Legacies of the Drunken Master Luke White, 2020-04-30 In 1978 the films Snake in the Eagle's Shadow and Drunken Master both starring a young Jackie Chan caused a stir in the Hong Kong cinema industry and changed the landscape of martial arts cinema Mixing virtuoso displays of acrobatic kung fu with knockabout humor to huge box office success they broke the mold of the tragic and heroic martial arts film and sparked not only a wave of imitations but also a much longer trend for kung fu comedies that continues to the present day Legacies of the Drunken Master the first book length analysis of kung fu comedy interrogates the politics of the films and their representations of the performing body It draws on an interdisciplinary engagement with popular culture and an interrogation of the critical literature on Hong Kong and martial arts cinema to offer original readings of key films These readings pursue the genre in terms of its carnival aesthetic the utopias of the body it envisions its highly stylized depictions of violence its images of masculinity and the registers of its hysterical laughter The book's analyses are carried out amidst kung fu comedy's shifting historical contexts including the aftermath of the 1960s radical youth movements the rapidly globalizing colonial enclave of Hong Kong and the emerging consciousness of its 1997 handover to China and the transnationalization of cinema audiences It argues that through kung fu comedy's images of the body the genre articulated in complex and often contradictory ways political realities relevant to late twentieth century Hong Kong and the wider conditions of globalized capitalism The kung fu comedy entwines us in a popular cultural history that stretches into the folk past and forward into utopian and dystopian possibilities Theoretically rich and critical Legacies of the Drunken Master aims to be at the forefront of scholarship on martial arts cinema It also addresses readers with a broader interest in Hong Kong culture and politics during the 1970s and 1980s postcolonialism in East Asia and action and comedy films in a global context as well as those fascinated with the performing body in the martial arts

Research of Martial Arts Shifu Jonathan Bluestein, 2014-07-27 Jonathan Bluestein's Research of Martial Arts is a book about the true essence of martial arts It includes neither instruction on deadly killing techniques nor mystical tales of so called super human masters Rather it is a vast compilation of seriously thought out observations made on the subject by the author as well as many other martial artists and scientists with a slight touch of history and humour The goal of this project had from the start been to surpass the current standard in the martial arts literary market and offer readers worldwide something which they have never seen before In essence a book in which are found countless answers for martial arts practitioners which they cannot be read elsewhere which address commonly discussed martially related topics with breadth and depth unparalleled in other works to this day in any language It holds among its pages no less than 220 000 words containing knowledge which would be coveted by many The aim of this book is to present the reader a coherent clear cut and in depth view of some of the most perplexing and controversial subjects in the world of martial arts as well as providing a healthy dose of philosophical outlook on these subjects from various individuals At its core is the author s aspiration to build a stronger theoretical foundation for the discussion of martial arts while addressing matters in innovative ways which I have come to believe would help people to better grasp the nature of these arts There are books by authors who will tell you that some aspects of the martial arts are too complex for concrete coherent and defined explanations Others have used ambiguous terminology to explain what they could not pronounce otherwise This is no such book This book was written to provide you with the solid applicable answers and ideas that you could actually understand and take away with you This book is mainly comprised of three parts Part I From the Inside Out External and Internal Gong Fu This is essentially mostly a very long thorough discussion of martial arts theory and practice Traditional and modern concepts and methods are discussed through the mediums of Physiology Biology Anatomy Psychology Philosophy Western and Oriental alike sports science and the author s personal experiences The Internal Martial Arts of China receive a special lengthier treatment in this part of the book Part II Contemplations on Controlled Violence This one is of a Philosophical and Psychological nature and contains the author s thoughts on the martial arts and their manifestation in our daily lives with guest articles by various martial arts teachers Part III The Wisdom of Martial Spirits Teachers and the Things They Hold Dear This part includes various interesting and comprehensive interviews with distinguished martial arts masters spanning dozens of pages each Every one of the interviewees is a person whose views and ideas are thought provoking and well worth reading The teachers interviewed in this book are Master Chen Zhonghua Chen Taiji Quan Master Yang Hai Xing Yi Quan Bagua Zhang and Chen Taiji Quan Shifu Strider Clark Tongbei Quan Wu style Taiji Shuai Jiao and more Shifu Neil Ripski Traditional Drunken Fist and many others Sifu James Cama Buddha Hand Wing Chun and Southern Praying Mantis Itzik Cohen Sensei Shito ryu Karate No matter the age rank status or experience this book was written for everyone who see themselves part of the martial arts community It is my sincere hope that any person who reads this book will benefit from the time he or she had spent doing so May this work encourage others to continue intelligent writing and research in the field as I was pushed forth and built upon the knowledge others have shared before me May you have a pleasant reading experience

The Martial Arts Cinema of the Chinese Diaspora Kin-Yan

Szeto,2011-06-29 In The Martial Arts Cinema of the Chinese Diaspora Kin Yan Szeto critically examines three of the most internationally famous martial arts film artists to arise out of the Chinese diaspora and travel far from their homelands to find commercial success in the world at large Ang Lee John Woo and Jackie Chan Positing the idea that these filmmakers success is evidence of a cosmopolitical awareness arising from their cross cultural ideological engagements and geopolitical displacements Szeto demonstrates how this unique perspective allows these three filmmakers to develop and act in the transnational environment of media production distribution and consumption Beginning with a historical retrospective on Chinese martial arts films as a diasporic film genre and the transnational styles and ideologies of the filmmakers themselves Szeto uses case studies to explore in depth how the forces of colonialism Chinese nationalism and Western imperialism shaped the identities and work of Lee Woo and Chan Addressed in the volume is the groundbreaking martial arts swordplay film that achieves global success Ang Lee s Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon and its revelations about Hollywood representations of Asians as well as concepts of male and female masculinity in the swordplay film tradition Also investigated is the invigoration of contemporary gangster thriller and war films by John Woo whose combination of artistic and historical contexts has contributed to his global success Szeto then dissects Chan s mimetic representation of masculinity in his films and the influences of his Chinese theater and martial arts training on his work Szeto outlines the similarities and differences between the three artists films especially their treatments of gender sexuality and power She concludes by analyzing their films as metaphors for their working conditions in the Chinese diaspora and Hollywood and demonstrating how through their works Lee Woo and Chan communicate not only with the rest of the world but also with each other Far from a book simply about three filmmakers The Martial Arts Cinema of the Chinese Diaspora investigates the transnational nature of films the geopolitics of culture and race and the depths of masculinity and power in movies Szeto s interdisciplinary approach calls for nothing less than a paradigm shift in the study of Chinese diasporic filmmakers and the embodiment of cosmopolitical perspectives in the martial arts genre
