Handbook of Research Methods for Tourism and Hospitality Management

Robin Nunkoo, 2018-07-27 As research in tourism and hospitality reaches maturity a growing number of methodological approaches are being utilized and in addition this knowledge is dispersed across a wide range of journals Consequently there is a broad and multidisciplinary community of tourism and hospitality researchers whom at present need to look widely for support on methods In this volume researchers fulfil a pressing need by clearly presenting methodological issues within tourism and hospitality research alongside particular methods and share their experiences of what works what does not work and where challenges and innovations lie The Realities of Money and Missions Jonathan J. Bonk, Michel G. Distefano, J.

Nelson Jennings, Jinbong Kim, Jae Hoon Lee, 2022-03-21 Integrity Viability and Accountability Perhaps there is no greater challenge in missions than money Paul reminds us For we are taking pains to do what is right not only in the eyes of the Lord but also in the eyes of man 2 Cor 8 21 Money sufficient to assure the viability of one's life work carries with it an insidious ethical virus that can easily infect the integrity and accountability of its stewards The Realities of Money Missions provides a unique level of credibility and transparency as it calls for evangelicals to reevaluate their relationship with money both personally and corporately Global case studies workshops and testimonials cover a broad range of topics such as Misalignment between fiscal theology and practice Environmental stewardship community development and business as mission Mobilization fundraising practices and faith financing Short term missions patronage and dependency Power dynamics and structural injustice The Realities of Money Missions was not written by experts in the fields of investment money management or fundraising but by men and women whose calling as missionaries pastors and administrators has brought them face to face with the complex real life issues involving the intersection of money and ministry Read on and be challenged to change

Approaches to Qualitative Research in Mathematics Education

Angelika Bikner-Ahsbahr, Christine Knipping, Norma Presmeg, 2014-11-26 This volume documents a range of qualitative research approaches emerged within mathematics education over the last three decades whilst at the same time revealing their underlying methodologies Continuing the discussion as begun in the two 2003 ZDM issues dedicated to qualitative empirical methods this book presents a state of the art overview on qualitative research in mathematics education and beyond The structure of the book allows the reader to use it as an actual guide for the selection of an appropriate methodology on a basis of both theoretical depth and practical implications The methods and examples illustrate how different methodologies come to life when applied to a specific question in a specific context Many of the methodologies described are also applicable outside mathematics education but the examples provided are chosen so as to situate the approach in a mathematical context
