Drop Hammer A Play:

From Red-Baiting to Blacklisting Barry B Witham, 2020-04-27 Author Barry B Witham reclaims the work of Manny Fried an essential American playwright so thoroughly blacklisted after he defied the House Committee on Un American Activities in 1954 and again in 1964 that his work all but completely disappeared from the canon Witham details Manny Fried's work inside and outside the theatre and examines his three major labor plays and the political climate that both nurtured and disparaged their productions Drawing on never before published interview materials Witham reveals the details of how the United States government worked to ruin Fried's career From Red Baiting to Blacklisting includes the complete text of Fried's major labor plays all long out of print In Elegy for Stanley Gorski Fried depicts one of the many red baiting campaigns that threatened countless unions in the wake of the Taft Hartley Act and the collusion of the Catholic Church with these activities In Drop Hammer Fried tackles the issues of union dues misappropriation and potential criminal activities In the third play The Dodo Bird perhaps his most popular Fried achieves a remarkable character study of a man outsourced from his job by technology and plant closures Manny Fried's plays portray the hard edges of capitalism and government power and illuminate present day struggles with hostility to labor unions and the passage in several states of right to work laws Fried had no illusions about the government's determination to destroy communism and unionism causes to which he was deeply committed

Playing Hard Peter Unwin, 2025-02-15 Playing Hard is a tribute to the power of play in all its forms a searching personal account of how play games and sports sanctify life and give it meaning In this moving and wide ranging examination Peter Unwin reflects on life and relationships through countless acts of play and the many unexpected places it is found Through a shared love of games the author reconnects with his terminally ill father and is exposed to the complexities of his father's past of his experiences with war and violence and of a different but equally powerful commitment to a life of play From Snakes and Ladders to shooting pool from an improbable soccer game in the Sahara to first memories of playing baseball under catalpa trees Peter Unwin examines the irresistible urge to have fun reminding us that to live is to play and to play hard is to live well
