

A sepia-toned photograph of a man in silhouette, seen from the side, looking out over a city of ruins. The city is densely packed with buildings, many of which are damaged or destroyed, with smoke rising from the ground. The man is in the foreground, and the city is in the background.

The Devil's Tinderbox Alexander McKee, 2000 After more than 50 years controversy still rages about the Allied decision to bomb Dresden in 1945 This book presents personal accounts of eyewitnesses survivors of the raids and British and American aircrew who took part in the destruction Dresden 1945 Alexander McKee, 1984 Maps on lining papers Includes index Bibliography p 327 329 Dresden 1945 Alexander MacKee, 1982 Myths of Modern History Jacques R. Pauwels, 2022-05-13 Revisionist historian Jacques R Pauwels challenges readers to reconsider what they know about some key events in the last 250 years of world history At a time when it s all too easy to see history in black and white terms historian Jacques R Pauwels urges readers to let go of conventional history textbooks and re examine historical events outside the bounds of conventional ideologies and agendas Pauwels uses twelve key events from the French Revolution onwards to debunk well known accepted historical narratives in the western canon He challenges readers to rethink their views by compiling the recent work of specialized scholars whose research demonstrates that the facts contradict the myths that have been offered to explain these events Beginning with a reconsideration of the impacts of the French Revolution Pauwels finishes by dismantling the American narrative surrounding the use of nuclear weapons in the Second World War and the real rationale for the Cold War and the U S s postwar global democracy project To Win the Lost War Lawrence Cambria, 2015-11-21 Perhaps the most long overdue work ever written about World War II and Americas role in winning it Bold fresh unique extremely well documented and brutally honest in To Win the Lost War Lawrence Cambria examines and analyzes the war at numerous levels and spaced intervals in order to provide the reader with an ongoing assessment of the overall situation as the war progressed He examines analyzes and compares the major turning points of the war in Europe in order to determine which has the best claim to being the decisive turning point He also takes a fresh look at Americas war experience bringing into focus numerous aspects of the war which are unknown to most Americans Finally he brings greater context to the importance of the American military effort With To Win the Lost War the author joins a growing number of contemporary scholars who are making many of the same observations that he has In fact his work draws on a bibliography of works from more than 200 scholars on the war and has more than 1 100 supporting footnotes In To Win the Lost War Lawrence Cambria separates popular myth from reality and provides his readers with observations on the war from perspectives that many have never considered Read To Win the Lost War It will change the way you look at World War II forever Ethical Educational Leadership in Turbulent Times Joan Poliner Shapiro, Steven Jay Gross, Susan H. Shapiro, 2025-08-01 Educational leaders not only face moral and ethical decisions regarding their classrooms schools districts and education institutions but they also must consider the complexities and threats that impact their communities Amidst the ongoing challenges of pandemics and natural disasters this process is exceptionally daunting Ethical Educational Leadership in Turbulent Times is an engaging case study based text that assists leaders in their ethical decision making processes during a time of turbulence and uncertainty The book is framed by Gross Turbulence Theory and Shapiro and Stefkovich s Multiple Ethical Paradigms of justice critique care and the profession Presenting clear explanations of theory in combination with authentic dilemmas developed by practitioners this book will assist leaders in dealing with challenging situations in their own settings Ethical Educational Leadership in Turbulent Times 3rd edition is a valuable book for both aspiring and practicing educational administrators and leaders New in this edition Updated cases throughout to reflect contemporary issues and recent scholarship in the field New topical case coverage on topics relating to the post pandemic climate race and ethnicity social media and culturally sensitive teaching An entirely new chapter with cases about technology including the strengths and weaknesses of AI in education      Crystals and Life Celerino Abad Zapatero,2002      Terrorism Donald J. Hanle,2006

