Dreams Waking Thoughts And Incidents:

Dreams, Waking Thoughts, and Incidents William Beckford, 2022-08-15 William Beckford's Dreams Waking Thoughts and Incidents is a captivating assemblage of reflections that voyage through the realm of the dreamlike and the philosophical. Beckford's prose is infused with a rich and ornate style lending a timeless elegance to his musings on the often surreal interplay between dreams and reality. As a piece of literary memoir it carves out its peculiar niche echoing the pre-Romantic sensibilities that dwell on the individual's inner life and emotional landscape thus serving as a precursor to later romantic and gothic literature. Beckford's lyrical recounting gives readers an abstract yet vivid depiction of his personal reveries and the world he navigates both in sleep and wakefulness. In pondering the origins of Dreams Waking Thoughts and Incidents one must consider Beckford's own storied life. Known primarily for his Gothic novel Vathek Beckford was also a man of considerable wealth and taste a patron of the arts and a traveler whose experiences undoubtedly seeped into his written work. A confluence of his lofty imagination the cultural milieu and his personal escapades are embedded within this collection providing a prism through which his personal narrative is unveiled. One can read between the lines a commentary on the nature of wealth isolation and the pursuit of aesthetic experience. For those seeking a journey into the thoughts of one of the eighteenth century's most enigmatic figures Dreams Waking Thoughts and Incidents is a must read. Beckford's work appeals not only to aficionados of early Gothic and Romantic literature but to any reader intrigued by the contemplative journey of self-exploration and the marriage of the fantastical with the everyday. Beckford beckons the reader to traverse the landscapes of his mind in a smooth confluence of dream and consciousness that challenges the boundary of waking life and fantasy.

Dark shades hindered my examining the lower galleries or windows their elaborate carved work was invisible nothing but huge masses of building met my sight and the tower shooting up four hundred and sixty six feet into the air received an additional importance from the gloom which prevailed below The sky being perfectly clear several stars twinkled through the mosaic of the spire and added not a little to its enchanted effect I longed to ascend it that instant to stretch myself out upon its very summit and calculate from so sublime an elevation the influence of the planets Whilst I was indulging my astrological reveries a ponderous bell struck ten and such a peal of chimes succeeded as shook the whole edifice notwithstanding its bulk and drove me away in a hurry No mob obstructed my passage and I ran through a succession of streets free and unmolested as if I had been skimming
