Dreaming Swimmers Non Fiction:

The Dreaming Swimmer Clive James, 2015-10-08 Thoughtful and funny this fifth collection of essays from much loved critic and author Clive James covers the art politics and culture of 1987 1992 A well balanced show of wit intellect and glorious observation Sunday Times With work on writers as diverse as Philip Larkin Primo Levi and Stevie Smith performers as iconic as Frank Sinatra and Billy Connolly and publishing events as monumental as the World's First Official The Sun Neighbours Collection Stick Album Plus Extra Free Poster Pull Out of Jason and Kylie Clive James is always erudite insightful and thoroughly entertaining He writes like a prophet and he can satirise folly in high places with a touch as elegant as Oscar Wilde There isn't a word wasted Daily Mail Clive James 1939 2019 was a broadcaster critic poet memoirist and novelist His much loved influential and hilarious television criticism is available both in individual volumes and collected in Clive James On Television His encyclopaedic study of culture and politics in the twentieth century Cultural Amnesia remains perhaps the definitive embodiment of his wide ranging talents as a critic Praise for Clive James The perfect critic A O Scott New York Times There can't be many writers of my generation who haven't been heavily influenced by Clive James Charlie Brooker A wonderfully witty and intelligent writer Verity Lambert Historics Martin L. Davies, 2007-05-07 From an author at the forefront of research in this area comes this provocative and seminal work that presents a unique and fresh new look at history and theory Taking a broadly European view the book draws on works of French and German philosophy some of which are unknown to the English speaking world and Martin L Davies spells out what it is like to live in a historicized world where any event is presented as historical as or even before it happens Challenging basic assumptions made by historians Davies focuses on historical ideas and thought about the past instead of examining history as a discipline The value of history in and for contemporary culture is explained not only in terms of cultural and institutional practices but in forms of writing and representation of historical issues too Historics stimulates thinking about the behaviours and practice that constitute history and introduces complex ideas in a clear and approachable style This important text is recommended not only for a wide student audience but for the more discerning general reader as well The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1993 Striding Both Worlds Melissa Kennedy, 2011-01-01 Striding Both Worlds illuminates European influences in the fiction of Witi Ihimaera Aotearoa New Zealand's foremost Māori writer in order to question the common interpretation of Māori writing as displaying a distinctive Māori world view and literary style Far from being discrete endogenous units all cultures and literatures arise out of constant interaction engagement and even friction Thus Māori culture since the 1970s has been shaped by a long history of interaction with colonial British Pakeha and other postcolonial and indigenous cultures Māori sovereignty and renaissance movements have harnessed the structures of European modernity nation building and more recently Western global capitalism transculturation and diaspora contexts which contest New Zealand bicultural identity encouraging Māori to express their difference and self sufficiency Ihimaera's fiction has been largely viewed as embodying the specific values of M ori renaissance and biculturalism However Ihimaera in his techniques modes and themes is indebted to a wider range of literary influences than national literary critique accounts for In taking an international literary perspective this book draws critical attention to little known or disregarded aspects such as Ihimaera s love of opera the extravagance of his baroque lyricism his exploration of fantasy and his increasing interest in taking M ori into the global arena In revealing a broad range of cultural and aesthetic influences and inter references commonly seen as irrelevant to contemporary M ori literature Striding Both Worlds argues for a hitherto frequently overlooked and undervalued depth and complexity to Ihimaera s imaginary The present study argues that an emphasis on difference tends to lose sight of fiction s capacity to appreciate originality and individuality in the polyphony of its very form and function In effect literary negotiation of M ori sovereign space takes place in its forms rather than in its content the uniqueness of M ori literature is found in the way it uses the common tools of literary fiction including language imagery the text s relationship to reality and the function of characterization By interpreting aspects of Ihimaera s oeuvre for what they share with other literatures in English Striding Both Worlds aims to present an additional complementary approach to M ori New Zealand and postcolonial literary analysis
