Art And Architecture In Italy 1250 1400 Third Edition:

Art and Architecture in Italy 1250-1400 John White, John Reeves White, 1993-01-01 The 14th century in Italian art is a very rich one and Professor White's book gives architecture equal weight with painting and sculpture The story of the Gothic style and the prehistory of the Renaissance is given all the facts are related but also the works of art are described with insight and for their own sakes and not simply as data for fitting into schemes and theories Among the great names are those of Arnolfo di Cambio the Pisani Cavallini Cimabue Duccio Giotto Simone Martini and the Lorenzetti among the buildings S Croce S Maria Novella the cathedral and the Palazzo Vecchio in Florence and the cathedrals of Siena Orvieto and Milan as well as churches castles and civic buildings from the Val d Aosta to Sicily The third edition of this work includes colour illustrations and incorporates textual revisions and an updated bibliography

Later Medieval Europe Daniel Waley, Peter Denley, 2013-11-26 From the divine right of kings to the political philosophies of writers such as Machiavelli the medieval city states to the unification of Spain Daniel Waley and Peter Denley focus on the growing power of the state to illuminate changing political ideas in Europe between the thirteenth and sixteenth centuries Spanning the entire continent and beyond and using contemporary voices wherever possible the authors include substantial sections on economics religion and art and how developments in these areas fed into and were influenced by the transformation of political thinking The new edition takes the narrative beyond the confines of western Europe with chapters on East Central Europe and the teutonic knights and the Portuguese expansion across the Atlantic The third edition of this classic introduction to the period includes even greater use of contemporary voices full reading lists and new chapters on East Central Europe and Portuguese exploration Suitable as an introductory text for undergraduate courses in Medieval Studies and Medieval European History

The Beauty of Holiness Brian Leslie Bishop, 2020-01-07 In this book Brian Bishop simply pauses to look at fifty seven beautiful images that feature the life and death of Jesus and the supper at which he appeared three days after his burial to two broken hearted disciples He finds the visual approach to the gospel stories rewarding and attempts to place the paintings in some historical context as an aid to understanding but essentially offers pauses for thought and reflection upon world changing events The book may be dipped into as time and interest allows The beautifully produced color images of wonderful works of art provide constant companionship

Painting in Late Medieval and Renaissance Siena, 1260-1555 Diana Norman, 2003-01-01 The city of Siena one of Italy's major artistic centers was home to many celebrated painters among them Duccio Simone Martini Ambrogio and Pietro Lorenzetti Sassetta and Beccafumi This generously illustrated book provides a survey of Sienese painting from 1260 to 1555 an era of extraordinary artistic creativity in the Tuscan city Art historian Diana Norman addresses the style and artistic technique of Sienese painters throughout the three centuries and explores why paintings were made where they were originally seen and how they were used and enjoyed by their audiences The book focuses on works of art made for Siena itself many of which are still to be seen within the city Norman organizes the discussion around types of commissions and throughout the book situates the paintings within the context of the political social and religious circumstances of late medieval and renaissance Siena Muqarnas, Volume 27 Gülru
