Dreaming The End Of The World Apocalypse As A Rite Of Passage:

Dreaming the End of the World Michael Ortiz Hill,1994 What might be revealed by the more than 100 apocalyptic dreams collected by the author Just as Jung saw the approach of the First World War in dreams as well as the phenomenon of flying saucers so might these dreams disclose the shape of things to come Includes a bibliography as well as an extraordinary and ample glossary of dream images and metaphors

The Love of Nature and the End of the World Shierry Weber Nicholzen,2003-02-28 A psychological exploration of how the love of nature can coexist in our psyches with apathy toward environmental destruction Virtually everyone values some aspect of the natural world Yet many people are surprisingly unconcerned about environmental issues treating them as the province of special interest groups Seeking to understand how our appreciation for the beauty of nature and our indifference to its destruction can coexist in us Shierry Weber Nicholzen explores dimensions of our emotional experience with the natural world that are so deep and painful that they often remain unspoken The Love of Nature and the End of the World is a gathering of meditations and collages Its evocations of our emotional attachment to the natural world and the emotional impact of environmental deterioration are meant to encourage individual and collective reflection on a difficult dilemma Nicholzen draws on work in environmental philosophy and ecopsychology the writings of psychoanalytic thinkers such as Wilfred Bion Donald Meltzer and D W Winnicott and ideas from Buddhist and Sufi traditions She shows how our emotional responses to the vulnerabilities of the natural world range from intense caring and compassion through grief and outrage to diffuse depression Individual chapters focus on silence and the process whereby we move from the unspoken to the spoken the love of nature the perceptual reciprocity with the natural world to which we might mature beauty in the human and natural realms the psychological impact of the destruction of the natural world and reflections on the future

A Doomsday Reader Ted Daniels,1999-08-01 A collection of pronouncements edicts and scriptures predicting the apocalypse The approach of the year 2000 has made the study of apocalyptic movements trendy But groups anticipating the end of the world will continue to predict Armageddon even after the calendar clicks to triple 0s A Doomsday Reader brings together pronouncements edicts and scriptures written by prominent apocalyptic movements from a wide range of traditions and ideologies to offer an exceptional look into their belief systems Focused on attaining paradise millenarianism often anticipates great cosmic change While most think of religious belief as motivating such fervor Daniels comparative approach encompasses secular movements such as environmentalism and the Montana Freeman and argues that such groups are often more political than religious in nature The book includes documents from groups such as the Branch Davidians the Order of the Solar Temple Heaven s Gate and white supremacists Each document is preceded by a substantive introduction placing the movement and its beliefs in context This important overview of contemporary politics of the End will remain a valuable resource long after the year 2000 has come and gone

Archetype of the Apocalypse Edward F. Edinger,2002 The collective belief in Armageddon has become more powerful and widespread in the wake of recent terrorist attacks Edward Edinger looks at the chaos predicted by the Book of Revelation and relates it to current trends including global violence AIDS and apocalyptic cults The Rise of Nuclear Fear Spencer R.

Weart,2012-03-19 After the Fukushima Nuclear Power Plant had a meltdown protesters around the world challenged nuclear power Climate change has never aroused this visceral dread Weart dissects this paradox showing that powerful images surrounding nuclear energy hold us captive allowing fear rather than facts to drive our thinking and public policy

Marketing Apocalypse Jim Bell,Stephen Brown,David Carson,2003-09-02 The present volume of essays examines the extent to which the end of marketing is nigh The authors explore the present state of marketing scholarship and put forward a variety of visions of marketing in the twenty first century Ranging from narratology to feminism these suggestions are always enlightening often provocative and occasionally outrageous Marketing Apocalypse is required reading for anyone interested in the future of marketing

Sacred Demise Carolyn Baker, Ph.D.,2009-02-23 The collapse of industrial civilization is rapidly unfolding and offers us an opportunity far beyond mere survival even as it renders absurd any attempts to fix or prevent the end of the world as we have known it Sacred Demise is about the transformation of human consciousness and the emergence of a new paradigm as a result discovering our purpose in the collapse process thereby coming home to our ultimate place in the universe Our willingness to consciously embark on the journey with openness and uncertainty may be advantageous for engendering a quantum evolutionary leap for our species and for the earth community We face an awesome internal transition that will take us into very unfamiliar territory and will call upon our deeper resources Carolyn Baker s Sacred Demise is a courageous wise and compassionate guide for us all through this inner journey Michael Brownlee Co founder Transition Boulder County Carolyn speaks with a confidence that never flinches from entering into the hardest truths of our times or from the most difficult truths about the culture we are immersed in so that we might emerge from the chrysalis of global crisis with open hearts and a renewed way of living on Earth together Juan Santos Fourth World Blogspot

