At the Heart of the Liturgy Maxwell E. Johnson, Timothy O'Malley, Demetrio S. Yocum, 2014 From 1991 to 2012 Nathan D Mitchell was the author of the Amen Corner that appeared at the end of each issue of Worship Readers of Worship grew accustomed to Nathan's columns as invitations to rethink the practice of Christian worship through a liturgical theology that was interdisciplinary aesthetic and attentive to history With the soul of a poet Nathan was always on the lookout for the turn of phrase image stanza or metaphor from other classic wordsmiths that could capture the liturgical insight he wanted to explore For the first time this volume assembles some of the most important of these columns around the themes of body Word Spirit beauty justice and unity In addition Nathan's former students offer substantive commentary through essays that invite the reader to consider how the themes raised by Nathan might develop in the coming years This collection is a must read both for those who admired Nathan's contribution to liturgical studies and for a newer generation of scholars seeking to discern the frontiers of liturgical theology Nathan D Mitchell is an emeritus professor of liturgy in the Department of Theology at the University of Notre Dame In 1998 Mitchell was presented with the Berakah Award from the North American Academy of Liturgy for his contribution to the field His many publications include the following books Meeting Mystery Liturgy Worship Sacraments and The Mystery of the Rosary Marian Devotion and the Reinvention of Catholicism

A Living Sacrifice: Liturgy and Eschatology in Joseph Ratzinger Roland Millare, 2022-06-13 A Living Sacrifice focuses on the inherent relationship between eschatology and the liturgy in light of Ratzinger's insistence upon the primacy of logos over ethos When logos is subordinated to ethos the human person becomes subjected to a materialist ontology that leads to an ethos that is concerned above all by utility and progress which affects one's approach to understanding the liturgy and eschatology How a person celebrates the liturgy becomes subject to the individual whim of one person or a group of people Eschatology is reduced to addressing the temporal needs of a society guided by a narrow conception of hope or political theology If the human person wants to understand his authentic sacramental logos then he must first turn to Christ the incarnate Logos who reveals to him that he is created for a loving relationship with God and others The primacy of logos is the central hermeneutical key to understanding the unique vision of

Ratzinger's Christocentric liturgical theology and eschatology This is coupled with a study of Ratzinger's spiritual Christology with a focus on how it influences his theology of liturgy and eschatology through the notions of participation and communion in Christ's sacrificial love Finally A Living Sacrifice examines Ratzinger's theology of hope charity and beauty as well as his understanding of active participation in relationship to the eschatological and cosmic characteristics of the sacred liturgy
