Issues of Arms Control Law and the Chemical Weapons Convention Eric P.J. Myjer, 2021-10-25 The entry into force in 1997 of the Chemical Weapons Convention CWC symbolizes the coming of age of the law of arms control as a separate area of international law It is not only the first treaty whereby a whole category of weapons of mass destruction viz chemical weapons is completely banned but it also puts into place a comprehensive compliance control system For this purpose a specialized international organisation has been created with as its sole purpose the supervision of the commitments under this arms control treaty the Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons OPCW based in The Hague Supervision under this Convention is an example of compliance management which is cooperative rather than adversarial in character in spite of the elaborate and intrusive inspection regime concerning not only the military component but also the civilian chemical industries worldwide Thereby not only States Parties military security concerns are taken care of but also the concerns of the chemical industries with regard to the protection of confidential business information In general this volume aims to provide a better understanding of some of the special characteristics of arms control law One part of this volume highlights the unique characteristics of the compliance control model by providing a detailed analysis of the CWC the OPCW and of the specific supervisory functions The obligations of the signatories to the CWC are discussed in the other part Although an important topic of general international law clarity as to the obligations of Signatory States appears to be of special importance in the case of arms control treaties for given their security interests it is crucial for States that at a minimum a status quo between all the signatories is maintained The main contributions are complemented by shorter comments on various aspects of the topics dealt with The articles are all written by specialists in the field academic and practitioners making this book a valuable source for academics diplomats international civil servants and practitioners involved in the work of the OPCW arms control law or general international law

Justice and Fairness in International Negotiation Cecilia Albin, 2001-03-15 International negotiations have become an increasingly widespread feature of international affairs as the number of parties involved have grown and regional and global fora have multiplied Cecilia Albin examines the role of considerations of justice and fairness in these negotiations She argues that negotiators do not simply pursue their narrow interests or those of their countries but regularly take principles of justice and fairness into account These principles come into play at an early stage as talks are structured and agendas set in the bargaining process itself and in the implementation of and compliance with agreements The analysis is based on cases in four important areas the environment international trade ethnic conflict the Israeli Palestinian conflict and arms control Drawing on a mass of empirical data including a large number of interviews this book relates the abstract debate over international norms and ethics to the realities of international relations Arms Control Jozef Goldblat, 2002-09-24 A unique and indispensable work that serves both as a basic introduction to the disarmament scene and a reference book for experts Disarmament Times This compendium of the history and achievements of arms control and disarmament efforts is unique in its kind and is likely to remain so This for three reasons first because of its unparalleled comprehensiveness second because of the outstanding quality of its presentation and third because of its author Jozef Goldblat one of the world's leading experts in the field This triad makes the updated Second Edition of Arms Control The New Guide to Negotiations and Agreements a must for all concerned with international security in general and arms control in particular Curt Gasteyger Graduate Institute of International Studies Geneva The thesaurus of arms regulation and disarmament a precious tool for negotiators and treaty makers Ambassador V Petrovsky Former Secretary General of the Conference on Disarmament Being the most comprehensive and authoritative compilation and analysis of arms control agreements available this is an indispensable reference volume for students and practitioners of arms control and international security The author has spent a lifetime in the study and practice of international security affairs where international law and arms control agreements are concerned there is no one better qualified than him Sverre Lodgaard Norwegian Institute of International Affairs Oslo The revised and updated edition of Arms Control The New Guide to Negotiations and Agreements contains the most authoritative and comprehensive survey ever published of the documents related to arms control All major agreements reached since the second half of the nineteenth century through to mid 2002 are critically analysed and assessed The assessment is made in the light of the international security environment the developments in the field of weapon technology the threat of nuclear chemical and biological weapons proliferation and the efforts to strengthen the humanitarian law of armed conflict The accompanying CD ROM reproduces full text and carefully selected excerpts of treaties conventions common understandings statutes charters binding decisions of international bodies final acts of international conferences exchanges of letters and diplomatic notes Multilateral agreements are followed by a list of parties Enriched with new maps tables and figures as well as an expanded glossary and bibliography the book will remain the definitive resource for students of international relations journalists diplomats and military strategists Jozef Goldblat the author is Vice President of the Geneva International Peace