Atomic Bomb Cinema Jerome F. Shapiro,2013-05-13 Unfathomably merciless and powerful the atomic bomb has left its indelible mark on film In Atomic Bomb Cinema Jerome F Shapiro unearths the unspoken legacy of the bombing of Nagasaki and Hiroshima and its complex aftermath in American and Japanese cinema According to Shapiro a Bomb film is never simply an exercise in ideology or paranoia He examines hundreds of films like Godzilla Dr Strangelove and The Terminator as a body of work held together by ancient narrative and symbolic traditions that extol survival under devastating conditions Drawing extensively on both English language and Japanese language sources Shapiro argues that such films not only grapple with our nuclear anxieties but also offer signs of hope that humanity is capable of repairing a damaged and divided world www.atomicbombcinema.com Filling the Hole in the Nuclear Future Robert

Jacobs,2010-04-12 From the dawn of the atomic age art and popular culture have played an essential role interpreting nuclear issues to the public and investigating the implications of nuclear weapons to the future of human civilization Political and social forces often seemed paralyzed in thinking beyond the advent of nuclear weapons and articulating a creative response to the dilemma posed by this apocalyptic technology Art and popular culture are uniquely suited to grapple with the implications of the bomb and the disruptions in the continuity of traditional narratives about the human future endemic to the atomic age Filling the Hole in the Nuclear Future explores the diversity of visions evoked in American and Japanese society by the mushroom cloud hanging over the future of humanity during the last half of the twentieth century It presents historical scholarship on art and popular culture alongside the work of artists responding to the bomb as well as artists discussing their own work From the effect of nuclear testing on sci fi movies during the mid fifties in both the U S and Japan to the socially engaged visual discussion about power embodied in Japanese manga Filling the Hole in the Nuclear Future takes readers into unexpected territory

Visions of the Night Kelly Bulkeley, 1999-09-16 This wide ranging exploration of the spiritual and scientific dimensions of dreaming offers new connections between the ancient wisdom of the world's religious traditions which have always taught that dreams reveal divine truths and the recent findings of modern psychological research Drawing upon philosophy anthropology sociology neurology literature and film criticism the book offers a better understanding of the mysterious complexity and startling creative powers of human dreaming experience For those interested in gaining new perspectives on dreaming the powers of the imagination and the newest frontiers in the dialogue between religion and science Visions of the Night promises to be a welcome resource

Crossing the Event Horizon Jonathan Zap, 2012-02-24 Crossing the Event Horizon provides evidence that we are both individually and collectively hurtling toward an evolutionary event horizon Using the tools of Jungian psychology the nature of the singularity is defined by its myriad manifestations emerging from the collective unconscious These include dreams motifs and themes found in art science fiction and fantasy literature and films religious cults and the paranormal especially near death experiences and UFO encounters Key aspects of the Singularity Archetype include Logos Beheld visually comprehended linguistic intent often associated with a collective telepathic network Homo gestalt a new species where individuality is conserved but also telepathically networked and a parallelism between the individual event horizon of death and eschaton the collective event horizon of the species Apocalypticism is analyzed as an example of the Singularity Archetype pathologizing A study of the Heaven's Gate saucer suicide cult illustrates what can happen when people become possessed by the Singularity Archetype and are driven by it into delusory projections The Singularity Archetype is viewed apocalyptically by the ego and as a transcendent evolutionary event by the Self and the duality of these views is explored in many examples The evolutionary origins of the ego and its metamorphosis as it approaches the event horizon are explored Evolutionary theory which relates to the Singularity Archetype through a number of dynamic paradoxes is discussed Many popular books and movies are analyzed as permutations of the Singularity Archetype including Avatar Childhood's End Village of the Damned Powder and 2001 A Space Odyssey The Singularity Archetype is a primordial image of human evolutionary metamorphosis which emerges from the collective unconscious How the Archetype Manifests a Composite Picture A rupture of plane event occurs usually threatening the survival of the individual and or species The event is a shock that disrupts the equilibrium of body physical world and also individual collective psyche It is an ontological shock that will be viewed as the worst thing possible by individual collective ego There is another rupture of plane that may actually be the same rupture as above but seen from a cosmic rather than a personal view The shock is revealed to be a transcendent evolutionary event The revelation of the transcendent aspect will often involve spiral motifs and unusual lights Consciousness and communication metamorphose and with them core aspects ego individuality connection to linear time corporeality gender identification social order etc fundamentally transform There is a vision or actualization of release from some or all limits of corporeal incarnation and the emergence of glorified bodies which have enhanced powers and various degrees of etherialization More visual and telepathic modes of consciousness and communication emerge and this is part of a transformation of individuality into Homo gestalt a new species where individual psyches are networked telepathically The Singularity Archetype may be experienced and even actualized to various degrees by an individual through transcendent and or anomalous experiences such as near death experiences NDEs UFO abduction close encounter experiences kundalini and psychotropic episodes As with encounters with all archetypes individuals and groups attach idiosyncratic material to it such as particular end dates and scenarios Another way of defining the Singularity Archetype in its collective form is as a resonance flowing backward through time of an approaching Singularity at the end of human history The Singularity Archetype relates to both the evolutionary event horizon of the species and for the individual the event horizon of death

