Books in Print Supplement, 1994      Indian Arrivals, 1870-1915 Elleke Boehmer, 2015 Indian Arrivals 1870 1915 Networks of British Empire examines how at the height of empire Britain was threaded through with Indian influences and ideas in spite of colonial divisions Throughout the study is motivated by the notion that Indian travellers learned from the friendships they made in the west but also that they contributed to the development of a late Victorian cosmopolitanism of which they were an intrinsic part Tracing the intricate encounters that took place between arriving Indians and their British hosts often through the medium of literature and journalism the book paints a more textured picture than has been available to date of cross cultural contact between Indians and Britons and in so doing explores the myriad ways in which the centre of the nineteenth century imperial world was criss crossed by its margins just as the margins were by the centre Indian Arrivals offers a sustained reflection on what it is to arrive in another culture in all senses of the word      The High Performance Organization Linda Holbeche, 2012-05-04 Increased global competition aided and abetted by technology has meant that organizations in every sector are having to compete on the basis of speed cost quality innovation flexibility and customer responsiveness If organizations wish to be able to compete successfully in the global marketplace they need to develop innovative products and services quickly and cost effectively The High Performance Organization provides invaluable information and practical tools for people engaged in leading organizational change efforts as an executive line manager HR practitioner or change agent This practical text is grounded in organizational reality as well as having a sound theoretical setting Illustrative case studies have been drawn from consultancy practice and a wide range of current research      Novel Subjects Leah A. Milne, 2021-07-01 How does contemporary literature contend with the power and responsibility of authorship particularly when considering marginalized groups How have the works of multiethnic authors challenged the notion that writing and authorship are neutral or universal In Novel Subjects Leah Milne offers a new way to look at multicultural literature by focusing on scenes of writing in contemporary works by authors with marginalized identities These scenes she argues establish authorship as a form of radical self care a term we owe to Audre Lorde who defines self care as self preservation and an act of political warfare In engaging in this battle the works discussed in this study confront limitations on ethnicity and nationality wrought by the institutionalization of multiculturalism They also focus on identities whose mere presence on the cultural landscape is often perceived as vindictive or willful Analyzing recent texts by Carmen Maria Machado Louise Erdrich Ruth Ozeki Toni Morrison and more Milne connects works across cultures and nationalities in search of reasons for this recent trend of depicting writers as characters in multicultural texts Her exploration uncovers fiction that embrace unacceptable or marginalized modes of storytelling such as plagiarism historical revisions jokes and lies as well as inauthentic invisible and unexceptional subjects These works ultimately reveal a shared goal of expanding the borders of belonging in ethnic and cultural groups and thus add to the ever evolving conversations surrounding both multicultural literature and self care
