Basics Of International Humanitarian Missions:

Basics of International Humanitarian Missions Kevin M. Cahill, 2003 Includes statistics Journal of Special Operations Medicine, 2003 International Humanitarian Assistance P Macalister-Smith, 1985-03 The Fundamentals of International Human Rights Treaty Law Bertrand G. Ramcharan, 2011-02-14 This book has a simple objective to present the fundamentals of international human rights treaty law in a way that can be helpful to the national leader official or legal adviser whose duty it is to help put a human rights treaty regime into the law and practice in his or her country It is a book of international law as provided for in the principal international and regional human rights treaties and draws upon the jurisprudence and practice of their monitoring organs Chapter I discusses the nature and characteristics of international human rights law Chapter II discusses the concept of a national protection system which must be in place if a human rights treaty is to be adequately implemented Chapter III discusses the jurisprudence and practice of treaty bodies on the foundation issues of democracy and the rule of law Chapter IV discusses human rights in times of crises and emergencies Chapter V discusses preventive strategies Chapter VI discusses the duty of Governments to respect to protect and to ensure human rights Chapter VII discusses the duty of Governments to provide redress for violations that might take place Chapter VIII discusses the essence of supervision in reporting systems Chapter IX discusses the essence of petitions and fact finding procedures Chapter X concludes with a discussion of the bedrock principles of universality equality and justice as they emerge from the jurisprudence and practice of human rights treaty bodies Basic Facts about the United Nations Barry Leonard, 1999-04 An overview of the broad range of responsibilities operations economic human rights humanitarian assistance decolonization international law intergovernmental agencies related to the U N List of acronyms Education, Conflict and Development Julia Paulson, 2011-05-16 Under various names education and conflict education and fragility education and insecurity etc the understanding of linkages between education and violent conflict has emerged as an important and pressing area of inquiry Work and research by practitioners and scholars has clearly pointed to the negative potential of education to contribute to and entrench violent conflict This work has highlighted the struggle for education during and following periods of instability and demonstrated the degree to which communities affected by conflict prioritize educational opportunities It has also offered powerful normative arguments for the importance of quality education for peacebuilding reconciliation postconflict reconstruction and development In many instances however these important insights are derived less from rigorous research and scholarship in the social sciences than from the delivery and evaluation of educational programming in situations affected by conflict This volume therefore seeks to broaden enquiry into education and conflict by exploring through conceptual and empirical work its linkages to broader theories and practices of development and peacebuilding The volume begins with a conceptual and theoretical section followed by a series of international case studies before closing with three chapters focused on the case of Northern Uganda Contributors present a diverse set of studies that together deepen understandings of the ways the education functions in various situations affected by conflict and the ways in which it might best be mobilized to contribute towards peacebuilding and development

Basic Human Rights and the Humanitarian Crises in Sub-Saharan Africa Gabriel Andrew Msoka, 2007-04-15 For decades post independence Africa has been marked by conflicts violence and civil wars leading to a displacement of civilian populations and numerous humanitarian crises For example the Somali war the 1994 Rwandan genocide and the Darfur conflict in Western Sudan illustrate this phenomenon In these situations protecting the basic human rights of security subsistence the liberties of social participation and the physical movement of refugees and internally displaced persons IDPs particularly women children and young people has been seen as inadequate This book offers the following a systematic presentation of the nature and scope of the crises an evaluative description of the achievements and failures of governments organizations and the international community in responding to the crises a critical analysis of the rationale for such an inadequate response and a philosophical and theological study of basic human rights that seeks to redress these failures by envisioning an appropriate response and a lasting solution to the conflicts displacement and humanitarian crises in Sub Saharan Africa
