Proofs and Ideas B. Sethuraman, 2021-12-02 Proofs and Ideas serves as a gentle introduction to advanced mathematics for students who previously have not had extensive exposure to proofs. It is intended to ease the student's transition from algorithmic mathematics to the world of mathematics that is built around proofs and concepts. The spirit of the book is that the basic tools of abstract mathematics are best developed in context and that creativity and imagination are at the core of mathematics. So while the book has chapters on statements and sets and functions and induction, the bulk of the book focuses on core mathematical ideas and on developing intuition. Along with chapters on elementary combinatorics and beginning number theory, this book contains introductory chapters on real analysis, group theory, and graph theory that serve as gentle first exposures to their respective areas. The book contains hundreds of exercises, both routine and non-routine. This book has been used for a transition to advanced mathematics courses at California State University Northridge as well as for a general education course on mathematical reasoning at Krea University India.

Rezbrowsers and Skate Elders David Kamper, 2025-06 Ethnographer and American Indian studies scholar David Kamper examines how Indigenous youth and adults are making basketball and skateboarding meaningful to their communities by sustaining the transmission of intergenerational knowledge and combatting intergenerational trauma. Kamper looks at how the events and tournaments built around rezbrowsers are similar to powwows in how they bring people together across localized communities and generations, and he coins the phrase skate elders for those who use the social nature of skateboarding to build community and mentorships. Through a broad picture of North America, Kamper demonstrates how Native peoples have long indigenized cultural practices and material culture to assert Native sovereignty, creating joy and hope in the process. In Rezbrowsers and Skate Elders, Kamper considers how Native expressions of basketball and skateboarding show continuities with the historical transformation of practices that originated outside Indian Country to make them meaningful in Native life.

Neighbor Love through Fearful Days Jason

A. Mahn,2021-08-03 Neighbor Love through Fearful Days is a reflection on pandemics the Covid 19 pandemic the accompanying economic collapse a summer of climate chaos and the pandemic of white supremacy as well as on the calling to serve thy neighbor and work toward the common good even and especially in times of crisis Mahn s real time reflections begin with an entry dated March 17 2020 after the college where he teaches moved online and his family began sheltering in place they end with an entry dated August 31 2020 when the college reopened for an unprecedented fall term Through the intervening entries he reflects on perennial questions about purpose faith and vocation as they take on a newfound urgency as cities lock down economies reopen and close again and our fractured country teeters on the edge of civil war Each entry grapples with the anxieties and opportunities the suffering and sense of being summoned that characterize that same period Jason A Mahn s evocative narrative is a story about living through a time when the world as we know it is being leveled by pandemics and it is also a deeply philosophical exploration of what it means to live well In the pages of this book Mahn invites readers to muse on the difficult balance between self care and other care _the role of love in social justice and how white privilege might be atoned for and how amid intense suffering to practice a faith that is not escapist but embraces a hope more durable than optimism and a public strategic love more fierce and enduring than previously imagined Ultimately these reflections acknowledge the immense challenge of living a purposeful life in the middle of crisis but invite readers to the shared hope that from the ashen stillness we may just hear new callings to imagine healing cultivate hope and love