Part of the problem of dealing with terrorism is in its definition it is often depicted as something new and totally alien a phantom enemy that cannot be understood But by employing a sophisticated analysis soundly based on an encyclopedic knowledge of military history Donald J Hanle shows that three major forms of terrorism Military Revolutionary and State Sponsored qualify as the newest forms of war The author s in depth investigation reveals that these kinds of terrorists operate in the same basic manner as military forces employed in traditional warfare and have the same basic capabilities and weaknesses He argues convincingly that countermeasures against these types of terrorist organizations should be based upon classical principles of war and combat and suggests countervailing strategies Terrorism The Newest Face of Warfare is a starting point for a sensible and coherent counterterrorism strategy one that enlists a valuable but heretofore neglected Western arsenal the study of military history in the battle against terrorism      A People's History of the Cold War Colin Turbett,2023-03-23 Between the closing battles of the Second World War and the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1991 the Cold War cast a shadow over the lives of people throughout the world while open conflict was avoided between the ideologically competing superpowers and their principal allies millions died in battlegrounds in parts of the world that were usually far from Moscow Washington and London The threat of nuclear annihilation was omnipresent but at the same time mutually assured destruction tempered conflict and focused minds Subtle and not so subtle attempts to influence popular opinion either way were apparent in everyday life on both sides of the divide while the power of the dollar and the burgeoning costs of the arms race eventually broke the Soviet economy the idea that capitalism won the the Cold War seems misplaced especially if one considers events that have happened since including very recent armed conflict The book takes the reader through main events of the period but focuses on the impact on ordinary citizens East and West and the view of events from their perspective This is a story of how economies on both sides were built around war preparations and the advance of destructive technologies that had no social benefits apart from the provision of employment Sources used are unusual in not fitting the western based narratives that pervade both academic histories and popular accounts However this book is not an apology for the more oppressive aspects of Soviet policy as the USSR struggled to build really existing socialism within its own borders and the Eastern Bloc countries under its immediate influence. Instead, it brings a people's perspective from both sides onto this important period of recent history whose consequences are very much still with us as we face modern challenges around climate change and growing inequality across our world. A People's History of the Cold War: Stories from East and West captures the mood of the times with its extensive contemporary illustrations. A

Blue Jerusalem Kit Kowol,2024-08-28 The untold story of how Winston Churchill and the Conservative Party envisioned Britain s post war future We think we know all there is to know about Britain s Second World War We don t This radical re interpretation of British history and British Conservatism between 1939 and 1945 reveals the bold at times utopian plans British Conservatives drew up for Britain and the post war world From proposals for world government to a more united Empire via dreams of a new Christian elite and a move back to the land Blue Jerusalem reveals how Conservatives were every bit as imaginative and courageous as their Labour and left wing opponents in their wartime plans for a post war world Bringing these alternative visions of Britain s post war future back to life Blue Jerusalem restores politics to the centre of the story of Britain s war It demonstrates how everything from the weapons Britain fought with to the theatres in which the fighting took place and the allies Britain chose were the product of political decisions about the different futures Conservatives wanted to make Rejecting notions of a people s war that continue to cloud how we think of World War II it explores how the Tories used their control of the home and battle front to fight a deeply Conservative war and build the martial imperial and Christian nation of which many of a conservative disposition had long dreamed A study of political thinking as well as political manoeuvre Blue Jerusalem goes beyond an examination of the usual suspects such as Winston Churchill and Neville Chamberlain to reveal a hitherto lost world of British Conservatism and a set of forgotten futures that continue to shape our world      War, Nation, Memory Keith A. Crawford, Stuart J. Foster, 2007-12-01 The Second World War stands as the most devastating and destructive global conflict in human history More than 60 nations representing 1.7 billion people or three quarters of the world's population were consumed by its horror Not surprisingly therefore World War II stands as a landmark episode in history education throughout the world and its prominent place in school history textbooks is almost guaranteed As this book demonstrates however the stories that nations choose to tell their young about World War II do not represent a universally accepted truth about events during the war Rather wartime narratives contained in school textbooks typically are selected to instil in the young a sense of national pride common identity and shared collective memory To understand this process War Nation Memory describes and evaluates school history textbooks from many nations deeply affected by World War II including China France Germany Japan USA and the United Kingdom It critically examines the very different and complex perspectives offered in many nations and analyses the ways in which textbooks commonly serve as instruments of socialisation and in some cases propaganda Above all War Nation Memory demonstrates that far from containing neutral knowledge history textbooks prove fascinating cultural artefacts consciously shaped and legitimated by powerful ideological cultural and sociopolitical forces dominant in the present      Northern Europe Trudy Ring, Noelle Watson, Paul Schellinger, 2013-10-28 First published in 1996 Volume 2 of the International Dictionary of Historical Places covers Northern Europe British Isles to Russia out of a set of five The dictionary spans from Aachen to Ypres and includes an index by country This five volume set presents some 1 000 comprehensive and fully illustrated histories of the most famous sites in the world Entries include location description and site details and a 3 000 to 4 000 word essay that provides a full history of the site and its condition today An annotated further reading list of books and articles about the site completes each entry      War, Violence and the Modern Condition Bernd Hüppauf, 2010-11-05 No detailed description available for War Violence and the Modern Condition      The Mystery of Frankenberg's Canadian Airman Peter Hessel, 2005-09-02 The Mystery of Frankenberg's Airman is the account of painstaking research in a quest for the truth about an unsolved war crime
