J. McCormack,2015 This the first ever biography of John Hewitt is based on archival material both personal and literary In many ways it is also a biography of his wife Roberta nee Black whose manuscript journal is also in the public domain To establish Hewitt s late arrival as a poet the book opens with a chapter recounting his negotiations with a London publisher over a long period and the eventual appearance of No Rebel Word 1949 Successive chapters trace his education courtship literary apprenticeship first employment as a junior gallery curator in Belfast the political conflicts of the 1930s and then the War Years his rejection for the post of director in Belfast s Civic Museum and Gallery and his utopian commitment to regionalism Appointment to the Herbert Gallery in Coventry in 1956 brought recognition and confidence His leanings towards socialist realism came to accommodate abstract art and he defended the sculptor Barbara Hepworth against the penny pinching ratepayers Throughout this two part career Hewitt maintained his output as poet culminating in the Collected Poems 1968 His Irish political commitments never wavered though he became cautious about forms of nationalism which proclaimed themselves left wing Roberta Hewitt s work for the Coventry Labor Party provided an outlet for her energies and her domestic frustrations Throughout these forty years the poetry is kept constantly in view sometime by reference to individual pieces and their origins and some by means of longer breaks for text where more detailed criticism is practised In 1972 the Hewitts returned to Belfast when the Troubles reached an ugly peak Committed to anti sectarianism Hewitt withheld support from all parties though he took an interest in trade union activity Publishing perhaps too much poetry in his last decade and a half he died very much in harness

Negotiations: Poems in their Contexts Neil Corcoran, 2023-04-01 This book by the eminent poetry critic Neil Corcoran examines the ways in which the work of significant modern Irish British and American poets interacts with or negotiates different contexts historical social political artistic and aesthetic In Part 1 important work by David Jones Robert Graves Seamus Heaney and Bob Dylan is shown to negotiate poetic methods both traditional and modernist and also the work of major earlier writers to produce strikingly original new forms and Derek Mahon s prose is read in the light of these concerns The books shows how by negotiating in this way their work engages profoundly with complex and sometimes terrible histories including the First World War and the Northern Irish Troubles Part 2 discusses the ways in which ekphrastic work poems which engage with visual art by Elizabeth Bishop W S Graham John Ashbery Sylvia Plath and Ciaran Carson negotiates comparable poetic and historical inheritances while also inventively responding to work by significant artists notably Parmigianino Poussin de Chirico Klee and members of the St Ives School The book is a signal contribution to current critical debates about these poets situating them in original or newly clarified contexts and it offers exemplary close readings of noteworthy poems
