Art BC Ian M. Thom, 2000 Art BC presents in full colour 100 outstanding works by 84 of British Columbia's foremost artists. Finally we have the much needed history of the visual arts in British Columbia one that also properly integrates our great heritage of First Nations art into the mainstream. In the introduction Ian M. Thom outlines the art history of the province over the past century. He also writes clearly and thoughtfully about each work individually setting it in context to reflect the times in which it was made describing the artist's achievements and placing the artist and the work into the art history of British Columbia. Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975 Robert Youds Robert

Youds, Barry Schwabsky, Lisa Baldissera, Karin Davie, Saul Ostrow, 2007 This is the first solo exhibition for local artist Robert Youds to be presented at the Art Gallery in over a decade. Driven by a fascination with systems of perception space colour light representation and abstraction Youds has explored a multitude of forms of practice over the years which predominately revolve around discourses on painting sculpture and perception. The exhibition will present works from the past 10 years of his production and include a new site specific installation drawing on the explorations of recent light works. Recognizing that painting has been largely governed by a history of the depiction of natural light I grew fascinated by the subject of the artificial field by which we live day to day says Youds. By the mid 1990s Youds became more and more interested in the physical space in which painting and objects within a room were surrounded. Space abstraction perception light and the beholder are the key ingredients to my meditations on the world. How Canadians Communicate IV David

Taras, Christopher Robb Waddell, 2012 Substantial changes have occurred in the nature of political discourse over the past thirty years. Once traditional media dominated the political landscape but in recent years Facebook Twitter blogs and Blackberrys have emerged as important tools and platforms for political campaigns. While the Canadian party system has proved surprisingly resilient the rhythms of political life are now very different. A never ending 24 hour news cycle has resulted in a never ending political campaign. The implications of this new political style and its impact on political discourse are issues vigorously debated in this new volume of How Canadians Communicate IV as is the question on every politician's mind. How can we draw a generation of digital natives into the current political dialogue. With contributions from such diverse figures as Elly Alboim Richard Davis Tom Flanagan David Marshall and Roger Epp How Canadians Communicate IV is the most comprehensive review of political communication in Canada in over three decades one that poses questions fundamental to the quality of public life. Independent Spirit A. K. Prakash, 2008 Presents an introduction to a variety of Canadian women artists from the 1800s to the present day. Art Et Architecture Au Canada Loren Ruth Lerner, Mary F. Williamson, 1991-01-01 Identifies and summarizes thousands of books article exhibition catalogues government publications and theses published in many countries and in several languages from the early nineteenth century to 1981.

Masterworks from the Audain Art Museum, Whistler Ian Thom, 2016-04-12 A unique collection spanning two hundred years of British Columbia's remarkable visual art. Art is a window into culture and history and there is no collection that portrays the astonishing breadth of British Columbia's art from the early nineteenth century to the present as superbly as the one at the Audain Art Museum in Whistler. This beautiful book brings together in a single volume many highlights from the museum's permanent galleries. Among the early works are exquisitely produced First Nations masks, many of them repatriated to British Columbia from collections around the world. Also of significant interest are a wide selection of works by Emily Carr and E. J. Hughes that span their entire careers as well as some of the most vivid depictions of the regional landscape by Frederick Varley and William Weston. Stunning examples of modernism by Lawren Harris and B. C. Binning presage images by innovative practitioners such as Jack Shadbolt, Toni Onley, Gordon Smith and Claude Breeze. And most familiar to contemporary audiences are innovative works by photo-conceptual artists such as Jeff Wall, Rodney Graham, Ken Lum and Stephen Waddell and career-defining contemporary art by First Nations artists such as Bill Reid, Robert Davidson, Beau Dick, Brian Jungen, Sonny Assu and Marianne Nicolson. Interviews with John and Patricia Patkau, the award-winning architects of the building and art collector and philanthropist Michael Audain, set the works in context. This is the definitive guide not only to the museum but to the history of art in British Columbia.

The Surface of Meaning Robert Bringhurst, 2008. The design and manufacture of books can tell as much about a people or a culture as the ambience of its streets and the architecture of its buildings. In our everyday lives books surround us even if we are among the many who never read another one after high school. Their very jacket design asks us to make meaning of their presence and when we open them the layout of words and stories within their covers makes us readers even before we begin to read. To Robert Bringhurst, typographer, poet and writer, the presence of books and the story of books in Canada are preludes to understanding our culture. From the tattered book of Canadian poetry your moody cousin carried everywhere to the pristine hardcover book of Atwood's latest work in your brainy co-worker's hands, book design says much about who and where we are as Canadians. In The Surface of Meaning Robert Bringhurst takes us on another of his walking tours, this time through the bramble of English and French Canadian books and book design from the mid 18th Century to the present day. Along the way he discovers a true image trove of identity, culture and history. And he does what no other work on books and publications does. He creates a truly national survey of Canadian books by bringing Canada's long history of Aboriginal story telling into a context of book. It is a context that goes into the depths of our prehistory far beyond the printed page. The Surface of Meaning is a tribute to Canadian books and publishing. It is irresistible to readers who love books as well as to designers and others who may simply prefer to look at them.
