Dreaming in the World's Religions Kelly Bulkeley,2008-07-19 Backstreet Boys were the biggest band in the world for a short while and that period is documented on their first hits compilation 2001's The Hits Chapter One Twelve years later came Essential Backstreet Boys a double disc set that has all 13 songs from The Hits along with another 16 songs generally songs that came after 2001 when BSB started to slide down the charts There were hits 2005's Incomplete 2007's Inconsolable that just showed up on the Adult Contemporary charts a fair approximation of where the group wound up in their second decade Essential Backstreet Boys traces this evolution filling in a few more details of those early hit making years which makes this worthwhile for the dedicated fan but many listeners may find either The Hits or the variety of budget line collections released since to be a better bet as they contain the hits and nothing but Stephen Thomas Erlewine

Visions in Psychotherapy Research and Practice Bernhard M. Strauss,Jacques P. Barber,Louis G. Castonguay,2015-02-11 The Society for Psychotherapy Research SPR is devoted to the development and dissemination of research as well as the integration of empirical theoretical and clinical knowledge in psychotherapy A highlight of the SPR annual meeting is the presidential address wherein the president delivers what many view as the most important presentation of their career In Visions of Psychotherapy Bernhard Strauss Jacques Barber and Louis Castonguay three recent past presidents compile the preceding 20 presidential addresses from SPR into a single volume Then the living presidents 19 of the 20 comment on how the visions they described in their addresses have developed over time The American Dream and the Public Schools Jennifer L. Hochschild, Nathan Scovronick, 2004-10-21 The American Dream and the Public Schools examines issues that have excited and divided Americans for years including desegregation school funding testing vouchers bilingual education and ability grouping While these are all separate problems much of the contention over them comes down to the same thing an apparent conflict between policies designed to promote each student's ability to succeed and those designed to insure the good of all students or the nation as a whole The authors show how policies to promote individual success too often benefit only those already privileged by race or class and often conflict with policies that are intended to benefit everyone They propose a framework that builds on our nation's rapidly changing population in order to help Americans get past acrimonious debates about schooling Their goal is to make public education work better so that all children can succeed The Dream of Civilized Warfare Linda Raine Robertson, 2003 In The Dream of Civilized Warfare Robertson presents the compelling story of the creation of the first American air force and how through the propaganda of the flying ace a vision of clean or civilized combat was sold to politicians and the public She traces the long history of the American desire to exert the nation's will throughout the world without having to risk the lives of ground soldiers a theme that continues to reverberate in public discussions media portrayals and policy decisions today Primary Process Impacts and Dreaming the Undreamable Object in the Work of Michael Eigen Loray Daws, Keri S. Cohen, 2024-06-28 Primary Process Impacts and Dreaming the Undreamable Object in the Work of Michael Eigen examines Eigen's rich phenomenological work on becoming a welcoming object The contributors to this collection explore the core theme with reference to key Eigen works including Feeling Matters and Contact with the Depths As a primary process psychoanalyst Eigen's writing reflects a unique rhythm of faith that is able to revivify union distinction body affect thinking potentialities within a creative psychoanalytic dyad In this book alongside its companion volume Toxic Nourishment and Damaged Bonds in the Work of Michael Eigen contemporary Eigen readers and writers articulate the various welcoming processes and attitudes needed to cultivate a Hearing Heart a central ingredient in reaching and touching those parts of self deemed unwanted unwelcomed and even traumatized Primary Process Impacts and Dreaming the Undreamable Object in the Work of Michael Eigen represents a wide range of psychoanalytic perspectives and the chapters describe the genius of Eigen as well as contribute their own clinical and academic acumen Presenting a key aspect of Michael Eigen's transformational aesthetic this book will be of great interest to psychoanalysts psychotherapists and all those with an interest in psychoanalytic and

Milton Kramer,Myron L Glucksman,2015-05-01 This edited volume shows the relationship between dream research and its usefulness in treating patients Milton Kramer and Myron Glucksman show that there is support for searching for the meaning of dream as experiences extended in time Dreaming reflects psychological changes and is actually an orderly process not a random experience Several chapters in this book explore interviewing methodologies that will help clients reduce the frequency of their nightmares and thus contribute to successful therapy     What Do Dreams Do? Sue Llewellyn,2020 Dreams are a puzzle We don t know what to make of them This book explores the evolutionary significance of dreaming its role in memory unconscious prediction creativity and psychiatric illness It will be compelling reading for anyone interested in psychology psychiatry consciousness and the arts

Performing Dream Homes Emily Klein,Jennifer-Scott Mobley,Jill Stevenson,2019-01-22 This anthology explores how theatre and performance use home as the prism through which we reconcile shifts in national cultural and personal identity Whether examining parlor dramas and kitchen sink realism site specific theatre travelling tent shows domestic labor border performances fences or front yards these essays demonstrate how dreams of home are enmeshed with notions of neighborhood community politics and memory Recognizing the family home as a symbolic space that extends far beyond its walls the nine contributors to this collection study diverse English language performances from the US Ireland and Canada These scholars of theatre history dramaturgy performance cultural studies feminist and gender studies and critical race studies also consider the value of home at a time increasingly defined by crises of homelessness a moment when major cities face affordable housing shortages when debates about homeland and citizenship have dominated internationalelections and when conflicts and natural disasters have displaced millions Global struggles over immigration sanctuary refugee status and migrant labor make the stakes of home and homelessness ever more urgent and visible as this timely collection reveals

Dangerous Writing Carmen Luz Fuentes-Vásquez, 2013 This book examines the literary construction of personal identity through autobiographical narratives by three significant writers analysed together for the first time the Scottish Willa Muir 1890 1970 the Canadian Margaret Laurence 1926 1987 and the New Zealander Janet Frame 1924 2004 These apparently dissimilar authors suffered not only geographical but also political marginality they were women from the working class or struggling middle class striving to be considered as professional writers and emerging from countries that might be felt to be under the shadows of economic and political world powers such as England and the United States During their lifetimes they exerted themselves to overcome prejudices about class gender and ethnicity They experienced war and the post war era and lived through most of the twentieth century being accurate witnesses and critics of their times As it discusses major writers who are iconic for the development of the literatures of their respective countries this book also attracts readers who are interested in learning more about the lives of these remarkable women the way their socio historical and geographical circumstances affected their writing and how they expressed such concerns in their autobiographies and other fictional and non fictional works besides considering them in relation to contemporary women writers and autobiographers who underwent similar experiences Richard Yates and the Flawed American Dream Jennifer Daly, 2017-10-13 Richard Yates 1926 1992 has been described as a writer s writer but has never received the critical attention befitting that designation Firmly rooted in the zeitgeist of 1950s his work remains startlingly relevant addressing themes of American identity the nature of marriage and relationships between men and women and what it means to get ahead in a society entranced by a flawed American Dream This collection of new essays is the first to focus on this under appreciated author It opens up his body of work for a new generation of readers and positions Yates as a writer of significance in the American tradition