War in Heaven/Heaven on Earth Stephen D. O'Leary, Geln S. McGhee, 2014-12-18 The apocalypse is a motif that lies behind many religious beliefs and practices War in Heaven Heaven on Earth theorizes the apocalyptic as it has arisen in a variety of religious traditions from Native American religion to Islam in Northern Nigeria and new terrorist movements Millennial theory and history are explored from the perspective of social psychology sociology and post modern philosophy The volume is unique in applying an analysis of millennial themes to a comparative study of religion Vision and Violence Arthur P. Mendel, 1999 Arthur P Mendel argues that throughout history man has worried about the Apocalypse a phenomenon that has changed from God to reason to history and then to nature He calls for a more modest and humane philosophy with regard to the Earth The Blue Sapphire of the Mind Douglas E. Christie, 2013 In The Blue Sapphire of the Mind Douglas E The Otherworlds of Liz Jensen Helen Esther Mundler, 2016 The first study of one of the most innovative of contemporary novelists Liz Jensen and of the otherworlds in her fiction Liz Jensen a British author of eight novels is among today s most innovative writers Her literary thrillers occupy the terrain between realism and science fiction This first study of Jensen centers on the very diverse otherworlds she creates in each of her novels which can consist of an indeterminate space of ontological instability a zone in which real and unreal converge to destabilize the realist text as in

Egg Dancing 1995 and The Ninth Life of Louis Drax 2004 In other novels the otherworld relies on defamiliarization thus in War Crimes for the Home 2002 the experience of war is transformed by being seen from a woman's perspective In still other cases the otherworld spans the novel's entire topos as in The Paper Eater 2000 the full-blown utopia at the center of Jensen's oeuvre Jensen's work approaches contemporary social issues such as religious fundamentalism ecological disaster and assisted procreation Simultaneously it displays a number of characteristics of erudite fiction including self-reflexivity inter- and intratextual reference parody pastiche and burlesque Notwithstanding the popular elements of Jensen's work Helen E Mundler's study adopts a rigorously academic approach to it referencing canonical works but also more innovative texts particularly by contemporary women writers as points of comparison Helen E Mundler is Senior Lecturer in English Studies at UPEC Universit Paris Est Crteil with a research affiliation at the Universit Paris X Nanterre La Defense

Dream Work Jeremy Taylor, 1983 All people dream regularly regardless of their circumstances whether they remember their dreams upon awakening or not From the beginning of human history dreams have been a source of creative inspiration and spiritual renewal emotional and psychological insight and scientific and cultural innovation

Jung's Shadow Concept Christopher Perry, Rupert Tower, 2023-05-05 This insightful volume is designed as a series of invitations towards living attentiveness examining how we all make the other through projection blaming and shaming the other outside ourselves our enemy with whom we prefer not to dialogue All of us are faced daily with individual and collective manifestations of the Shadow all that we fear despise and makes us feel ashamed Carl Jung's concept of the Shadow emerging as it did from his personal confrontation with the realms of his unconscious self is one of the most important contributions he made to the understanding of humanity and to depth psychology that realm where the focus is on unconscious processes The contributors to this book reframe his concept in the context of contemporary Jungian thinking exploring how the Shadow develops in an individual's infancy and adolescence and its culmination where collective manifestations of the Shadow are addressed The book offers a voyage through a series of fundamental Shadow concepts and themes including couples relationships disease organizations Evil fundamentalism ecology and boundary violation before ending with a chapter designed to help us integrate the Shadow and hold contra positions with patience and a tilt towards mutual understanding rather than being locked in polarities This fascinating new book will be of considerable interest to the general public Jungian analysts trainees scholars and therapists both in training and practice with an interest in the inner world

