back D.F. Block, 2011-11-12 It had been a long day the phone hadn't stopped ringing since it was turned on at Ten o'clock this morning it was now just after eleven at night and I was tired As I pulled into the large empty car park on this cold wet night there in the far corner sat a metallic blue XR3i The headlights flashed once and I cruised over to where it was parked Dave sat on the rear parcel shelf staring vacantly out of the window I drew up alongside the car and its driver's window went down automatically I dropped my window slightly Yerr gonna have to get in the motor I aint passing fuck all through the window I wound my window back up and waited There were a few stragglers waiting so time was of the essence The passenger door of my car opened slowly and then shut quietly a young girl sat on the passenger seat wearing a blue pair of pyjamas and a green towelling dressing gown Play Between Worlds T. L. Taylor, 2009-02-13 A study of Everquest that provides a snapshot of multiplayer gaming culture questions the truism that computer games are isolating and alienating and offers insights into broader issues of work and play gender identity technology and commercial culture In Play Between Worlds T L Taylor examines multiplayer gaming life as it is lived on the borders in the gaps as players slip in and out of complex social networks that cross online and offline space Taylor questions the common assumption that playing computer games is an isolating and alienating activity indulged in by solitary teenage boys Massively multiplayer online games MMOGs in which thousands of players participate in a virtual game world in real time are in fact actively designed for sociability Games like the popular Everquest she argues are fundamentally social spaces Taylor's detailed look at Everquest offers a snapshot of multiplayer culture Drawing on her own experience as an Everquest player as a female Gnome Necromancer including her attendance at an Everquest Fan Faire with its blurring of online and offline life and extensive research Taylor not only shows us something about games but raises broader cultural issues She considers power gamers who play in ways that seem closer to work and examines our underlying notions of what constitutes play and why play sometimes feels like work and may even be painful repetitive and boring She looks at the women who play Everquest and finds they don't fit the narrow stereotype of women gamers which may cast into doubt our standardized and preconceived ideas of femininity And she explores the questions of who owns game space what happens when emergent player culture confronts the major corporation behind the game Informatics in Schools. A Step Beyond Digital Education Andreas Bollin, Gerald Futschek, 2022-08-24 This book constitutes the proceedings of the 14th International Conference on Informatics in Schools Situation Evolution and Perspectives ISSEP 2021 held in Nijmegen The Netherlands in November 2020 Due to COVID 19 related travelling restrictions the conference had to be switched to online format The 12 full papers presented together with 4 short papers were carefully reviewed and selected from 57 submissions They are organized in 2 topical sections named state of research and best practice country and experience reports As in our school education subjects like digital literacy or media literacy are making their way in complementing or partially replacing computer science education The current ISSEP conference reacted to this trend and therefore invited computer scientists media didactics and representatives of politics media and industry to a discussion round on the topic Media Education or Computer Science Quo Vadis School Teaching
