The Routledge Companion to Criticality in Art, Architecture, and Design Chris Brishin, Myra Thiessen, 2018-10-03
The Routledge Companion to Criticality in Art Architecture and Design presents an in depth exploration of criticism and criticality in theory and practice across the disciplines of art architecture and design Professional criticism is a vital part of understanding the cultural significance of designed objects and environments that we engage with on a daily basis yet there is evidence to show that this practice is changing This edited volume investigates how practitioners researchers educators and professionals engage with think about and value the practice of critique With contributions from a multi disciplinary authorship from nine countries the UK USA Australia India Netherlands Switzerland South Africa Belgium and Denmark this companion provides a wide range of leading perspectives evaluating the landscape of criticality and how it is being shaped by technological and social advances Illustrated with over 60 black and white images and structured into five sections The Routledge Companion to Criticality in Art Architecture and Design is a comprehensive volume for researchers educators and students exploring the changing role of criticism through interdisciplinary perspectives Architecture as a Synthesis of the Arts Rudolf Steiner, 1999 8 lectures plus extracts and notes CW 286 This collection introduces Rudolf Steiner's vision of architecture as a culmination of the arts Such architecture unites sculpture painting and engraving as well as drama music and dance a vital synthesis of all the arts working in cooperation through the common ideal of awakening us to our individuality and task in life Unlike many of his contemporaries Steiner's ideas did not remain abstract Within his lifetime he was able to design and construct a number of buildings including his architectural masterpiece the Goetheanum a center for culture and arts near Basle Switzerland In these lectures Steiner describes with reference to the Goetheanum the importance of an architecturally coherent and integrated community and how this in turn affects social unity and harmony These lectures offer a panorama of the development of architecture in parallel with the emerging human soul in human evolution This is a valuable collection for all students of architecture the arts social science and those looking for a deeper spiritual understanding of the art of architecture Includes eight color plates and 30 black white illustrations CONTENTS Part One The Temple Is the Human Being An Art Architecture that Reveals the Underlying Wholeness of Creation The Task of Modern Art Architecture Proposals for the Architecture of a Model Anthroposophical Community at Dornach Part Two Ways to a New Style of Architecture True Artistic Creation Art As the Creation of Organs through which the Gods Speak to Us A New Concept of Architecture The Aesthetic Laws of Form The Creative World of Color Appendix The Evolution of Architecture at the Turn of Each New Millennium Notes Color Plates Architecture as a Synthesis of the Arts is a translation from German of Wege zu einem neuen Baustil Und der Bau wird Mensch Gordon Matta-Clark Stephen Walker, 2011-05-10 Known for and even overshadowed by his brutal and spectacular building cuts Gordon Matta Clark's oeuvre is unique in the history of American art He worked in the 1970s on the borders between art and architecture and his diverse practice is often understood as an outright rejection of the tenets of high modernism Stephen Walker argues instead for the artist's ambivalent relationship with the architectural heritage he is often claimed to disavow thus making this the first book to extrapolate Matta Clark's thinking beyond its immediate context Walker considers the broad range of Matta Clark's ephemeral practice from montage to actual interventions and from performance art and installation to drawing film and video Bringing to the fore the consistent themes and issues explored through this broad range of media and in particular the complex notion of the discreet violation he reveals the continued relevance of Matta Clark's artistic and theoretical oeuvre to the reception of artistic and architectural work today

Warped Space Anthony Vidler, 2002-02-22 How psychological ideas of space have profoundly affected architectural and artistic expression in the twentieth century Beginning with agoraphobia and claustrophobia in the late nineteenth century followed by shell shock and panic fear after World War I phobias and anxiety came to be seen as the mental condition of modern life They became incorporated into the media and arts in particular the spatial arts of architecture urbanism and film This spatial warping is now being reshaped by digitalization and virtual reality Anthony Vidler is concerned with two forms of warped space The first a psychological space is the repository of neuroses and phobias This space is not empty but full of disturbing forms including those of architecture and the city The second kind of warping is produced when artists break the boundaries of genre to depict space in new ways Vidler traces the emergence of a psychological idea of space from Pascal and Freud to the identification of agoraphobia and claustrophobia in the nineteenth century to twentieth century theories of spatial alienation and estrangement in the writings of Georg Simmel Siegfried Kracauer and Walter Benjamin Focusing on current conditions of displacement and placelessness he examines ways in which contemporary artists and architects have produced new forms of spatial warping The discussion ranges from theorists such as Jacques Lacan and Gilles Deleuze to artists such as Vito Acconci Mike Kelley Martha Rosler and Rachel Whiteread Finally Vidler looks at the architectural experiments of Frank Gehry Coop Himmelblau Daniel Libeskind Greg Lynn Morphosis and Eric Owen Moss in the light of new digital techniques that while relying on traditional perspective have radically transformed the composition production and experience perhaps even the subject itself of architecture

Islamic Art and Architecture Peter Osier,2017-07-15 The Islamic world has a rich artistic tradition with particular strengths in calligraphy illuminated manuscripts architecture and the decorative arts This reference traces the development of Islamic art and architecture from the Umayyad dynasty to the present day Readers will learn about the art of the Fatimids Seljuqs Mamluks Mongols Ottomans Safavids Mughals and more Eye catching photographs of gorgeous mosques delicate manuscript paintings and colorful ceramics give readers glimpses of the works being discussed A great resource both for those interested in art history and those hoping to learn more about the long rich history of Islamic culture Art and Architecture in the Islamic Tradition Mohammed Hamdouni Alami,2013-12-20 What is art in the sense of the Islamic tradition Mohammed Hamdouni Alami argues that Islamic art has historically been excluded from Western notions of art that the Western aesthetic tradition s preoccupation with the human body and the ban on the representation of the human body in Islam has meant that Islamic and Western art have been perceived as inherently at odds However the move away from this anthropomorphic aesthetic in Western art movements such as modern abstract and constructivist painting have presented the opportunity for new ways of viewing and evaluating Islamic art and architecture This book questions the very idea of art predicated on the anthropocentric bias of classical art and the corollary exclusion of Islamic art from the status of art It addresses a central question in post classical aesthetic theory in as much as the advent of modern abstract and constructivist painting have shown that art can be other than the representation of the human body that art is not neutral aesthetic contemplation but it is fraught with power and violence and that the presupposition of classical art was not a universal truth but the assumption of a specific cultural and historical set of practices and vocabularies Based on close readings of classical Islamic literature philosophy poetry medicine and theology along with contemporary Western art theory the author uncovers a specific Islamic theoretical vision of art and architecture based on poetic practice politics cosmology and desire In particular it traces the effects of decoration and architectural planning on the human soul as well as the centrality of the gaze in this poetic view in Arabic nazar while examining its surprising similarity to modern theories of the gaze Through this double gesture moving critically between two traditions the author brings Islamic thought and aesthetics back into the realm of visibility addressing the lack of recognition in comparison with other historical periods and traditions This is an important step toward a critical analysis of the contemporary debate around the revival of Islamic architectural identity a debate intricately embedded within opposing Islamic political and social projects throughout the world An Elementary History of Art N.
