Art Course Step-by-step Ian Sidaway,2003      Art Course Step-by-step Ian Sidaway,2003      Introducing ASL-English Educational Interpreting Stephen Fitzmaurice,Deborah Cates,2025-11-14 This textbook offers a clear and accessible introduction to educational interpreting focusing on the unique demands of working with deaf students in public school settings Most interpreters begin their careers in these environments often without specific preparation for the developmental and educational needs of deaf children The book explores the structure of school interpreting the roles of key stakeholders and the language and literacy development of deaf learners It also examines interpreter responsibilities practical strategies and the day to day logistics of classroom work With guidance on interpreter assessment tools for collaboration with teachers and tips for creating inclusive classrooms this is an essential resource for students in interpreting and related programs as well as educators and practitioners seeking to support deaf students more effectively      The Art of Teaching Art Deborah A. Rockman,2000-11-09 Often the finest artists do not make the best teachers Many frustrated college students of art know this all too well as they suffer through unstructured classes with inexperienced teachers or graduate student instructors In these situations it is easy to blame the teachers But the problem is largely institutional most students graduating with MFAs from art schools receive little if any instruction in teaching art If you find yourself in this predicament as teacher or student this book is for you The first book to provide a comprehensive guide for teaching college level art The Art of Teaching Art is the culmination of respected artist and instructor Deborah Rockman s two decades of teaching experience Believing that drawing is the backbone of all of the visual arts she begins with a complete explanation of drawing concepts that apply to any subject matter e g composition sighting processes scaling techniques and methods for linear and tonal development She then illustrates these concepts with step by step methods that easily translate to classroom exercises Next she applies the drawing principles to every artist s most important and challenging subject the human figure After an extended section on understanding and teaching perspective that explores illusionistic form and space the focus of the book shifts to the studio classroom itself and the essential elements that go into making an effective learning environment and curriculum From preparing materials lists and syllabi to setting up still lifes handling difficult classroom situations critiquing and grading student artworks and shooting slides of student artworks she leaves no stone unturned      Teaching and Learning the Arts in Higher Education with Technology Joyce Hwee Ling Koh,Rebecca Yen Pei Kan,2021-12-02 This book is an inquiry about the possibilities of using technology to support the education of artists within higher education contexts Even though technology enhanced learning and teaching may seem incongruent with the long established studio based cultures of making and performing it is increasingly becoming a pivotal point to connect artistes to potential audience and markets Amidst the COVID 19 pandemic technology is also the crucial linchpin for educational continuity of student artists This book explores how technology could enhance the education of artists and designers as they continue to create make and add value to life and society through their artistry It draws upon the experiences of the Nanyang Academy of Fine Arts NAFA a pioneering arts institution in Singapore with over 80 years of institutional history Through 9 vignettes this book illustrates technology enhanced pedagogical practices that have been implemented in different artistic learning spaces including classroom studio and stage as well as institutional support strategies With a naturalistic stance these chapters seek to illuminate realistic pictures of teaching and learning that are being uncovered by artist educators as they sought to integrate technology within teaching practices using available technologies and within the classes that they are teaching It is hoped that this book will stimulate conversation among artist educators about possible pedagogical models as well as inform higher arts institutions about the contextual strategies needed to support the creation of technology enhanced pedagogical practices
