Finlayson,2013-10-03 The leader of one of the most successful U S Marine long range reconnaissance teams during the Vietnam War Andrew Finlayson recounts his team s experiences in the year leading up to the Tet Offensive of 1968 Using primary sources such as Marine Corps unit histories and his own weekly letters home he presents a highly personal account of the dangerous missions conducted by this team of young Marines as they searched for North Vietnamese Army and Viet Cong units in such dangerous locales as Elephant Valley the Enchanted Forest Charlie Ridge Happy Valley and the Que Son Mountains In numerous close contacts with the enemy the team code name Killer Kane fights for its survival against desperate odds narrowly escaping death time and again The book gives vivid descriptions of the life of recon Marines when they are not on patrol the beauty of the landscape they traverse and several of the author s Vietnamese friends It also explains in detail the preparations for and the conduct of a successful long range reconnaissance patrol The Capital of Basketball John McNamara,Andrea Chamblee,David Elfin,2019 Washington DC isn t celebrated for basketball But the Washington area stands second to none in its contributions to the game Countless figures who have had a significant impact on the sport over the years have roots in the region including E B Henderson the first African American certified to teach physical education in public schools in the United States and Earl Lloyd the first African American to take the court in an actual NBA game The District of Columbia s Spingarn High School produced two players Elgin Baylor and Dave Bing that are recognized among the NBA s 50 greatest at the League s 50th anniversary celebration No other high school in the country can make that claim These figures and many others who have been a part of Washington s basketball past are chronicled in this book the first ever comprehensive look at the great high school players teams and accomplishments in the DC metropolitan area Based on more than 150 interviews The Capital of Basketball is first and foremost a book about basketball But in discussing the trends and evolution of the game the books also uncovers the turmoil in the lives of the players and area residents as they dealt with issues such as prejudice education politics and the ways the area has changed through the years How to Play and Teach Basketball Franklin

Alfred Lindeburg,1967 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001 Rehearsing for Doomsday Scott Cook,2021-10-20 In 1988 Scott Cook was a boarding school PE teacher responsible for the proper inflation of dodge balls A year later he was operating an underground strategic missile control center with 10 intercontinental nuclear weapons capable of obliterating an entire country This unexpected journey took him from the serene hills of Virginia through months of intensive training on the California coast to the front lines of the Cold War beneath the frozen plains of North Dakota His frank entertaining memoir describes the insular and secretive military subculture of men and women who lived with the sobering burden of potentially unleashing global devastation and how an easy going gym coach ended up in an organization whose unofficial motto was To err is human to forgive is not Strategic Air Command policy Introduction to Kinesiology Duane V. Knudson,Timothy A. Brusseau,2021-10-26 Introduction to Kinesiology Studying Physical Activity Sixth Edition With HKPropel Access gives students a complete overview of the field of kinesiology and explores the common career paths questions and ideas that are part of this dynamic and expanding discipline Sports Coaching John Lyle,Chris Cushion,2010-06-29 Sports Coaching Professionalisation and Practice is a comprehensive evidence based textbook of sports coaching theory and practice The book is edited by leading academics in sports coaching studies and authored by a world renowned team of experts in sports coaching research It deals with all aspects of coaching behaviour and practice including coaches decision making coaching pedagogy and the development of expertise Each of the chapters provides an up to date position statement on coaching themes and makes explicit reference to the professionalisation of coaching Written in an accessible style and identifying critical ideas and issues the book will complement and challenge both undergraduate and postgraduate teaching programmes and will be an invaluable source of ideas for researchers and academics Multicontributed chapters follow uniform structure to increase clarity and accessibility of text Snapshots of critical ideas and issues presented as models or diagrams to facilitate students understanding Case examples and scenarios illustrate key concepts in each chapter Latest research and current literature summarised for each thematic topic Amateur Sports Act United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation,1978 The Last One Out of Town Turn Out the Lights David Albee,2025-02-18 The Last One Out Of Town Turn Out The Lights tells the inspiring untold story of how a soul crushing school district consolidation changes the fate and fortunes of two rural Maine high schools That controversial school merger allows Foxcroft Academy to finally establish a winning basketball team and claim its one and only Gold Ball the trophy of the Maine High School Basketball Championship Bitter feelings and personal struggles are revealed as are stories of admiration and light hearted moments Through a turbulent time in America this book examines the impact of a winning high school basketball team on two rival schools and their towns The book marks the 50th anniversary season of Foxcroft Academy s lone state basketball championship in the school s 200 year history It weaves unpopular decisions to cut popular players from the team fights with hated rivals and a phantom foul that should never have been called and that lead to the kind of championship season that all small towns coaches players and fans across the country covet embrace and treasure for a lifetime

Library of Congress Catalog: Motion Pictures and Filmstrips Library of Congress,1968 Home Town Memories of Grinnell, Iowa Dave Adkins,2012-08 I attended my 55th high school reunion in July of 2012 and was inspired to write Home Town Memories of Grinnell Iowa This work is not intended to be an all inclusive comprehensive scholarly history with a preoccupation for exact dates etc It is simply a personal history my recollections of the old home town during a limited period in the town s history the 40 s 50 s and 60 s I have written in my own way using a flow of words that came to me as I wrote In a town of 8 000 9 000 as Grinnell was in those days you eventually get to know and have some contact along the way with most people My intent was to communicate in simple straight forward terms and was not concerned about presenting it as a triumph in English language grammar
