Dreams Of Dreams And The Last Three Days Of Fernando Pessoa:

Dreams of Dreams Antonio Tabucchi, 1999 Dreams of Dreams and the Last Three Days of Fernando Pessoa
Antonio Tabucchi, 1999 The Last Three Days of Fernando Pessoa finds the poet on his deathbed where he is visited by his heteronyms the poets he invented whose poetry and voices invented him Antonio Tabucchi scholar and Italian translator of Pessoa's work here pronounces a farewell to a man who was several of the greatest writers of the twentieth century BOOK JACKET Embodying Pessoa Anna Klobucka, Mark Sabine, 2007-01-01 The multifaceted and labyrinthine oeuvre of the Portuguese poet Fernando Pessoa 1888-1935 is distinguished by having been written and published under more than seventy different names These were not mere pseudonyms but what Pessoa termed heteronyms fully realized identities possessed not only of wildly divergent writing styles and opinions but also of detailed biographies In many cases their independent existences extended to their publication of letters and critical readings of each other's works and those of Pessoa himself Long acclaimed in continental Europe and Latin America as a towering presence in literary modernism Pessoa has more recently begun to receive the attention of an English speaking public Embodying Pessoa responds to this new growth of interest The collection's twelve essays preceded by a general introduction and grouped into four themed sections apply a range of current interpretative models both to the more familiar canon of Pessoa's output and to less familiar texts in many cases only recently published As a whole this work diverges from traditional Pessoa criticism by testifying to the importance of corporeal physicality in his heteronymous experiment and to the prominence of representations of gendered sexuality in his work Autobiographies of Others Lucia Boldrini, 2012-08-21 In this volume Boldrini examines heterobiography the first person fictional account of a historic life Boldrini shows that this mode is widely employed to reflect critically on the historical and philosophical understanding of the human on individual identity and on the power relationships that define the subject In such texts the grammatical first person becomes the site of an encounter a stage where the relationships between historical fictional and authorial subjectivities are played out and explored in the double I of author and narrating historical character of fictional narrator and historical person Boldrini considers the ethical implications of assuming another's first person voice and the fraught issue of authorial responsibility Constructions of the body are examined in relation to the material evidence of the subject's existence Texts studied include Malouf's An Imaginary Life Carey's True History of the Kelly Gang Ondaatje's The Collected Works of Billy the Kid Adair's The Death of the Author Banti's Artemisia Viquez Montalbán's Autobiografía del general Franco Also discussed among others Yourcenar's Memoirs of Hadrian Tabucchi's The Last Three Days of Fernando Pessoa Giménez Bartlett's Una habitación ajena A Room of Someone Else's In the Heart of the Heart of Another Country Etel Adnan, 2005-09 A mosaic of lyrical vignettes at once deeply personal and political set against the turbulent backdrop of Arab-Western relations Adnan writes Contrary to what is usually believed it is not general ideas and grandiose unfolding of great events that impress the mind during times of heightened historic upheavals but rather the uninterrupted flow of little experiences observations disturbances small ecstasies or barely perceptible discouragements that make up day to day living Etel Adnan a Lebanese American poet painter and essayist lives in Paris Beirut and the San Francisco Bay Area Among her books the novel Sitt Marie Rose is considered a classic of Middle Eastern literature She has been a powerful voice for compassion and empowerment in feminist and antiwar movements The Routledge Companion to Biofiction Lucia Boldrini, Laura Cernat, Alexandre Gefen, Michael Lackey, 2025-03-31 The Routledge Companion to Biofiction provides readers with the history origins and evolution of this popular genre Featuring contributions from leading scholars in the field this authoritative collection foregrounds analyses of biofiction's core foundations through contemporary debates The volume is organized into seven sections Histories of biofiction Theoretical reflections on biofiction Biofiction national models and trans national constructions Biofiction as political intervention Biofictional case studies Activating lives early modern women and Authorial reflections This groundbreaking collection features works that refine our understanding of the genesis and evolution of biofiction theorize its unique and distinctive modes of signifying reflect on its value for the future and social justice chart new approaches for doing biofictional analysis and offer insights from authors of biofiction into the creative process This is the first collection to bring together the two main schools of interpreting biofiction the Francophone and Anglophone while also shedding light on biofictions in many languages from or about many continents and offering a platform to established and new voices alike It will be essential reading for students as well as advanced scholars interested in biographical fiction Italian Literature since 1900 in English Translation 1929-2016 Robin Healey, 2019-03-07 Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian writers active after 1900 this annotated bibliography covers over 4 800 distinct editions of writings by some 1 700 Italian authors Many entries are accompanied by useful notes that provide information on the authors works translators and the reception of the translations This book includes the works of Pirandello Calvino Eco and more recently Andrea Camilleri and Valerio Manfredi Together with Robin Healey's Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation also published by University of Toronto Press in 2011 this volume makes comprehensive information on translations from Italian accessible for schools libraries and those interested in comparative literature The absurd in literature Neil Cornwell, 2013-07-19 Neil Cornwell's study while endeavouring to present an historical survey of absurdist literature and its forbears does not aspire to being an exhaustive history of absurdism Rather it pauses on certain historical moments artistic movements literary figures and selected works before moving on to discuss four key writers Daniil Kharms Franz Kafka Samuel Beckett and Flann O'Brien The absurd in literature will be of compelling interest to a considerable range of students of comparative European including Russian and Central European and English literatures British Isles and American as well as those more concerned with theatre studies the avant garde and the history of ideas including humour theory It should also have a wide appeal to the enthusiastic general reader Milton and the Metamorphosis of Ovid Maggie Kilgour, 2012-02-02 Contributing to our understanding of Ovid Milton and more broadly the