Environmental Change and the World's Futures Jonathan Paul Marshall, Linda H. Connor, 2015-08-27 Climate change and ecological instability have the potential to disrupt human societies and their futures Cultural social and ethical life in all societies is directed towards a future that can never be observed and never be directly acted upon and yet is always interacting with us Thinking and acting towards the future involves efforts of imagination that are linked to our sense of being in the world and the ecological pressures we experience The three key ideas of this book ecologies ontologies and mythologies help us understand the ways people in many different societies attempt to predict and shape their futures Each chapter places a different emphasis on the linked domains of environmental change embodied experience myth and fantasy politics technology and intellectual reflection in relation to imagined futures The diverse geographic scope of the chapters includes rural Nepal the islands of the Pacific Ocean Sweden coastal Scotland North America and remote rural and urban Australia This book will appeal to researchers and students in anthropology sociology environmental studies cultural studies psychology and politics

Art After the Bomb Darrell D. Davisson, 2008 This book is requisite reading material for any person claiming to be an educated and informed member of the global community Our understanding in the West of the Eastern cultures specially the different cultures involving the Muslims is alarmingly low The book strives to offer a view from the ground a keyhole perspective that offers the readers a close and personal peek into some of the ethical underpinnings and the philosophical guiding parameters that inform the Muslim and the Eastern mind There are over 1.3 billion Muslims in the world It would be a serious intellectual fallacy to assume that they are all homogenous or to be more preposterous assume they are all terrorists It is extremely tragic that it took the Iranian hostage crisis to teach us about Shia Islam and 9/11 to teach us about Wahabi Islam Properly acquired knowledge not just what we learn from the media will allow us to be anticipatory and rational rather than being reactive and emotional For the Muslim reader specially the children and the youth the book strives to offer a deeper understanding of Islam beyond the boundaries of ritual Islam into the wide open space of spiritual and intellectual Islam To inspire them to appreciate and live up to the wonderful legacy of Islam and not to be mired down into some deviant interpretations of people with questionable motives The book is designed to encourage the process of tearing down walls and building bridges We share common dreams aspirations and challenges We share a common globe and a common destiny The author believes that there are no clashes of civilizations just clashes of ignorance and misunderstanding

The Five Gifts Laurie Nadel, 2018-04-03 Once a seasoned journalist but now a distinguished scholar and practicing psychotherapist Dr Laurie has immersed herself in the academic study of suffering in addition to the depth her own life story provides When it comes to teaching how to get up after being knocked down how to not just survive life's hardest blows but eventually thrive nothing beats a teacher who has learned through personal experience I'll be surprised if you don't find this book highly readable and the information in it unusually accessible and easy to understand digest and put to use Dr Laurie Nadel touches off many new sunbursts of thought as she guides us through what we need to know about coping with life's most troubling times From the Foreword by Dan Rather As the frequency and intensity of catastrophic events continue to surge organizations provide guidelines for how to pack a Go Kit in case of emergency The Five Gifts is like an emergency Go Kit for the mind packed with information and insight that can minimize and prevent long term psycho-spiritual damage from a traumatic event It's a field guide for the heart and soul to guide you through to cycles of damage and recovery that can be useful before during and after a tragic loss trauma or disaster In a nationwide Google survey Dr Nadel commissioned for this book 33% of those surveyed identified their greatest fear as a terrorist attack followed by displacement from their homes As this upsurge in violent episodes continues the numbers show a greater likelihood that you or someone close to you will be directly affected by a traumatic event But what if you had access to a mind body spirit Go Kit before disaster strikes In The Five Gifts Dr Nadel wisely maps out a path integrating what she has learned from over two decades of working with people damaged by a trauma event Her own life was impacted by the World Trade Center attacks of September 11 2001 and Hurricane Sandy on October 29 2012 The Five Gifts contains interviews with people whose lives were directly impacted by such major news events as the Rwanda genocide the terrorist attacks of September 11th 2001 Hurricanes Katrina and Sandy the tsunami in Bali and the Boston Marathon terrorist bombing Although you can never be fully prepared for a shocking traumatic event this book will provide information ideas insight and tools to build the emotional stamina and clarity needed to cope with acute stress responses and emotional aftershocks If you are open to receiving the gifts of Humility Patience Empathy Forgiveness and Growth The Five Gifts will lead you safely through disaster and traumatic minefields
