Architecture in the Poetry of Robert Browning Charles Flint Thomas,1996 Art & Architecture in the Poetry of Robert Browning. Volume I: Compendium , Robert Browning Boyd Litzinger,Donald Smalley,2005-07-28 The Critical Heritage gathers together a large body of critical sources on major figures in literature Each volume presents contemporary responses to a writer's work enabling students and researchers to read for themselves for example comments on early performances of Shakespeare's plays or reactions to the first publication of Jane Austen's novels The carefully selected sources range from landmark essays in the history of criticism to journalism and contemporary opinion and little published documentary material such as letters and diaries Significant pieces of criticism from later periods are also included in order to demonstrate the fluctuations in an author's reputation Each volume contains an introduction to the writer's published works a selected bibliography and an index of works authors and subjects The Collected Critical Heritage set will be available as a set of 68 volumes and the series will also be available in mini sets selected by period in slipcase boxes and as individual volumes

The Poems of Browning: Volume Three John Woolford,Daniel Karlin,Joseph Phelan,2014-04-08 The Poems of Browning is a multi volume edition of the poetry of Robert Browning 1812-1889 resulting from a completely fresh appraisal of the canon text and context of his work The poems are presented in the order of their composition and in the text in which they were first published giving a unique insight into the origins and development of Browning's art Annotations and headnotes in keeping with the traditions of Longman Annotated English Poets are full and informative and provide details of composition publication sources and contemporary reception Volumes one 1826-1840 and two 1841-1846 presented the poems from his early years up to his marriage to Elizabeth Barrett including the dramatic poem Paracelsus 1835 which first brought him to wide attention and Sordello 1840 which confirmed him as a poet of ambition and imagination Volume three 1847-1861 of The Poems of Browning covers the years of Browning's life in Italy with his wife Elizabeth Barrett Browning During the fifteen years of his marriage and self-imposed exile Browning produced Christmas Eve and Easter Day 1850 a major statement of his religious philosophy and Men and Women 1855 his greatest collection of shorter poems The poems of Men and Women like all Browning's work are steeped in his wide and idiosyncratic knowledge of literature music art history and popular culture but a new and distinctive touch comes from the sights sounds and textures of ordinary life in Italy Based on a comprehensive study of textual and contextual sources including a significant amount of hitherto undiscovered or unpublished manuscripts of poems and letters this volume offers the most complete and informative edition of works that are central to Browning's achievement In addition Browning's most important work of critical prose the Essay on Shelley is presented in an appendix with full annotation and poems which refer to specific works of painting or sculpture are illustrated with colour plates Volumes four presents the poetry Browning produced during the decade following the death of his wife including Dramatis Personae which heralded a re-evaluation of his critical reputation and The Ring and the Book which many consider to be his greatest work The Poems of Browning represents the most informative and up to date edition of the works of one of England's greatest poets Art & Architecture in the Poetry of Robert Browning: Volume III. , Dictionary Catalog of the Art and Architecture Division New York Public Library. and objects that include class and capitalism the occult and the sacraments Darwinism and dandyism umbrellas textiles the Philosopher's Stone and even the household nail Art & Architecture in the Poetry of Robert Browning. Volume II. ,

Germain Boffrand Caroline van Eck,2017-10-03 This title was first published in 2003 Germain Boffrand was one of the great French architects of the early eighteenth century His work encompassed not only the design of town and country houses for the wealthy but also mines bridges and hospitals His Livre d'Architecture is one of the most original books on architecture ever written in France Taking the Art of Poetry by the Latin poet Horace as its starting point it developed an aesthetic of architecture focused on character style and the emotional impact of a building that influenced Blondel Le Camus de Mezieres and Soane and is still central to contemporary debate about the nature and meaning of architecture Translated for the first time by David Britt Boffrand's text is here accompanied by an extensive introduction and notes by Caroline van Eck who situates Boffrand within the main issues of eighteenth century architectural aesthetics Beautifully illustrated including all the pictures chosen by Boffrand for his original publication this book is an invaluable tool for teaching the history of architectural theory and an essential work for any architectural library Germain Boffrand is published with the assistance of the Getty Foundation Building ,1890 The Gothic Revival and American Church Architecture

Phoebe B. Stanton,1997-05-28 This illustrated account of the impact of the English Gothic revival on American church architecture in the mid nineteenth century finds that this fundamentally conservative movement provided the foundation for a new influential aesthetic With meticulous research and carefully chosen illustrations Phoebe Stanton here explores the influence of the English Gothic revival on American church architecture in the mid nineteenth century arguing that this fundamentally conservative movement provided a foundation for a new aesthetic Examining the writings of the movement's leading proponents as well as a variety of important buildings Stanton offers a comprehensive survey of the architectural principles and models that became most influential in America She also confirms the importance of the Cambridge Camden Society which provided the theoretical atmosphere and practical examples that helped to establish new standards of excellence in American architecture The Cambridge Companion to Rudyard Kipling Howard J. Booth,2011-09 An overview of Kipling's work his career and postcolonial views on his often controversial position on imperialism Werner's Magazine ,1899 Realism, Representation, and the Arts in Nineteenth-Century Literature Alison Byerly,1997 This book confronts a significant paradox in the development of literary realism the very novels that present themselves as purveyors and celebrants of direct ordinary human experience also manifest an obsession with art that threatens to sabotage their Realist claims Unlike previous studies of the role of visual art or music or theatre in Victorian literature Realism Representation and the Arts in Nineteenth Century Literature examines the juxtaposition of all of these arts in the works of Charlotte Bront William Thackeray George Eliot Thomas Hardy and others Alison Byerly combines close textual analysis with discussion of relevant ancillary topics to illuminate the place of different arts within nineteenth century British culture Her book which also contains sixteen illustrations represents an effort to bridge the growing gap between aesthetics and cultural studies The Magazine of Art Marion Harry Spielmann, 1890
